From Your Pastor

As you have learned, our revival had to be rescheduled to May 5-8 due to both Bro. Ken and Sherry were very sick. I know you all were looking forward to the revival, but I am sure that Bro. Ken will be fully recovered so he will be able to conduct the revival in full strength. Remember also that we will have our fellowship meal on Sunday, May 5th so plan to stay, after church and enjoy a great time of fellowship. Remember also that plans are still being made to celebrate our 100th birthday anniversary on July 21st. With everything being planned, it should be a real banner day for our church. It is not too early to get the word out and remind those you know who have a connection in Central to mark the date on their calendar and let us know they plan to come and stay and eat some of that celebration cake.

Blessings Y'all,
Bro David

From our Minister of Music,

Bro. John Bailey

JOHN'S NOTES

April showers bring May flowers. I hope this is true since Carol planted a thousand or more flowers in the last part of April. She tells people who come by and compliment her on the beauty of our yard that she just plants them and God grows them. She indeed has a green thumb.

Can you believe that 2024 is almost half gone? I thought that getting older would make time slow down some, but in reality, it seems to have speeded up. In last December, we were planning to have a revival, which seemed to be way in the future, and now we are there. I hope you are planning on being in all the services and bringing a friend or guest with you. I remember past revivals and how God blessed. Do it again, Lord, do it again!!

John and Carol

100TH ANNIVERSARY

As we are getting closer to celebrating Central Baptist Church 100th celebration, we encourage everyone to pass that information on to family members and former members. Our church celebration will be Sunday, July 21.

Church Luncheon on Sunday

Since our revival date was changed to start on Sunday, May 5th, so has our church luncheon. Please plan on staying after the service on that Sunday. If you would like to, you may bring either a vegetable dish, salad, or dessert.
