

Caffè Concerto

Our History

Caffè Concerto was created in Italy in 1920, showcasing artists of the calibre of the great Tenor Tito Schipa and Beniamino Gigli. Maxim Gorky himself would sit at a table in the eighteenth-century Venetian style room and talk with intellectuals from the English colony in Alassio. The delicacies created by Rinaldo Balzola - who had learnt the art from Gustavo Pfatisch in Turin - becoming the head pastry cook for the Royal House of Savoy in 1929, even lured in D'Annunzio and Duse. Finding that their patisseries made Italy that little bit sweeter, the captains of Industry Motta and Alemagna were also famously known to take pause at Caffè Concerto.

Caffè Concerto è nato in Italia, intorno al 1920, esibendo artisti del calibro di Tito Schipa e Beniamino Gigli. Maksim Gor'kij sedeva nella sala veneziana Settecentesca, incontrando le "menti" della colonia inglese di Alassio. Le raffinatezze create da Rinaldo Balzola, che aveva imparato l'arte da Gustavo Pfatisch a Torino ed era divenuto nel 1929 capo-pasticcere della Real Casa Savoia, attirarono persino D'Annunzio e la Duse. Sostavano qui anche i due industriali più dolci d'Italia: Motta e Alemagna.
