(PUSHES THEM FORWARD)

NESBIN: What's this?

ABLIF: We found them hiding in the bush, Nesbin.

NESBIN: Hiding?

ABLIF: Thought they were gone at first. Jaska nearly put a spear through them.

NESBIN: Were they armed?

ABLIF: This one was. Took us all to get it off her.

(SHOWS LEELA'S KNIFE)

THE GROUND BENEATH
GRINDS NOISEFULLY)

NESBIN: Well! It speaks.

LEELA: I cannot 'it'. I am Leela.
And this is Rodan. Who are you and what do you want with us?

NESBIN: He's Nesbin.

LEELA: The leader?

NESBIN: Yes. This is Presta, and this is Ablig. And what's more to the point, what do you want with us?

RODAN: We don't want anything with you.

PRESTA: It's a trick. They've come here to trap us.

EP.3/TK 2 (cont)

JASKO: Send you back to the Citadel, before they bring the guards on us.

RODAN: No! You can't do that. We're escaping from the Citadel.

NESBIN: Then you do want something from us.

RODAN: What?

NESBIN: Protection. Help. You can't survive out here without.

LEELA: Huh. I can survive anywhere.

(NESBIN LOOKS AT HER, SLIGHTLY AMUSED.)

NESBIN: I can believe that. What are you?

LEELA: I am a warrior of the Sevateen.

FLESTA: An alien? That's dangerous. They'll surely come hunting for her.

NESBIN: We'll consider that in a moment. (TURNS BACK TO LEELA)
Well, warrior, I dare say you could survive. But what about your friend here?

RODAN: What about me?

NESBIN: You're no alien. I doubt whether you've ever set foot outside the Citadel in your life before. Have you?

EP. 3/TK 2 (cont)

RODAN: Yes.

NESBIN: It's all different out here, you know. You have to fend for yourself.

RODAN: Fend?

NESBIN: That's right. How are you going to eat, for instance?

RODAN: I have some supplies look.

(SHE PULLS A HANDFUL OF TABLETS OUT OF HER POCKET OR POUCH AND HOLDS THEM OUT)

NESBIN: They won't last long. And when you've finished those what are you going to do?

RODAN: I ... I don't know.

NESBIN: I thought not. You wouldn't even know what you could eat, would you? Have you ever eaten flesh? Or fruit?

RODAN: No.

NESBIN: And shelter? Do you understand the need for shelter? No, of course you don't. You wouldn't last three days out here.

(RODAN LOOKS AS THOUGH SHE IS GOING TO BURST INTO TEARS.)

ALL HER CONFIDENCE
HAS GONE. SLOWLY
SHE SLEW TO HER KNEES)

RODAN: I didn't realise... Oh, I'm so tired... and cold...

NESBIN: You'd better get inside.

PRESTA: Are we going to let them
stay, then?

NESBIN: We'll decide about that when we've heard their story. But this one needs rest before she'll be fit to tell us anything.

You know, you've got to admire him. He does have courage.

VARDAN: He is foolish. If he causes trouble we shall destroy him. And you, also.

THE DOCTOR: Oh. Look, I've kept my part of the bargain. What more do you want?

DF

(ON 1 + 2 CSO)

VARDAN: More? We have not begun yet. When we are certain that we have complete dominance over your people, we will reveal our requirements to you.

THE DOCTOR: Oh, good. And yourselves, too, I hope? It's disconcerting talking to shimmering shapes.

VARDAN: The time is not right. First, you must complete the arrangements for the subjugation of your people.

Hold DOCTOR R
to KELNER

THE DOCTOR: Naturally, naturally. Well, Castellan, the Chancellor doesn't seem very keen to help. How about you?

CASTELLAN: My duty is to serve the President, sir. I'm prepared to do whatever you wish.

THE DOCTOR: I thought you would be. You can start by making sure nobody tries to organise any sort of resistance. That's the last thing we want.

CASTELLAN: Yes, sir. I agree. Peaceful co-operation is a much more fruitful course.

df

(ON 1 + 2 CSO)

THE DOCTOR: Good. Why don't you regard yourself as acting vice-president, eh?

CASTELLAN: Thank you, sir.

THE DOCTOR: You'd better make me a list of all Time Lords with official positions, and let me know which ones you think are reliable.

CASTELLAN: Of course, sir. And I'll give you a list of known troublemakers at the same time.

THE DOCTOR: That's the stuff. Off you go, then.

NESBIN: Oh, but we are. Or at least, we were until we decided to drop out.

LEELA: What is 'drop out'?
You fell?

NESBIN: All that peace and eternal tranquillity can get very boring.
We chose to get back to nature out here.

LEELA: (TO RODAN) Is this true?

RODAN: I've heard rumours about it - but it's a subject that's never mentioned.

NESBIN: No, it wouldn't be. It might upset their cosy little world
where violence is taboo.
