SUPREME: Are you certain it is the real core?

CHEN: Of course - I had it

STEVEN: But the Directional Unit?

DOCTOR: Useless - see for yourself - useless.

SARA: What happened?

DOCTOR: The unit required a higher energy rate than we possess.

SARA: Then why has it burnt out and not the Tardis controls?

DOCTOR: A built in safety measure, my dear. The excess energy was forced back through the directional unit. - I'm afraid our plan to return to Kembel has failed.
