This room is not for show -- work gets done here.

SEVEN OR EIGHT PEOPLE are present. One of them is CYNTHIA REED. She's the boss.

TERRY
(to Cynthia)
What do you think?

CYNTHIA
It's horrible, it's depressing,
I love it. What else?

ALICE
I want to re-pitch that pregnancy idea. Find six women early in their pregnancies and follow them all right through to the births.

KEITH (negative) Yeah, when all that stuff comes out.

Mixed reactions, mostly negative.

CYNTHIA
I have an idea.

IMMEDIATE ATTENTION

CYNTHIA (CONT'D)
This is something I've been thinking about for a long time.
We're "Real TV" right? I mean that's the name of the station.

AGREEMENT

CYNTHIA (CONT'D)
So let's go real. We find someone. Just a regular person, someone. And we put their life on television -- live... all day long.

Silence. No movement at all.

CYNTHIA (CONT'D)
Calm down.

KEITH
What do you mean, like PBS did in the seventies? What was that family?

GREG

The Louds.

KEITH

Yeah.

CYNTHIA

No. We go way beyond that. We don't film it and edit it and put it on later. We go on the air live every morning and the show goes off each night, when our subject goes to bed. In between, we're on live all day, every day -- the same person, -- for...
(shrugs) let's say a month.

No one is wild for this. Some hate it -- some are unconvinced.

FELICIA

That's not a show that's a surveillance camera.

GREG

You can't do that.

CYNTHIA

The hell we can't. Look, the beauty of being a cable channel is we can take chances. I've thought about this and I'm telling you, I think this can make a noise. A loud one. There are twelve thousand channels. You've got to do something that says "Look at me!" Hell, people look at fish tanks all day. This is people!

(more firmly)

Someone's real life -- on TV, all day long -- live... And, you know what? -- I'm doing it.

Pause. The others know the argument is over.

GREG

In that case, We love it.

END CREDITS

3 EXT. POOL HALL - DAY

A BUS passes. On the bus is an ad. It says, "Would you like to star in your own TV show? Call Real TV (and a phone number) Coming (and a date)."

4 INT. POOL HALL - NIGHT - PARAMUS NEW JERSEY

This is a nice upscale pool hall. A party is in progress in a special private area -- a room upstairs let's say -- a loft. Thirty or forty PEOPLE in their twenties and thirties are informally celebrating the engagement of two of their friends.

It's NOISY, it's fun, it's informal. It's not a high-end group. By that we mean, not, for the most part young lawyers or stockbrokers. They're mostly blue-collar. Community college graduates.

WE OPEN ON ED PEKURNY. He's an attractive man, about thirty. There's still something a little juvenile about him -- not stupid, just boyish.

SOMEONE is VIDEOTAPING HIM for one of those congratulation montage things that are done at parties these days. Ed is good at this. He's not professional but he's a loosey-goosey guy who's kind of good on camera.

ED

I want to congratulate Kevin and Tracy on their engagement. I knew you guys were meant for each other from the moment Tracy told us she was pregnant.

TRACY

You asshole!

Everyone else is cracking up.

ED

(innocently)
What? What did I say?

TRACY

My mother's going to see this!

5 INT. PARTY - LATER

Other people are being "interviewed" on tape. Ed is SHOOTING POOL with his buddy, JOHN. John's had a couple of drinks. He's a little melancholy.

5 CONTINUED:

He is looking across the room, thoughtfully.

ED

What?

JOHN

Look at this -- people are getting married, they're... getting married...

ED

You said that.

JOHN

We're falling behind.

Ed waves dismissively.

JOHN (CONT'D)

You know who we are?

ED

Tell me.

JOHN

We're the guys who clean up after the parade.

ED

I'm gonna stick this right in your eye.

JOHN

I was at this comedy club last week and this comedian says "If you're over thirty and your job requires you to wear a name tag, you screwed up your life." And I'm laughing and then I realize I wear a nametag.

ED

So do I. So what? I'm doing all right.

JOHN

Your brother's here.

ANGLE ON THE DOOR

Ed's brother RAY and Ray's girlfriend SHARI arrive at the party. Shari is pretty in an unglamorous kind of way. They both wave and then Shari goes off to talk to some of the LADIES and Ray joins Ed and John.

RAY
What's up?

ED
Where were you?

RAY (reluctantly)
I was... having dinner with Shari and her parents.

JOHN/ED (taunting) Oooh!

RAY I'm telling you, it's closing in on me. All of a sudden it's like a thing, it's a whole thing.

ED
What do you mean all of a sudden?
You've been going with her six months.

RAY
I know. I mean I'm sitting there and her father's asking me about my "career prospects" and I'm playing "Risk," with her kid brother, Leon and at dinner the dog's sniffing at my balls -- at least I hope it was the dog.
'Cause her mother disappeared for a while.

They LAUGH.

6 INT. PARTY - LATER

It's getting wild. Some of the girls are dancing raucously.

ANGLE ON A TABLE (NOT A POOL TABLE, AN EATING TABLE)

Ed, Ray, John, Shari and maybe another WOMAN.

Ray is holding a big tray of SHRIMP BALLS. During the conversation, Ray throws them in the air and catches them in his mouth like popcorn. Once, he even bounces one off the wall into his mouth.

ED
You know, those are for everybody.

6 CONTINUED:

Ray waves dismissively, then gets an idea.

RAY

Oh!

(to Shari)

Show them that thing you can do.

(to the others)

This is great. I just found out she can do this, her brother told me.

(to Shari)

Come on.

SHARI

(thinks it's stupid)

I don't --

RAY

Come on...

She hesitates, but she really doesn't mind. Slightly, amused she takes her FIST and fits it completely INTO her MOUTH.

ED

Whoa!! Oh!

Ray is cracking up.

RAY

Is that unbelievable?

She removes her hand.

SHARI

And that concludes today's show.

(to Ray)

This is where you go around and collect the money.

Ed LAUGHS. Ray gives her a KISS.

Shari's roommate RITA sits down.

RITA

Hi.

SHARI

You guys know my roommate, Rita.

They do, vaguely.

ED

What's going on over there?

6 CONTINUED: (2)

RITA
Everybody's making audition tapes for that Real TV thing.

JOHN
Oh that thing. Yeah. Did you hear about this?

ED
(not sure) Yeah, what -- they put some schmuck on TV all day long or something?

RAY
You know, that would be like a great thing.

ED
What?

RAY That! Being that guy. Being the guy they watch.

ED
What are you drunk?

RAY
Yeah, but let's stay on one subject. Whoever that person is is going to be famous. They'll be able to get whatever they want. They'll... trust me, this is my business.

ED
What is?!

RAY Show business.

ED
You're in show business?

RAY
Yeah. I service video equipment.

ED
That's like... those people stitching Nikes in Panama saying they're in the NBA.

6 CONTINUED: (3)

RAY
(insulted)
I'm not stitching Nikes in Panama!... Bedwetter!

ED Thumbsucker!

RAY
I'm making a tape.

ED
We're excited.

7 INT. BAR - A FEW MINUTES LATER

Ed and Shari, waiting for drink orders.

ED
So Ray met the family.

SHARI
Yeah...

ED
I hear the dog really liked him.

SHARI
Oh, the whole family loved him.
Of course, they loved the last guy I went out with, and he strung me along for three years and dumped me.

ED
Really? You see, to me, you shouldn't have any trouble with men. There should be, like, a line behind you.

She takes Ed's beer.

SHARI
You shouldn't drink.

They LAUGH.

8 INT. TABLE - A LITTLE LATER

Ed and Shari ARM-WRESTLING. After a struggle, Ed wins. Ed is impressed.

ED
Jesus!

8 CONTINUED:

Shari wrings out her arm and picks up her beer.

SHARI (continuing a previous conversation)

And, you know, every guy I ever broke up with, the minute it was over, I could tell you what went wrong, how it went wrong, why it had to go wrong... but when I'm in it... lost. I'm like a love coroner. Bring me the corpse,
I'll tell you what killed it.
But how to prevent it? Lost.

Ed LAUGHS.

ED

Ray's on.

They walk over.

ANGLE ON RAY

RAY
(to camera)
Hi. I'm Ray Pekurney. I'm from Paramus, New Jersey...

9 INT. CYNTHIA'S OFFICE - DAY

She's watching Ray's tape. Ray thinks he's funnier and cuter than he is.

RAY (ON TAPE)
All my friends tell me "Ray, you've got too much personality for one guy." It's like at a party -- I'm at the center of the attention. Everybody loves me.

He gets hit in the face by a hors d'oeuvres.

RAY (CONT'D)
Ha, ha, ha. I'll kick your ass.
No really, let me show you my girlfriend. She's really cute.

He reaches out and grabs Shari's wrist. Shari is struggling to stay out of frame. We just see her arm and Ray pulling on it.
Ray lets go.

9 CONTINUED:

RAY (CONT'D)
 She's strong, 'cause she's a Fedex girl. She lifts those packages. But she's not dikey at all, she's really pretty.

CYNTHIA FAST-FORWARDS

WE SEE the camera shooting an empty space.

Then Ed's head appears sideways right in front of the CAMERA.

ED
 Hello... I'm Ed.

He starts to sniff.

ED (CONT'D)
 What smells?

He steps back from the camera and straightens his head as he SNIFFS. He's more relaxed than Ray.

ED (CONT'D)
 What is that smell? Oop -- I think it's this idea. One person on TV all day long?
 (screams)
 Are you nuts?

WE HEAR LAUGHS

The Real TV Staff are enjoying Ed's tape while they eat lunch out of styrofoam containers.

ED (CONT'D)
 Seriously, get your resumes in order. When my brother Ray -- whose personality you were just dazzled by -- told me he was going to try out for this -- I said, "why in the world would anyone want to be on TV all day long, no privacy, everybody knowing your business, exposing every single detail of your life -- I mean... why would anyone want to do that? But then I thought of a reason...
 (loudly)
 Why the hell not?

He KISSES the LENS, smudging it.

Cynthia, watching, cracks up. The others seem to like him to.

10 INT. VIDEO STORE - DAY

This is a video store in Paramus, New Jersey. It's busy.
PEOPLE are in line to check out tapes.

WE OPEN ON a WOMAN -- a mother -- who is rummaging through her purse for her Blockbuster card. She looks up and sees that her TWO CHILDREN have opened several boxes of candy from the candy display and are eating from the boxes.

MOTHER

Oh for -- Put those -- Oh God...

She grabs the boxes from them. The boxes are ripped more than she thought and candy goes flying all over. She bends to pick it up.

Ed appears. He works here.

ED

(to the Mom)

We'll take care of it.

Someone arrives with a broom.

ED (CONT'D)

(to the broom guy)

Here. This time throw it out, don't eat it.

LOU, the Manager passes.

ED

Lou, can I talk to you a second?

Lou seems like he'd prefer to avoid this.

LOU

Um, yeah, I was gonna ...

ED

What's the deal? Did anybody make a decision --

LOU

Ed, look, uh... you're not getting the job. They're gonna transfer someone from another store to manage this store when I leave to manage the new store.
I'm sorry.

ED

Oh, Christ. Did you go to bat for me?

LOU

I batted!

10 CONTINUED:

ED

You batted or you bunted?

LOU

Hey. I went as far as I felt comfortable. I mean, you know, let's face it -- you come and go here as you please. You work when you feel like it -- you know, Bruce Springsteen's birthday is not a legal holiday.

ED

Well, then... I'm quitting.

LOU

Ed, come on. What's that gonna do? You're gonna bring Blockbuster to their knees. Let me recommend a movie to you. It's called "Get your shit together before it's too late."

ED

(wise-ass)

Who's in it?

CLERK

Ed, telephone.

Ed goes to the phone.

ED

(into the phone)

Yeah... Are you serious?... Come on, no kidding, who is this?... Holy shit!

11 INT. CONFERENCE ROOM - ANOTHER DAY

Ed is being interviewed by the "Real TV" staff whom we met earlier. He's slightly less comfortable than on his tape, but he's good.

ED

I had one year of college. And then one year of junior college.

CYNTHIA (O.C.)

What did you study?

ED

Oh, see, studying would've been a huge help. Where were you, then?

11 CONTINUED:

They LAUGH.

CUT TO:

ED

Well, there's Ray, my brother. He's... ambitious. Like a few years ago, he started this mobile dog-grooming business. But, like, out of his Camry. He had this bathtub in his trunk --

(Ed starts cracking up) he's throwing the dogs in there, they're fighting and splashing, then he'd slam the trunk down, let 'em run around inside screaming getting all wet... then he'd use the car exhaust to dry'em.

(wiping his eyes)

CUT TO:

ED

My sister -- Marcia, I mean she can't get a break. About seven years ago she falls in love with this Vietnamese guy who wants to marry her so he can stay in the country. So they get married, they have a kid, he gets his citizenship, immediately divorces my sister and marries this Vietnamese woman who, he was probably already married to all along. She can pick 'em.

(pause)

She's got a nice little boy, though. My nephew, Andy.

CUT TO:

ED

My Mom's okay. Kinda. I knew a guy who hated his mother -- Stuey Shwam. He hated his mother so much, he had his belly button removed.

CUT TO:

ED

No, I've never been married.

11 CONTINUED: (2)

The interviewer seems to be waiting for him to elaborate. He doesn't. He shrugs -- that's it.

CUT TO:

ED

Oh, my father -- what an asshole. When I was twelve, my mother needed a hysterectomy -- my father ran off with her nurse! And that's the last I heard of him.

CUT TO:

ED

Al, my stepfather... He's... opinionated. And you have to listen because he's like in a wheelchair.

CUT TO:

ED

I like my job -- I mean I'm doing all right. I'm not sure how long I want to stay there, you know... I mean, I'm thirty-one... I'm not sure I want to be a video store clerk when I'm forty... Of course, I didn't expect to be doing it 'til I was thirty-one, either. But... you know I'm... keeping my options open. Anything comes along, I'm ready to pounce.

(growls like a cougar)

CUT TO:

ED

A dream? Of course I have a dream... I just don't know what the hell it is.

(shrugs and smiles)

Ed's image freezes, while he has a funny-cute expression on his face.

PULL BACK TO REVEAL a TV in a conference room with Ed's frozen image on it. Cynthia is there with her bosses, the people who run the network that owns Real TV. The top man is MR. SCHARLACH. His deputies are MS. SEAYER and MR. MCILVAINE. This is not the same place where we met Cynthia and her staff. This is richer, more corporate and formal.

11 CONTINUED: (3)

CYNTHIA
He's who we want to go with.

SCHARLACH
(doubtfully)
This guy.

CYNTHIA
I polled my staff. The men say they'd hang around with him and the women say he's fuckable. And one of the men said he's fuckable.

SCHARLACH
I'm not sure about the entire concept.

Cynthia is frustrated.

CYNTHIA
Look it's not like we're burning up the airwaves now. We're running neck-and-neck with The Gardening Channel. If people just tune in to this twice a day for five minutes, we're a hit. Plus we can sell advertising every second, running at the bottom of the screen... and the beauty is this guy doesn't even have to be good. I mean if he's good, great. But if he winds up making an ass of himself, better.

McILVAINE
How is that better?

CYNTHIA
Come on. People cannot turn away from an accident. You drive by, you say "Ooh, I hope there's not a head lying in the road" but you look! See, nobody in America wants to be nobody. This guy wants to be famous. So, basically, the deal is he agrees to drive down the highway a hundred miles an hour blindfolded and we get to see if his head winds up rolling down the highway. Fun for the whole family. So let's do it.

She stops, waiting for approval.

SCHARLACH
(coldly)
Good luck.

12 INT. VIDEO STORE

Ed's RE-STOCKING the SHELVES. He gets goosed from behind.

RAY (O.C.)
(very loud and happy)
Hey...

ED (goosed)
Oh!

Ed DROPS the BOXES. Ray is there with Shari.

RAY
I got your message. Way to go!

ED
Hi, Shari.
(to Ray)
Let's go in the stockroom.

13 INT. STOCKROOM

Ed and Ray enter.

RAY
So when do you start?

ED
I... I'm not gonna do it.

RAY
What?

ED Look -- there's a million ways to humiliate yourself -- I gotta think of a new way? I mean, it's all day! Every minute. I'd be like a monkey at the zoo. I just...

RAY (disgusted)
Oh man! They couldn't pick me!
They had to pick you!

He slaps a tape off a shelf.

13 CONTINUED:

ED
You would do this? You would actually --

RAY
In a second! In a hot second.
Let me ask you something --

ED
Why do you do that?

ED
What?

ED
Whenever you ask me something why do you always say "Let me ask you something?" Why don't you just ask me?

RAY
(impatiently)
All right. Let me ask you something... are you happy like this?

ED
I'm doing all right.

RAY
Oh Yeah? What's your master plan
here?

Shari enters, curious about the yelling. She stands there quietly, unnoticed by the guys.

RAY (CONT'D)
You're gonna be a video store clerk for the rest of your life?
This is your big ambition, rearranging the "Ernest" movies?

ED
Screw off.

RAY
How many opportunities are you going to get in your life?

ED
I don't know.

RAY
That's right. You don't know.
Doors don't fly open for guys like us.

13 CONTINUED: (2)

ED
Hey. You know -- we're not the same. I got a good life, this job suits me. I come and go when I please --

RAY
Oh, don't bullshit a bullshitter.
If you're happy like this you're an idiot, and you're not an idiot.
(sees Shari)
Hi.

Ed turns and sees Shari. She's self-conscious. She feels like she's been caught eavesdropping.

SHARI
Oh. I -- I heard Ray yelling.
I didn't mean to --

RAY
(to Ed)
Give me a chance. I'm begging you. I need a break. Look, I'll cover your ass. I'll ride shotgun. Just bring those cameras over to me and I'll make something happen for both of us.
I swear. Come on, Eddie...

Pause.

ED
All right.

RAY
Yeah?!

ED
Yeah.

Ray lifts Ed up.

RAY
(to Shari)
Is this guy a brother?!

Ray kisses Ed.

14 INT. RESTAURANT - NIGHT

Moderate-priced, restaurant.

WE OPEN ON a CLOSE-UP of AL. He's about seventy.

14 CONTINUED:

AL

What happens when you go to the bathroom? Do they go in with you?

REVEAL THE FAMILY

Ed, Ray, Al, JEANETTE and MARCIA. Al is in a WHEELCHAIR and has an oxygen mask connected to a tank. He periodically takes a hit of oxygen. He's a little short of breath, but loves to talk. Jeanette is Ed's mother -- about sixty. Marcia is a little older than Ed.

ED

No. The bathroom is off limits -- and when I go to sleep they go to other programming. Unless I get up. Then they go back on the air. Unless I get up to go to the bathroom, I guess, then --

AL

What if you're vomiting?

ED

(amazed by the question)

What if I'm vomiting?

AL

Do they show it?

ED

I gue -- I don't -- it's all in the contract. There's this million-page contract --

RAY

Look, can we all just sign the releases so we can get on with this?

MARCIA

(accusing, to Ed)

What happened? You described this "crazy-kooky" family who'd be a million laughs on TV?

ED

No! I barely even mentioned -- it's just that, my friends, the people at work, whoever I'm regularly in contact with they want releases from.

14 CONTINUED: (2)

MARCIA (angrily)
They're gonna mock our foibles.

ED
Our what?

MARCIA
Our foibles, our foibles!

RAY
We don't have foibles.

MARCIA
Everyone has foibles. Then the whole country sees them on TV and mocks them. Then we have... mocked foibles.

JEANTTE
Eddie, please don't let them mock our foibles.

ED
(losing it)
Stop saying foibles!

MARCIA
Look, my life is not so great, that I want it shown on television. And neither is yours.

RAY That's the point -- this could change things.

MARCIA How?!

RAY
For instance... me and my friend
Bucky are buying out my boss.
His equipment, trucks, client list, the whole shmear.

MARCIA (points to Ed)
What does that have to do with...?

RAY
If they keep Ed on for one full month, he gets a balloon payment.

Ed nods.

RAY (CONT'D)

I borrow against that now, at the bank. Buy the business. And Ed becomes a silent partner. Now here's the beauty part. While we're on TV I plug the shit out of the business. Free advertising.

Pause.

AL

How about sex?

A STUNNED pause. They all look at Al.

ED

I'll have to pass, Al. And it's not an age thing --

AL

No! Do they show you having sex?

ED

No. Kissing and hugging, okay, but if it's actual sex they have to cut away.

AL

At what point?

ED

At the point -- I don't -- Look -- you'd be on TV maybe one or two times each. I'll try to avoid -- I'll go out of my way to avoid, getting together with you. Believe me.

WE HEAR: A loud drilling sound.

CUT TO:

15 INT. ED'S APARTMENT - DAY

2

A WORKMAN is drilling a hole in the wall.

Ed is there with a TV CREW. They're running cable and drilling holes and examining the apartment.

Cynthia is going around supervising. Ray and Shari are there. Ray is fascinated. Ed is tense. Shari is observant. Ray separates from Ed and Shari and asks one of the Installers a technical question.

15 CONTINUED:

SHARI AND ED

SHARI
Are you sure about this?

ED
Hey, believe me -- I know I've got a great chance of making a fool of myself, here.

SHARI
Why do it?

Ed thinks.

ED
I saw this show once. It was about logging. I was home sick, there was nothing else on. Do you know how they break up really bad log jams? You know, when they're really tangled...?

SHARI
Cream rinse?

ED
(laughs)
No. Dynamite.

SHARI
So?

ED
So maybe this is my dynamite.

SHARI
Dynamite is dangerous.

CYNTHIA
Ed, can I see you a second.

ED
(to Shari)
Excuse me.

Ed joins Cynthia.

CYNTHIA
Okay, so you understand? We're installing a permanent camera in your bedroom, one in the kitchen, one in the living room, plus, of course, there'll always be a couple of steady-cams following you.

15 CONTINUED: (2)

ED
(overwhelmed) Cool.

CYNTHIA
I want you to take this.

She gives him a card.

CYNTHIA (CONT'D)
That has my work number, my home number, my pager number. I sleep three hours a night. Call me whenever you want to talk. Off the air, on the air, whenever.
Okay?

ED
(barely listening)
Um, yeah -- thanks.

Ed looks kind of overwhelmed. She doesn't like this.

CYNTHIA
Now look. Don't freeze up on me.
I picked you because you had kind of a relaxed, go-with-the-flow quality. You're not going to lose that, are you?

ED
No, uh...

CYNTHIA
I bet my career on you. You'd better be good.

ED
(annoyed)
Don't say that. That's like... telling a guy before you have sex you'd better be good. You don't do that.

CYNTHIA
I do.

Ed reacts.

ED
Oh.

16 INT. ED'S BEDROOM - NIGHT

He's in bed, watching TV. The news is on. He glances up at one of the cameras. On the news, they go to a story about him.

ENTERTAINMENT REPORTER

Tomorrow morning, the cable channel known as Real TV, begins broadcasting one of the most heavily promoted concepts in the history of cable television. In an experiment that they say will last at least a month. They're going to follow -- live -- every waking minute of a thirty-one year old video store clerk from Paramus New Jersey. The Real TV press release on this promises that none of it will be scripted, none of it will be edited and in my opinion, none of it will be interesting. We're all just supposed to sit in front of our TV's and watch this guy... live.
(rhymes with "give")

ANCHOR

(to the Entertainment Reporter)

What would be the interest here?
What would... get people to tune in?

ENTERTAINMENT REPORTER

Beats me.

SIDEKICK

I don't know. I might check it out.

ANCHOR

Well, Len's here to check out sports. Len, would you watch this video clerk?

LEN

I'd sooner watch soccer.

They all CHUCKLE.

17 INT. CYNTHIA'S APARTMENT - NIGHT

She's watching the same show. She's edgy. She's CRACKING her KNUCKLES.

17 CONTINUED:

On the TV, the commercial ends and the Real TV logo appears.

A CRAWL BEGINS

It says "The following is unedited, unscripted, and unrehearsed. It is the real life of one American citizen named Ed Pekurny."

The logo fades away and we see Ed, in bed, sleeping. His ALARM RINGS and he wakes up.

He's groggy from sleep. Instinctively, he begins SCRATCHING his balls. As he does, it hits him that this is not a normal morning. He looks up and sees two steady-cam guys at the foot of his bed, aiming their cameras at him. Ed, then, looks at his hand on his balls. Gently, he moves his hand away.

22 INT. OFFICE

KEITH
(mock cheerful)

Well, we're off to a great start.

NOTE: The camera operators will change in shifts. We'll see about four regulars over the course of the film. The one we will see most often is shooting Ed right now. His name is CARLOS.

23 INT. BEDROOM

Ed, wearing shorts and a T-shirt, gets out of bed. His hair is sticking up. He passes a mirror and notices his hair.

ED
Oh, great.

He turns to the camera and seems about to offer an excuse for his appearance, but, then, just moves on.

ED (CONT'D)
Excuse me.

He grabs some clothes and enters the bathroom.

24 INT. OFFICE

They're not enjoying this. Everyone's staring at Cynthia. She doesn't flinch. NOTE: Silent advertising runs along the bottom of the screen.

25 INT. KITCHEN - A FEW MINUTES LATER

Ed enters, dressed and showered. The Steady-cam is in his face.

Ed is tight. He's much less comfortable than he expected to be. He smiles stiffly at the camera. He's misplaced his natural charm.

He gets a box of Pop-tarts out of the freezer. As he does, other stuff falls out of the freezer on to the floor. He's embarrassed. He bends down to pick things up, showing his ass to the camera.

26 INT. OFFICE

GREG
(to Cynthia)
Start clearing a place for your Emmy.

27 INT. KITCHEN - A LITTLE LATER

Ed is sitting up on the kitchen counter eating his Pop-tarts and a bowl of cereal.

ED

(nervously)

Some people like to put the milk in first and then the cereal. I like to put in the milk first -- I mean the cereal first and then the milk. Yeah, that's it. Now, watch this.

He takes a KNIFE and a BANANA. He peels the banana. He holds the knife, blade up, over the cereal and chops down on it with the banana, several times, rapidly, slicing it into the cereal. He's proud of this.

28 INT. RAY'S APARTMENT

Ray is watching the show. His head is in his hands. He's horrified by how bad Ed is.

29 INT. PARENTS' HOUSE

Jeanette and Al watching Ed.

JEANETTE

(being positive)

So far...

30 INT. OFFICE

KEITH

Somebody shoot me.

31 INT. NETWORK OFFICE

Scharlach, Seaver and McIlvaine watching, grim-faced.

32 INT. OFFICE

Cynthia is ON the PHONE.

CYNTHIA

Get him out of the house! I want him moving!

33 INT. CONTROL TRUCK

DIRECTOR (on the phone) Hey, I want him dead, but what can I do.

34 INT. KITCHEN

Ed is EATING. He peers confused at the camera.

ANGLE ON

CAMERA OPERATORS. They're signaling Ed to get out.

ANGLE ON ED

Bewildered, imitating their gestures.

ED
What... You want me to swim?

35 INT. CONTROL TRUCK

The Director is still on the phone. She's watching Ed on a monitor.

DIRECTOR
Oh God...

Ed gets it.

ED
Oh, out! You want me to go out.

36 EXT. BUILDING

Ed exits the building with the Operators walking backwards in front of him, bumping into PEOPLE. People watch, curiously.

Ed reaches his car. He takes out his keys and drops them in a muddy puddle. Disgusted, he fishes them out.

CUT TO:

Scharlach, watching impassively.

CUT TO:

Ed, in the car. He can barely fit the key into the ignition. Carlos, in the passenger seat taps him on the arm. Ed looks up. Carlos holds up a hastily-made sign. "It's okay. Relax, man." Carlos WINKS. This does help Ed. He appreciates it. He drives.

36 CONTINUED:

WE SEE the control truck in motion. We also see another car with another Steady-cam OPERATOR, shooting Ed's car as they travel.

37 EXT. STREET - MONTAGE

Ed is doing his morning errands. A little shopping -- a little banking -- always ON CAMERA. At one point, he WALKS INTO a GLASS DOOR with the word "Pull" on it. He pushed, banging his forehead. A CHILD points to the word "Pull." Ed turns to the camera, embarrassed. Later he buys a slice of pizza at a little place that's doing no business.

ED
(to the camera)
Best pizza in New Jersey.

As he walks down the street, PEOPLE call out "Hey Ed!" People in windows show him that they're watching him at that exact moment.

The camera shoots some of the people in the windows. They see themselves on TV and they go wild. Ed also is confronted by GUYS grabbing their crotches mockingly, calling out things like "Hey, Ed, holding your own?" or "Hey, Ed, how's the grand ballroom." Ed is slightly chagrined by all this, but handles it with good grace. He seems to be loosening up.

38 INT. VIDEO STORE - DAY

Ed arrives at work. The store is already open. (Ed usually gets there in the afternoon and stays until closing.) CUSTOMERS are a little stunned by the arrival of a camera. Some know what it's about some don't.

The CLERKS are aware of what's going on. They all signed releases. Ed's BOSS greets him stiffly. Clearly he's trying to get face-time on camera.

ED
Hey, Lou.

LOU (stiffly)
Welcome to work, Ed.

He shakes Ed's hand and smiles at the camera. He WAVES a little.

The BROOM GUY crosses, staring transfixed at the camera. He blocks Ed and Lou. He FREEZES, then panics. He tries to get out of the way and trips over his broom. He tumbles face-first into the camera lens, hurting himself.

38 CONTINUED:
ANGLE ON ED, observing.

ED (muttering)
Oh, Jesus, I'm dying.

39 INT. CONTROL TRUCK

DIRECTOR Carlos, give him some air, give him some room. Use a longer lens. We'll mostly go with the stationary cameras in here. Less intrusive.
(to the crew in the truck, sarcastically)
Have any of you thought about your next career?

40 INT. A KITCHEN - SAME TIME

A WOMAN is serving dinner. She's watching Ed on TV -- really just glancing at it. Her HUSBAND is helping her bring the food to the table.

HUSBAND
Why are we watching this?

WIFE
(a little guilty)
No reason. Just... I just want to see what happens.

HUSBAND
Nothing's gonna happen. He's just... working.

WIFE
Oh, come on, they wouldn't put it on if nothing was gonna happen.

He changes the channel. She changes it back. He doesn't get it at all.

RAPID CUTS of VARIOUS PEOPLE around America, watching -- A couple, a young guy, a woman alone -- ending with a few college-age girls in what appears to be a dorm room.

ONE GIRL is watching intently. Her roommates are mostly just hanging around not really watching.

40 CONTINUED:

COLLEGE GIRL
I think he's cute.

One of her roommates glances over to see what she's so excited about.

41 EXT. STREET - NIGHT

Ed is walking. He passes the little pizza place he touted earlier. There's a LINE out into the street. The STOREOWNER is working hard -- deliriously happy. Ed passes, oblivious to what he's created.

42 INT. ED'S APARTMENT - NIGHT

The Camera Operator is shooting Ed in the bathroom CLIPPING his TOENAILS.

ED
Some guys work from the big toe down to the little toe. Not me.
I save the big one for last.
That's the one I really enjoy.
It's thick, it's big, it's a challenge. Did you ever see old people's nails?
(makes a disgusted noise)

43 INT. RAY'S APARTMENT

Ray and Shari watching Ed. Ray is BANGING HIS HEAD on the table

RAY
This is not working.
(to Ed on TV)
Come to me!

44 INT. CYNTHIA'S OFFICE - NIGHT

It's late. She's alone. She's ON the PHONE. She's coming apart.

CYNTHIA
(into phone)
No, I haven't seen the spot ratings...
(she winces)

As she talks, she tries to LIGHT a CIGARETTE. She's shaking too much to use her lighter.

44 CONTINUED:

CYNTHIA (CONT'D)

(into phone)

I... I think that's a number from which we can hopefully, uh... build...

ANGRY at her lighter, she throws it breaking a window.

CYNTHIA (CONT'D)

I disagree... No, I am not ready to pull the plug... Yes, Mr.
Scharlach, I know they shoot horses...

(getting angry)

Look, it's been one day. Can I have a week with this and then have you fly up my nose?!

(hangs up)

She immediately regrets her outburst.

45 INT. BAR - NIGHT

Written on the screen -- "Day Two."

OPEN ON TURTLES racing (as only turtles can) across the floor.
The turtles have little plastic men, seated on their backs.
The CROWD CHEERS and SCREAMS for their favorite turtles. Ed is being followed by the steady-cams but seems to be ignoring it.

Ed is in a group which includes John, and Ray. The race ends.
John looks very uncomfortable.

BARTENDER

The winner... Dashing Danny.

Ed wins. MONEY changes hands.

ED

Next round's on me.

One of the cameras is very close to John. He's very SELF-CONSCIOUS. He doesn't look where he's walking. He trips.
PEOPLE LAUGH.

ED

(off-hand joke)

Polish acrobat.

RAY

(loudly)

Hey. Check this out.

(to the cameramen)

Look at this.

4

45 CONTINUED:

Ray TAKES OUT a big stack of QUARTERS and sets them on the bar next to a SHOT GLASS.

46 INT. CONTROL TRUCK

DIRECTOR
Go with the desperate brother.

47 INT. BAR

The cameras go with Ray. Ray does a "spit the quarters off the bar into the shot glass" trick, while PEOPLE CHEER.

Ed is standing next to Shari. They're OFF-CAMERA.

ED
Whoa, God bless Ray. First time
I'm off-camera in two days. This is hard, you know? I'm, like, exhausted.

ANGLE ON RAY

He's BALANCING a BAR STOOL on his forehead.

ANGLE ON ED AND SHARI

SHARI
(calmly)
He did that at my parents' house.

ANGLE ON RAY

RAY (selling hard to the camera)
Okay, I just wanted to get your attention. My name is Ray and my friend Bucky and I design video systems. You've got an office or a big home, we'll come out there design you an entire system.

As Ray drones on...

ANGLE ON ED AND SHARI

ED
See, they should've picked him.
Look how comfortable he is out there.

47 CONTINUED:

SHARI
He is so wound up. He bought all new clothes for this.

ANGLE ON RAY

He flips the BAR STOOL and catches it. He accepts the plaudits of the crowd. He returns to Ed and Shari. So do the cameras.
Ray is fired-up.

RAY
Whew! I am kicking hairy ass!

Ray is still full of energy.

RAY (CONT'D)
Hey, Ed. Did you hear about Marcia?

ED (worried)
No. What happened?

RAY
(to the camera)
That's our sister.
(to Ed)
She's got a new boyfriend.

CUT TO:

AL AND JEANETTE

Watching TV.

JEANETTE
Who?

BACK TO BAR

RAY
He's living with her!

ED
(camera-conscious)
Ray, maybe this isn't...

RAY
No, this is great.
(to the camera)
You'll love this.
(to Ed)
He's a singer.

ED
Marcia's living with a singer?

RAY
Yeah. You know, piano bars. He plays the piano and sings.
That's how they met.

SHARI
He sang to her and they fell in love?

RAY (enjoying this) No! Some drunk hit him over the head with his snifter -- you know, that thing they keep on the piano for tips -- and Marcia yanked a big hunk of glass out of his head.
(cracks up, pounds the table)

48 INT. MARCIA'S APARTMENT

Marcia is staring at the TV in UNHAPPY SHOCK. Next to her is a good-looking, but slightly sleazy-looking GUY with a bandage on his head.

49 INT. BAR

RAY
I mean my question is what was she doing in a bar in the first place?

ED
Ray --

RAY
She's an alcoholic, for Christ's sake.

ED
Oh, Jesus.

Marcia, watching, HORRIFIED.

BACK TO BAR

RAY Remember the last guy she got involved with? What was his name?

ED
What's the dif --

49 CONTINUED:

RAY

Richie!

(to Shari)

She spent six months dating a criminal.

ED

(to Shari)

She didn't know he was a criminal. They had a relationship. They --

RAY

"Quick pull off the highway" is not a relationship. Oh man, I gotta pee.

He KISSES Shari. She COVERS her FACE with her hand.

RAY (CONT'D)

What are you, hiding from the police?

(pulls her hands down)

Show your face, you look great.

(to Ed)

Doesn't she look great.

ED

Great.

RAY

(to Ed)

While I'm gone, tell them about our cousin Lenny who's gay. We knew from when he was five.

He minces off, effeminately, to the bathroom, LAUGHING. It's like a hurricane has just passed through. Everyone is sitting, STUNNED.

ED

You do though, you look great.

SHARI

Right.

ED

No, no, I -- as soon as you came in tonight I said to John, "Boy Shari looks beautiful." I said it on TV so you can ask anybody who saw it.

She LAUGHS. They smile at each other. They make intermittent eye-contact a little self-consciously.

Ed finally looks somewhere else and Shari, for just a moment, stares right at him.

PULL BACK to TWO GUYS, watching this on TV in a bar -- more of a neighborhood bar.

50 INT. BAR - NIGHT

TAD
Did you see that?

BARRY
What?

TAD
Her. That look. She likes the Ed guy better than she likes the brother.

BARRY
You're nuts.

TAD
Okay, I'm nuts.

CUTS OF OTHER VIEWERS, WATCHING REAL TV

A BEDROOM

The COUPLE we met earlier are in bed, the wife is holding the remote.

HUSBAND
Give me the remote.

WIFE
Just a few more minutes. Read your book.

A LIVING ROOM

A GAY COUPLE

FIRST GUY
What do you like about it? I don't understand.

SECOND GUY
I don't know -- it just -- it's... I don't know. Just let me watch.

51 INT. ED'S BEDROOM - MORNING

51

"DAY THREE"

The ALARM goes off. Ed starts to scratch his balls, but stops halfway down. He WINKS at the camera and starts his day.

52 EXT. ED'S BUILDING

52

Ed comes outside and he's accosted by a GROUP of angry Polish-Americans, many of whom are carrying signs denigrating Polish jokes and anti-Polish attitudes. They SCREAM ANGRILY when they see Ed. Ed is completely shocked. He runs back inside. He locks the door, leaving Carlos outside. The demonstrators attack Carlos.

53 INT. ED'S APARTMENT

53

Ed is at his kitchen table with several burly DEMONSTRATORS arrayed behind him. Ed is NERVOUSLY, READING from a sheet of paper while Carlos shoots.

ED
... my "Polish acrobat" remark was ill-considered. Although, I meant no harm, I should have recognized that such (trouble with the next word) stigmatizing remarks bring pain and anguish to...

He's having trouble reading the next word.

ED (CONT'D)
I can't read my own writing.
It's like Chinese -- (quickly backtracking)
It's not like Chinese! Chinese is, I'm sure, a beautiful language and they write... beautifully. It's not Chinese.

He wipes sweat away.

ED (CONT'D)
Jesus, I'm sweating like a Mexican fruit-picker.
(realizes) Oh, Christ!

QUICK CUTS of Ed, getting his laundry, doing some shopping, getting his oil changed, all being shot by a CAMERA PERSON.

54 INT. DENTAL OFFICE

A YOUNG DENTAL HYGIENIST is cleaning Ed's teeth. The camera is practically right in his mouth. It's making the Hygienist NERVOUS. She's distracted. She hurts Ed. He SCREAMS. She SCREAMS. She drops her tools.

HYGIENIST
(near hysterics)
Can I have some room please?!

ED (talking with the suction in his mouth)
Gi hu roo.

55 INT. TV STUDIO

It's an educational-type panel discussion involving various eggheads and pundits. It's called "Viewpoint."

MODERATOR
Let's change topics for a moment.
Does anybody have a viewpoint on something going on now called "Ed TV"?

PANEL MEMBER #1
This, I believe, is a new low point in American culture.

PANEL MEMBER #2
I agree. What it reveals is the absolute creative bankruptcy in the television business. What they're saying, basically, is "We're giving up. We have no ideas."

PANEL MEMBER #3
It's worse than that! They don't select someone with any talent, or with something to say -- they seem to celebrate the fact that this guy is a boob. It's a joyous celebration of boobery.

PANEL MEMBER #4
I think we've already spent far too much time discussing this.

They all agree.

5

56 INT. CHINESE RESTAURANT - NIGHT

OPEN ON Ray with chopsticks up his nose, imitating a walrus. Also, he has lo mein noodles protruding from between his lips. Ed is forcing a smile. Ray is wearing a tee-shirt that says "Ray and Bucky- Video Kings" with a phone number.

5

57 INT. REAL TV OFFICE

Cynthia is alone working late. She's drinking. She's watching Ray. She's not enjoying him.

ED (V.O.)
Ray, don't throw the shrimp, you're gonna choke again.

CYNTHIA
Choke to death, you boring bastard.

5

58 INT. ED'S BEDROOM - NIGHT

Ed is sitting up in bed, wearing shorts and a tee-shirt, eating directly out of a cereal box.

TERRY
The audience likes you when you're moving.

ALICE
Yes. Try not to stay in one place too long. Get outside as much as you can.

KEITH
Also, we have some notions. Have you thought about becoming a Big Brother?

GREG Or coaching a Little League team?

FELICIA
How about a date?

ED
Are you asking me?

FELICIA
No, I mean...

KEITH
It's just, the ratings are still soft.

58 CONTINUED:

ED
(nervously)
Are you going to cancel me?

LONG PAUSE

CYNTHIA
Let's not worry about that yet.

ALICE
You're testing well.

FELICIA
There's another problem.

GREG It's... Ray.

ED
What about Ray?

GREG
Well, the walrus impression -- delightful as it was -- is just not wowing the audience. This is some audience research.

He hands Ed a PRINTOUT. Ed doesn't know how to interpret the figures.

ED
What does this mean?

FELICIA
It means they hate his freaking guts. It means if he were on fire they wouldn't put him out.

ED
He's just... trying a little too hard --

CYNTHIA
Ed, the audience can smell the desperation coming through the screen.

TERRY
Could you... see him a little less often?

ED
How much less?

FELICIA
Never would be plenty.

58 CONTINUED: (2)

ED
I can't do that to him. He's pushing a little too hard -- but... I just can't do that to him.

SILENCE

ED (CONT'D)
He'll be fine.

59 INT. CAR - DAY

"DAY FIVE"

Ed is driving slowly on a busy street. Suddenly an EIGHTEEN-YEAR-OLD BOY lands heavily on Ed's windshield. Ed is badly startled. He can't see. He swerves and stops. The boy is not hurt. He's banging on the windshield, waving at the camera. Ed, furious, gets out.

60 EXT. STREET - CONTINUOUS

ED
What the --?!

BOY
I'm on TV! I'm on TV!

Ed just stares in disbelief.

61 EXT. STREET - LATER

Ed is walking. PEOPLE YELL at him.

GUY
Ed! Your show stinks!

The Guy LAUGHS like he really got in a good one. Ed ignores him.

TWO TEENAGERS run in, one has a camera and quickly snaps a picture of Ed and the other Guy. Merrily, they shake his hand and run off, whooping.

There are PEOPLE who trail along. Many of them will show up again and again, throughout the movie, following Ed. Some of them will look mentally or emotionally impaired.

62 INT. VIDEO STORE- NIGHT

QUICK SHOTS of Ed with CUSTOMERS. One or two show a bit of camera-consciousness. A little group has gathered to observe Ed's "show".

63 INT. APARTMENT BUILDING HALLWAY- NIGHT

Ed rings the bell.

ED
(to the camera)
This is Ray's apartment. Ray's got a big-screen TV and the Knicks are playing in L.A. tonight, so sometimes I come over after I work late and we watch the game here. He makes funny comments. He's really a good guy. He just...

RAY (O.C.)
Who is it?

ED
It's me, Ed.

The door opens a crack, revealing Ray in a bathrobe. Ray's look is unwelcoming.

RAY Hi.

ED
You watching the ballgame?

RAY
Uh, no, uh... I'm a little tired. I fell asleep.

ED
Oh. All right. I'll watch at home, then.

RAY
Yeah...

WOMAN (O.C.)
Ray, where do you keep the glasses?

ED
Oh, is Shari here? Why didn't you just say so? Why are you giving me a song-and-dance about being tired?

(MORE)

63 CONTINUED:

ED (CONT'D)
 (calls out)
 Hi, Shari.

WOMAN (O.C.)
 Who's Shari?

ED Who's --

Ray looks pained. Ed realizes what's happening and freezes.
 Ray's phone RINGS.

RAY
 Oh. Shit.

He turns to answer his phone, allowing the door to swing open a little. Ed can see into the kitchen. He sees a WOMAN, wearing just panties, facing away from him, searching for glasses.

RAY
 (into phone)
 Hello... Shari, hi... Oh no!...
 Oh God!

ED
 (to the camera)
 We'd better go...

RAPID CUTS of VIEWERS loving this, some screaming "Don't go!, don't leave, stay" etc.

BACK TO SCENE

RAY
 (into phone)
 No, honey, it's not what it looks like--

She hangs up on him. He holds his head.

RAY
 Oh God... Ed!

64 INT. HALLWAY

Ed is TIP-TOEING away. He stops when Ray calls him. Ray runs out into the hallway after him. They speak with lowered voices.

RAY
 That was Shari. She saw the whole thing on TV--

64 CONTINUED:

ED
What is this? What's going on,
who is that?

RAY
(embarrassed) It's the receptionist at one of the places I service video equipment -- she's very pretty and, you know, she never even talks to me and then today I come in and she's all "I saw you on TV the other night... You were so great..." Next thing I know we're...

ED
Next thing you know! Why didn't you stop?

RAY
Stop? I'm a guy. I don't stop.
The woman's supposed to stop.
We're the gas, they're the brakes.

WOMAN (O.C.)
(calls out)
Ray, I finished the Snapple.

RAY Fine!

WOMAN (O.C.)
Is there more?

RAY
In the cabinet, but it's warm.
There's ice in the tray. I...
(to Ed)
Talk to her.

ED
I don't even know her. All I know is she likes Snapple.

RAY
No, not her. Shari. Go over there and talk to her.

65 INT. CYNTHIA'S BEDROOM

CYNTHIA
Yes! Go!

65 CONTINUED:

She THROWS SOMETHING at the screen.

She PICKS UP the PHONE.

66 INT. HALLWAY

ED

Why me?

RAY

You brought the cameras here!

ED

You brought the girl!

RAY

Please!

ED

If I go over to Shari, the camera's going there, too.

The Camera Operators are vigorously nodding and mouthing "yes.
Go." Ray is oblivious to this, but Ed picks it up.

RAY

That's good. She'll -- you know -- control herself. Look. If I go over there, she's just gonna slam the door on me. Just go over and beg her to talk to me, that's all. Please. You owe me for this!

Ed accepts the irony of Ray's attitude without comment.

67 INT. ANOTHER HALLWAY- NIGHT

The door opens, revealing RITA, Shari's roommate.

RITA

(nervously)

Um... Shari knew you were coming over because she saw...

ED

Right, yeah --

RITA

(apologetic)

She really doesn't want you and the camera in here right now.

67 CONTINUED:

ED
No, I understand. That's -- where is she, is she all right?

Rita isn't sure how much she should reveal.

RITA
I... gave her a drink. I thought it... but she's not much of a drinker, so it's made her a little... belligerent.

Shari appears in the doorway over Rita's shoulder. She's holding a liquor bottle and she's a little drunk.

SHARI
What do you want?!

ED
(awkward) Shari, I'm just really sorry.
Look, I know this is... unbelievably awkward, but if I could come in for like a second and -- you know -- just say... two words, then...

Shari indicates with her head, that Ed can come in.

Ed and Carlos enter. Rita shuts the door. Shari crosses to a couch. Ed indicates for Carlos to give them some distance.

68 INT. CONTROL TRUCK

6

DIRECTOR Don't lose them, Carlos. This is gold. Stay out of their way, but get everything.

69 INT. SHARI'S APARTMENT

6

Carlos settles across the room. He rests the camera down as if he's not even shooting, but he's still guiding it where he wants it throughout the scene.

RITA
I'm gonna go to bed.
(to Shari)
You okay?

Shari shrugs.

RITA (CONT'D)
Good night.

69 CONTINUED:

She gives the camera a quick glance.

RITA (CONT'D) (quickly, with a small wave)

Hi, Mom.
(she exits)

ED
Shari, Ray feels --

SHARI
(starting to cry)
Don't defend that horse's ass to me.

ED
I'm not. I'm not. I'm just...
Look -- you know, in a way, it's good. He got this out of his system now and... he knows it's not worth it and, you know, someday if you guys got married or something --

SHARI
Ha!

ED
Okay...

SHARI (poking Ed as she talks)
I've got news for you-- I never intended to marry him.

ED
Oh... how come?

70 INT. RAY'S APARTMENT

Ray, watching on TV.

71 INT. SHARI'S APARTMENT

SHARI
Well, for one thing, he's a bad lay.

72 INT. RAY'S APARTMENT

His eyes bulge out and he begins to gasp.

72 CONTINUED:

RAPID SHOTS of viewers reacting-- "Whoa!" laughs, etc. The college girls applauding. One of them SCREAMS "Tell it!"

73 INT. SHARI'S APARTMENT

Ed realizes that Ray's been called a "bad lay" on television.

ED
Oh my God.

SHARI (directly into the camera)
I mean bad.

ED
Look, not having been there... I just think you're hurt and you're saying this to, you know, get back at him.

She starts to cry.

ED (CONT'D)
Look... whether you get back together or not, you're too terrific a person to... lower yourself like this.

74 INT. RAY'S APARTMENT

Ray, still in shock.

75 INT. SHARI'S APARTMENT

ED (CONT'D)
I mean, I told Ray-- a couple of times-- that I thought you were one of the best and... smartest and... most attractive women
I've ever seen so...

In comforting her, he's gotten his face very close to hers.

76 INT. DORMITORY

Same dorm girls as before.

DORM GIRL
Kiss him! Kiss him!

76 CONTINUED:

BACK TO SCENE

SHARI Really?

ED
Yeah.

She tilts her head forward a little, hesitates, then kisses him, at first warmly, then passionately.

77 INT. DORM ROOM

The girls are going wild-- SCREECHING.

78 INT. TAD'S HOUSE

TAD
I'm nuts, hah?! I knew it! I said!

He dials the phone.

79 INT. JOHN'S HOUSE

John is stunned.

JOHN
Oh. Jesus!

80 INT. RAY'S APARTMENT

He stares, amazed.

The WOMAN he was found with appears behind him.

WOMAN
I found the Snapple.

81 INT. CYNTHIA'S BEDROOM

She sees the kiss.

CYNTHIA
Yes! Yes! I win! Scharlach, you schmuck! I am the golden goddess of television!

She begins beating her chest, one fist at a time while she SCREAMS in triumph.

82 INT. SHARI'S APARTMENT

Shari and Ed have stopped kissing. They both look stunned. Shari is suddenly sober.

SHARI

Oh my God.

She looks at Carlos who has now moved closer to them.

SHARI (CONT'D)

Oh my God.

ED

It's... okay --

SHARI

I kissed my boyfriend's brother on television!

ED

Well, when you put it that way...

SHARI

Leave. Go.

ED

Can't we just --

SHARI

Go!

ED

(exiting)

All right. Okay. I'll... see you.

He and Carlos exit. Going through the door, he gives Carlos a little push then quickly steps back inside, slams the door and locks it.

83 INT. CONTROL TRUCK

CARLOS (V.O.)

I'm locked out.

DIRECTOR

Stay calm. Shoot the door. We're running sound. And we've got a camera in the street.

84 EXT. BUILDING

A CAMERA is shooting at a second-story window. We SEE SILHOUETTES.

8

85 INT. SHARI'S APARTMENT

Ed is at the door. Shari is across the room. They stare at each other silently. Then they run to each other. They kiss again.

8

86 EXT. BUILDING

We can SEE them KISSING.

8

87 INT. APARTMENT

Ed and Shari are all over each other. They're breathless.

SHARI

What are we doing?

ED

I've got to tell you something.
I have had a big... thing for you for months.

INTERCUT WITH SHOTS OF VIEWERS

They're seeing the door or the silhouette shot, but they're hearing every word. They're mesmerized.

SHARI

Really?

ED

Yeah. I mean for months I've been seeing you with Ray -- you being his girlfriend and -- I kept wishing you were my girlfriend... But, you know, what could I do?

SHARI

Me too. I mean I'm going out with Ray and I'm... thinking about you.

ED

Really?

SHARI

Oh God, this is so weird.

ED

Weird? If this happened last month it would've been weird.
Now with... the TV and... now it's just too weird.

They look at each other. They don't know what to do.

87 CONTINUED:

ED (CONT'D)
I'd better go.

She nods. He walks to the door.

ED (CONT'D)
... Once more?

She nods. They run back to each other and kiss.

88 EXT. BUILDING

The silhouettes are kissing.

89 INT. RAY'S APARTMENT

Ray staring at the TV.

90 EXT. PRIVATE HOME - LATER

"DAY SIX"

This is a fairly old, modest private home. Ed pulls up. He and Carlos get out of the car. Ed hurries up to the front door and enters.

91 INT. HOME - CONTINUOUS

Ed enters. He's a little AGITATED.

ED
Hi, Al.

ANGLE ON AL

Al is in his wheelchair and taking periodic hits off an oxygen mask connected to a tank. Al's watching himself on TV.

AL (excited) Look. It's me.

He WAVES.

ED
Yeah. I brought you some movies.

AL
Anything good?

91 CONTINUED:

ED
No, I intentionally picked out a lot of crap 'cause I don't like you.

They LAUGH.

ED (CONT'D)
Is Mom here? I gotta talk to her.

AL
She's in the kitchen. I'd yell for her, but I'd die.
(sucks more oxygen)
You had a busy night last night.

ED (calls) Yeah. Ma...

JEANETTE (O.C.)
Eddie?...

ED
Yeah.

JEANETTE (O.C.)
Are the TV people with you?

ED
Yeah. The camera guy is here --

JEANETTE (O.C.)
Send him away.

ED
Send him --? Ma, I can't. They-- it's -- just come out here.
Please, I --

JEANETTE (O.C.)
No.

ED
Do you want us to come in the kitchen?

JEANETTE (O.C.)
No. It's a mess.

ED
Look, Ma, come on out. Really.
I need to talk to you.

After a pause, Jeanette enters, very camera-conscious.

ED (CONT'D)
(to the camera)
This is my mother.

STIFFLY, he gives her a kiss.

ED (CONT'D)
Ma, do you know where Ray is?
I've been calling him and I'm getting his machine and --

JEANETTE
Eddie, how could you do it? Your brother's girlfriend.

ED
Hey, he cheated on her.

JEANETTE
He made a mistake.

ED
I don't want to -- do you know where he is?

JEANETTE
No. Maybe he's watching.
(indicates the camera)
Tell him you're sorry. Tell him you'll stay away from that girl.

ED
No! And that girl has a name.

AL
What do you love her or something?

ED
(embarrassed) Come on...

AL (teasing) Look at your face. I had a car that color.

VARIOUS REACTIONS OF VIEWERS really liking this.

BACK TO SCENE

JEANETTE
I know you. This Shari is a passing fancy.

91 CONTINUED: (3)

ED
No! I -- All right, look, if you hear from Ray,... tell him to call me, okay?

He KISSES her again.

ED (CONT'D)
How's Marcia? She all right?

JEANETTE
I don't know. She's living with that "entertainer"...

ED (trying to make his mother feel better)
Well, who knows? Maybe she finally picked a winner this time.

JEANETTE (unconvinced) Mm.

ED
You and Al lived together a few months before you got married -- after Dad left.

JEANETTE
(looks at the TV)
Oh my God!

ED
I mean, that worked out.

JEANETTE
Oh my God!!

She gets in the closet and closes the door.

ED
(to the camera)
I think we're through here.

92 INT. OFFICE

The Real TV group is there. They're smiling. Cynthia is ON the PHONE.

92 CONTINUED:

CYNTHIA
(into phone)
I will. I'll tell them.
(hangs up)
That was Scharlach. All of you, scrub your asses. He's coming over to kiss them.

They all WHOOP and LAUGH.

93 INT. SHARI'S APARTMENT - DAY

Shari and Rita are watching Ed leave his parents house on TV.
Rita is very excited. Shari is ON the PHONE.

SHARI
(into phone)
Um, I'd like to get a new phone number, please... Because I'm getting calls from every nut case in America... Right, unlisted...
Sure.
(she holds)

RITA Aren't you excited? He said he loved you on television!

SHARI
He didn't say it. His stepfather said it.

RITA (joking)
Well, the stepfather's cute...
Seriously, how do you feel about Ed?

Pause.

SHARI
I think he's great. He just makes me feel... oh, I'm really gonna get hurt, this ti -- Hello...

CUTS OF VARIOUS VIEWERS WATCHING REAL TV

End on TAD and BARRY in a health club. This is the refreshment area. They've played racketball and they're sweaty. They're watching Real TV.

93 CONTINUED:

TAD
I'll tell you something else.
The old guy in the wheelchair?
The stepfather? They're gonna have him die.

BARRY
What do you mean "they're gonna have him die?"

TAD
You know, for a tearjerker. The audience falls in love with this loveable old geezer in a wheelchair and then he dies, it's... They know what they're doing.

BARRY
This is real, Bananahead!

TAD
So?

BARRY
So if it's a show and they have a guy die that's writing, but if it's real and they have a guy die that's... murder.

94 EXT. VIDEO STORE - DAY

Ed arrives for work.

People CALL OUT to him-- PEDESTRIANS, PEOPLE FROM CARS, TRUCK DRIVERS. "Hey Ed, my man." Ed waves. People shake his hand.
A teenage boy looks into the camera, making a funny face.
Someone else looks into the camera and says, "Hi, Ma."

Suddenly, Ray is there with a WOMAN. Ray is not happy. He's wearing DARK GLASSES and a HAT.

RAY Hi.

Ed stops.

ED
... Ray?

RAY
Yeah.

94 CONTINUED:

ED
Oh, man, I've been trying to call you.

RAY
I know.

ED
Look, we gotta talk.

RAY
Save it.

A GUY in a car appears and points at Ray.

GUY
Hey, you're that French guy on TV.

RAY
French guy?

GUY
Monsieur Bad-a-lay.

The guy drives away. Ray is steaming.

RAY
Let me just do what I came here to do.

Ed thinks he means to fight. Ed tries to calm him.

ED
What are we gonna fight? Ray, please, listen to me --

RAY (beckoning) Cassie...

CASSIE, a woman about Ray's age, steps forward. She's slightly self-conscious.

RAY (CONT'D)
Go ahead.

Ray points Cassie to the camera.

CASSIE
This is really hard.

RAY
You promised me.

94 CONTINUED: (2)

CASSIE
(to the camera)
I went out with Ray a few years ago for... a couple of months.
And we... were intimate. And... he's really not as bad as that girl said he was.

Ray nods.

CASSIE (CONT'D)
I mean, I've definitely had worse.

RAY
That's enough.

Ed is amazed that Ray would do this.

RAY (CONT'D)
(to Ed)
Good-bye, brother!

ED
Ray, come on--

Ray leaves, still angry. Cassie lingers.

CASSIE
(flirting slightly)
So you're Ed.

Ray returns and yanks Cassie away with him. Ed still hasn't recovered from the bizarreness he just witnessed. Two girls YELL in unison from across the street.

GIRLS
Ed... we love you!

95 INT. REAL TV OFFICE - NIGHT

Cynthia and her staff, around a conference call box.

CYNTHIA
We're not going to be able to come over there for anymore midnight meetings. People are starting to watch your building.
The interest level in you is soaring.

INTERCUT WITH:

Ed's bedroom. He's OFF-CAMERA.

95 CONTINUED:

ED
Soaring is good, right? I mean, that means you're not gonna cancel me, right?

KEITH (sotto)
Man, he wants that balloon payment.

ED (V.O.)
Huh?

TERRY
Ed, why didn't you go over to see Shari today? That's what all our viewers were hoping you'd do.

ED
Isn't she great? I mean, maybe just to me, but... I don't know, she's just --

TERRY
(impatiently)
She's great, she's great. Why didn't you go see her?

ED
I wanted to! I was dying to!
But...

GREG Is it Ray?
(pulls out research)
The audience hates Ray. Females,
18 to 35 --

ED
No, I don't need to hear that -- Cynthia?

CYNTHIA
Yes, Ed.

ED
Could we just talk alone for a second? I --

CYNTHIA
Good idea.
(to her staff)
Could you all leave us alone for a few minutes?

She PANTOMIMES for them to stay in the room, but be quiet. The staff scrape chair legs and feign movement and ad lib "Bye Ed", "See you, buddy" etc. They all stay.

CYNTHIA (CONT'D)
How you doing, Ed?

ED
I feel like when I was a kid and my mother sent me to school in orange corduroy pants.

CYNTHIA
(no clue)
Uh-huh?

ED
And all the kids stared calling me "Pumpkin Ass." "Hey Pumpkin Ass," -- for like a year. So, now, I feel like everyone's watching me and, you know, I'm "Pumpkin Ass" again.

The staff are stifling giggles.

CYNTHIA
Can I tell you something? I think you are fantastic. I think you have taken an idea and turned it into something explosive.

The staff stifle laughter. One of the guys is doing a jerk-off gesture. Cynthia gives them the finger.

ED
Yeah?

CYNTHIA
Can I give you one bit of advice? About Shari?

ED
Sure.

CYNTHIA
A woman wants to be pursued.

96 EXT. SUBURBAN HOME - DAY

Shari, in her Fed-ex uniform is making a delivery. A WOMAN is signing for it.

96 CONTINUED:

WOMAN
This is so exciting! A real celebrity delivering my figs.

SHARI (uncomfortable)
Sign here, please.

WOMAN
That Ray was a pig. Ed is a doll. You latch on to him, honey.

SHARI
By the X.

WOMAN
Some more make-up wouldn't do you any harm. On TV you look a little washed out.

SHARI
What would I actually have to do to get you to sign this?

WOMAN
(insulted)
Oh, on TV a minute and already an attitude.

SHARI (annoyed)
By the X. That's were two lines cross -- forming an X.

ANGRILY, the Woman signs and slams the door.

She heads back to her truck. She looks up and Ed is there with flowers. The TV cameras are there also. Shari is startled.
But she's also glad to see him.

SHARI
What are you doing?

ED
I missed you.

She's camera-shy.

ED (CONT'D)
You know, I never saw you in your uniform before.

SHARI
Yeah, well...

96 CONTINUED: (2)

ED
It's really a tremendous turnoff.

SHARI
You should see the one we wear when it rains.

They both LAUGH.

ED
Sunday night at the Devils game,
I'm driving the Zamboni.

SHARI
The what?

ED
You know, the big machine that cleans the ice.

SHARI
Oh yeah.

ED
It's quite an honor. Will you come with me?

She looks at the camera.

ED (CONT'D)
(gently)
Look, I know this is weird.
But... I don't want to wait. I really think we might have something together. Don't you?

EMBARRASSED, she nods.

ED (CONT'D)
Come on. Be my Zamboni date.

She doesn't say "no."

They KISS -- a little hesitantly, not passionately, but affectionately. She's still self-conscious, but she's going with the flow.

97 INT. CYNTHIA'S OFFICE

They're watching. They CHEER and high-five each other.

98 INT. SHORT MONTAGE

Ed and Shari dating. She's shy, but she really likes Ed. He likes her and is very sweet to her.

1) Ed and Shari some place like "Tavern on the Green." She looks pretty. He's very happy.

2) They come out of a club. TOURISTS photograph them. Shari is a little disconcerted. Ed takes out a little camera of his own and photographs the tourists. This makes Shari laugh and relaxes her.

3) HOCKEY ARENA

CLOSE-UP of Ed, driving the Zamboni. He's loving it. He WAVES to Shari.

SHARI IN THE STANDS,

watching. She waves and smiles.

The ice, a WIDER SHOT.

The Zamboni is, basically out of control. Carlos is sliding along the ice, shooting Ed as the Zamboni zig-zags dangerously, eventually crashing into the boards, shattering the plexi-glass.

99 INT. LOCAL ROCK CLUB - NIGHT

It's very CROWDED. Claustrophobic. Loud. Ed and Shari enter -- just to see the show. They're spotted.

The Crowd, which is already fired up by the music, sees them. It starts out okay, people crowding around, patting Ed on the back.

A CHANT begins "Ed, Ed, Ed..." Pretty soon it drowns out the music.

More people press towards Ed. It's too crowded -- dangerous. Shari is swept away from Ed. She's buffeted about, violently. She goes down. Ed can't move. The Crowd is friendly and happy, but the effect is scary.

100 EXT. ROCK CLUB - A FEW MINUTES LATER

BOUNCERS squeeze Ed and Shari out the door, protecting them. Ed is unnerved. Shari is somewhat bedraggled. Her clothing is torn.

101 INT. ED'S KITCHEN - DAY

Ed is ON the PHONE.

101 CONTINUED:

ED
They tore her dress!...

INTERCUT WITH

CYNTHIA'S OFFICE

CYNTHIA
We're going to get you a bodyguard, don't worry. Ed, I have some news for you. We're picking up Ed TV for another month!

ED
(excited) Yeah?!

CYNTHIA
That means a balloon payment and a big raise for the second month.

ED
Stand back -- I'm about to do my Happy Dance.

He does.

102 INT. RESTAURANT

102

Ed and Shari are EATING. So is a HUGE MAN sitting between them. His name is MOE.

103 INT. ROLLER RINK

103

Ed and Shari are SKATING. Up ahead of them, Moe, (on skates) is plowing into people, knocking them over.

104 INT. PIZZA JOINT - NIGHT

104

Ed and Shari get up to leave. They look at each other, very affectionately. They want to kiss. The cameras are close.

Ed is wearing a jacket. He spreads it out wide to block Shari's face from the cameras. He leans in and they KISS on the lips, several times, while Ed's jacket screens off the cameras. They're in love.

105 INT. TV NEWS SHOW- THREE WEEKS LATER

105

Written on the screen -- "Day 26."

105 CONTINUED:

It's the same news team we met earlier.

ANCHOR

Well, we've had pet rocks, hula hoops, Davy Crockett, Beatle wigs, and leisure suits. But America's latest craze is a guy named Ed. Here with that story is entertainment reporter, Rick Douglas.

ENTERTAINMENT REPORTER

Pat, four weeks ago, no one in America had even heard of Ed Pekurny. Today, this thirty-one-year-old video store clerk has become something of a national obsession. The words viewers use to describe him are "charming," "natural," and "appealing." And ratings indicate that "Ed TV" is being watched by more people, each day, than any show in the history of cable television.

CUT TO:

A SHOT of Scharlach being interviewed. A CAPTION identifies him.

SCHARLACH

This idea just came to me. I told my staff -- if people just tune in twice a day for five minutes we're a hit. Sometimes you gotta go with your gut feeling.

CUT TO:

106 INT. CYNTHIA'S OFFICE

106

She's watching. She's ANGRY.

CYNTHIA

Sure it came to you! Because I brought it to you!

(raises her fist)

You want a gut feeling?! How about a groin feeling?!

(raises her foot)

BACK TO NEWS REPORT

ENTERTAINMENT REPORTER
Ed TV has become so popular that when Ed goes to sleep Real TV is running highlights of Ed's day all night. Some viewers have become obsessed with Ed. They wake up when Ed wakes up, they go to sleep when Ed goes to sleep, and in between they try to watch as much of him as possible.

CUT TO:

A SERIES OF MAN-IN-THE-STREET INTERVIEWS.

WOMAN #1

(casually)

Yeah, I watch it... More than I'd like to admit sometimes.

MAN

(about fifty)

Never... no...

YOUNGER MAN

Honestly?... I try not to go to the bathroom until Ed goes to the bathroom so I won't miss anything.

A GUY in an ice cream store.

ICE CREAM GUY

Watch this! Like Ed.

He slices a banana the way Ed does.

WOMAN #2

I just kind of leave it on, you know, so it's... there.

TEENAGER

It's... real.

THREE TEEN-AGE GIRLS

TEEN-AGER #1

I don't like Shari. She's... needy.

TEEN-AGER #2

I like her. She's sweet.

106 CONTINUED: (2)

TEEN-AGER #1
She just rubs me the wrong way.

TEEN-AGER #3
I'm so glad they got rid of Ray.
He was creepy.

YOUNG GUYS

GUY #1
To me, this Shari is like nothing.

GUY #2
She's not even hot. I mean Ed's a celebrity. If that was me, I'd be dating the goods.

GUY #1
There's something wrong with her.
She's definitely not hot.

GUY #2
Not hot. Not.

107 INT. SHARI'S APARTMENT

She's watching this, wearing a bathrobe. Her self-esteem is being crushed.

108 INT. TV STUDIO

This is an "E TV" kind of gossip show. The host -- a YOUNG WOMAN -- is showing film of Ed and Shari getting out of Ed's car. The film freeze-frames. Shari has an unflattering look on her face.

GOSSIP QUEEN
What's wrong with her! Everytime you look at this chick, it's like she badly needs a Tampax. Ed -- you can do better.

Shari watching, in horror.

109 INT. DELICATESSAN - NIGHT

Ed and Shari are on a date. A WAITRESS is taking their order.
Shari still seems a little self-conscious, but Ed is having a ball.

109 CONTINUED:

ED
I'll have...
 (to shari)
Get this -- (to the Waitress)
I'll have the "Ed."

SHARI
I'm stunned.

A WOMAN with her young SON approach.

WOMAN
Mr. Pekurny. I'm sorry to bother you. My son would just love to have your autograph.

ED
No problema.
 (to the boy)
You want a picture?

The boy nods.

ED (CONT'D)
Moe.

MOE, the Bodyguard, in the next booth hands Ed a glossy of Ed and a pen. Ed signs it.

ED (CONT'D)
Take this around the corner to Frame World, they'll give you a discount.

The Woman and Child leave.

ED (CONT'D)
 (to Shari)
Oh -- Sunday is good for me to meet your folks. We get a big family audience on Sundays so it works out.

SHARI (ironic)
That's lucky.

ED
Saturday, I think we should --

A PHONE RINGS

Ed takes a phone out of his pocket.

ED (CONT'D)
(plugging) Compliments of Motorola.
Hello... Marcia??
(to Shari)
My sister. -- What?... What, right now?... I'm eating, I'm on a date! ... Well, where's your boyfriend -- what's his name?
Cliff....Then, call a cab...
(wearily)
All right. Look, just don't start any trouble okay. Just sit there quietly 'til I get there... you're welcome.

He HANGS UP. He's disgusted.

110 INT. CAR - A FEW MINUTES LATER

110

ED
This used to be a regular thing.
And the worst part, is while she'd be waiting for me to come down to some bar and get her, she'd start up with some guy and say "Wait 'til my brother gets here, he'll kick your ass." So then I walk in and there's some rhinoceros in a windbreaker who tries to shove me into a shot glass. And Marcia's drunk and screaming "Kick his ass, Ed.
Kick his ass."
(looks out)
I think this is it.

111 INT. BAR

111

It's not a seedy dive. Ed and Shari and the camera operators enter. A CUSTOMER approaches.

CUSTOMER
Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey. You're the guy on TV.

ED
What was the tip-off? The enormous camera?

CUSTOMER
Watch this.

The guy does Ed's "Happy Dance."

111 CONTINUED:

CUSTOMER (CONT'D)

See, like you.

ED

Yeah. Keep up the good work.

Ed brushes by him. He sees a WOMAN passed out at a table.

ED (CONT'D)

Oh great.

He prepares to lift her.

MARCIA (O.C.)

Ed.

He turns and sees Marcia standing there.

MARCIA (CONT'D)

What are you doing?

ED

Hm? I'm, uh... Why isn't this drunken woman you?

He lets go of the woman. Her head bounces on the table.

ED (CONT'D)

What's going on? Why did you want me to come down here?

Marcia guides them into chairs.

MARCIA

Cliff is here. He's performing.
I wanted you to see him.

For a second, Ed doesn't get it. Then...

ED

Oh! Oh -- okay, now I get it.
It's "Star Search." You wanted me here because the camera comes with me.

MARCIA

Ed, he needs a break. You don't know what kind of bad luck he's had --

ED

I can imagine. You said you wanted nothing to do with this.
You swore to me. "Don't come near me. Don't bring this into my life--."

111

MARCIA

For God sakes, you said two words about some lousy pizza joint, the guy's a millionaire now. This could be my whole future we're talking about.

(to Shari)

Hi, I'm Ed's sister.

SHARI

(politely)

I've heard so much about you.

111

112 INT. BAR - LATER

Cliff is in the middle of his show.

He's wearing a PORTABLE ORGAN. He's not great. He's a small-time professional with a lot of pep. Marcia is beaming. Ed's cameras are shooting him.

CUTS OF Cliff, singing every type of song, imaginable. This guy is desperately trying to cover all the bases -- i.e. Sinatra-type standards, something from "Lion King," "Do Ya' Think I'm Sexy," "Smokin in the Boy's Room," "Hey, Hey, We're the Monkees," the theme from "Hawaii Five-O," a rap number, and "Ave Maria."

ANGLE ON ED AND SHARI

ED

(sotto)

I wish my stepfather was here.

SHARI

Why?

ED

He could give me some oxygen.

113 INT. SHARI'S APARTMENT - LATER

111

Ed and Shari are KISSING. Ed is passionate.

SHARI Um...

ED
What?

She indicates the camera. Ed tries to allay her fears.

ED (CONT'D)
I told you. If we... you know -- do it -- they go away until... we're done.

SHARI
I know, but even if they go away, everybody in America knows what we're doing because... they went away.

ED
So? What do they think -- we're not kids --

SHARI (overlapping)
I know, I...

ED
(overlapping)
Shari, I really like you...

SHARI
(overlapping)
... I really like you too...

ED
... if this

SHARI

Ed... I think we should stop seeing each other.

CUTAWAYS

The guys who said she wasn't hot.

They applaud.

THE DORM GIRLS

They're booing Shari.

A BAR

A very attractive woman (JILL) and her friend.

JILL

That girl's an idiot.

BACK TO ED AND SHARI

ED

What?... Why?

SHARI

(starting to weep)
I can't take it anymore...

GUYS WHO DON'T THINK SHE'S HOT

They mock her, crying "Boo hoo hoo" and pretending to rub their eyes.

BACK TO ED AND SHARI

SHARI

(crying)
I have no privacy. Even now!
I'm crying and I can't stop and they won't go away. And now it's going to be another month!

ED

Shari...

SHARI

Everybody hates me!

ED

No! Who?

113 CONTINUED: (3)

SHARI

Look at this.

She picks up a N.Y. POST.

SHARI (CONT'D)

Page three of the Post.

ED

(knows what it is)

Oh...

SHARI

A poll. "Is Shari Good Enough for Ed?" Seventy-one per cent said "no."

(crying)

They hate me!

ED

Who cares? I don't ca -- No. I do care.

(to the camera)

Shame on everybody. Shame on you! Well, just the seventy-one percent. The other...

(he can't do the math)

SHARI

Twenty-nine.

ED

Exactly. Boy, you're smart.

(to the camera)

Why are you so mean to her? What did she do to you?

(picks up newspaper)

"Is she good enough for Ed?" Who the hell am I?

(sarcastically)

Who the hell do you think I should be dating?

SHARI

There's a list.

ED

Really?

(he looks)

SHARI

Ed?

He doesn't hear her. He's scanning the list.

113

113 CONTINUED: (4)

ED

Wow...

114

114 INT. DAVID LETTERMAN SHOW (OR SOMETHING)

Ed is a guest.

DAVE

I'm out here an hour a night and I feel like a dork. You're on every minute! Doesn't it just drive you nuts?

ED

(cheerfully)

Yeah.

LAUGHS

DAVE

All this fame and the money you're making. Is this going to change you, do you think?

ED

God, I hope so.

BIGGER LAUGHS

115

115 INT. GREEN ROOM - LATER

It's after the show. Ed is getting ready to leave. John is with him, keeping him company. A. P.A. is giving Ed a bag of gifts. (Of course, Ed is still on Ed TV.)

P.A.

You've got a ham in there and Dave's book and --

ED

Hey, if it's free, it's me.
(to John)
You ready?

JOHN

Yeah. You did good. What's wrong?

ED

Aah, I wanted Shari to come.

JOHN

Oh -- so I'm just, what -- a poor substitute?

115 CONTINUED:

ED (easily) Yeah.
(to the camera)
Honey, if you're watching this is for you.

He KISSES John.

JOHN No! Don't -- (new subject)
Oh, wow.

ED
What?

ANGLE ON JILL IN THE HALLWAY

(We met her earlier in a cutaway.) She's saying good-bye to a CASTING ASSISTANT.

JOHN
No more calls, we have a winner.
Jill looks up, sees Ed and walks right up to him.

JILL Hi.

ED
Hi.

SECURITY steps forward.

ED (CONT'D)
It's all right.

They step back.

JILL
I'm Jill. I really like your show. I think you're great.

ED
Thanks... That's...

Shari, watching this on television.

JILL
You must be John.

JOHN
I'm trying to remember.

115 CONTINUED: (2)

JILL

(to Ed)

Well, I don't want to bother you, I'm just -- I was here auditioning for a skit. You know, one of those things where Dave goes around town with models and whatever...

ED

Oh, yeah, I love those. Yeah... those are funny...

JILL

Well, it was really nice meeting you and, uh...

(checks her watch)

I'd better get a cab.

But she doesn't leave.

ED

Um... They gave me a limo, uh...

JILL

Oh, great! Thanks. I'm just going uptown.

She takes his arm and leads him out.

116 INT. HEALTH CLUB- NEXT DAY

116

Written on the screen -- "Day 28"

Two WOMEN on Stairmasters.

WOMAN

I'll bet he goes out with her.
It's like those actors -- as soon as they get famous -- Pfft -- there goes the wife.

117 EXT. COLLEGE

117

The dorm girls.

COLLEGE GIRL

He'll never cheat on Shari!

118 INT. POKER GAME

11

The game includes Tad and Barry.

118 CONTINUED:

BARRY
You think she really likes him?

TAD
She doesn't give a shit about him.

BARRY
You know what would be great?

TAD
What?

BARRY
If Ray would steal this girl from Ed. That would be great.

POKER PLAYER #2
You know what would be even better?

BARRY
What?

POKER PLAYER #2
If you shut your hole and played cards. Goddam pineapple brothers.

119 INT. TV STUDIO

119

The same eggheads who, earlier, had no interest in Ed. Now they're all worked up.

PANEL MEMBER #1
But he's not a normal person anymore. He's a celebrity. We're no longer observing anyone's "real life."

PANEL MEMBER #2
(disagreeing)
But that's what's interesting! The effect of celebrity on an otherwise average person.

PANEL MEMBER #3
But do you really feel that Ed is an average person? I mean this guy seems to have a... magnetism, a charisma that, I think, transcends the entire concept.

PANEL MEMBER #4
I agree. He's special.

119

119 CONTINUED:

They all nod.

120

120 INT. ED'S APARTMENT - DAY

"DAY 34"

Ed is opening letters and packages. There are piles of them.

ED
This is from a girl named Tawny... this goes in the nude picture pile. Thank you, Tawny.

He places it in a large pile. He opens another envelope.

ED (CONT'D)
Let's see.

Ed stares and his smile disappears.

ANGLE ON THE MAIL

A picture of Ed's face with his body drawn underneath it. The body is spurting blood and is mutilated. Ed stares at it.

ED
Well. This is creative. This goes in the psychopath pile.

The DOORBELL RINGS.

ED
Oh, I hope that's not this guy.
(indicates psycho letter)

He PICKS UP a baseball bat and crosses to the door.

He opens the door. A handsome man in his early sixties is there. His name is HANK.

HANK
Hello.

ED
Hi.

Ed waits.

HANK.
You don't recognize me.

ED
No. Am I supposed to?

120 CONTINUED:

Hank shrugs. Ed stares at him, then begins to look a little shaken.

121 INT. ED'S MOTHER'S HOUSE

Jeanette is putting a jar in the refrigerator. She glances at the television. She drops the jar. It SHATTERS.

122 INT. MARCIA'S APARTMENT

Marcia is with her half-Asian son ANDY. She's serving his dinner. OFF-CAMERA we HEAR Cliff SINGING and the DOG HOWLING in distress. Glancing at the television, Marcia gasps.

123 INT. RAY'S APARTMENT

Ray is TYPING on a word processor. He stares, curiously at the television.

124 INT. ED'S APARTMENT

Ed is staring at Hank doubtfully.

HANK

It's me, Hank-- your father.

RAPID CUTS of VIEWERS, excited. Many of them reach for the phone.

125 INT. REAL TV OFFICE

The Real TV staff react. Cynthia looks over-- stunned.

ALICE

(to Cynthia)

Did you do this? Did you find him and get him to--

CYNTHIA

No way... Oh, this just keeps getting better.

126 INT. AL AND JEANETTE'S HOUSE - DAY

Written on the screen -- "Day 35"

Ed and his mother are arguing. Al is sucking oxygen and has a pile of "People" magazines with Ed on the cover. A REPAIRMAN is fixing the refrigerator. All their food is out and melting.

126 CONTINUED:

Jeanette is trying to preserve food in an ice chest while she argues with Ed.

JEANETTE
I can't believe you're taking his side.

ED
I'm not! I'm just trying to get some facts.

AL
(to Ed)
Sign this one to Nancy. She's the nurse who handles my urine.

Ed signs.

JEANETTE
I told you the facts! He abandoned us -- those are the facts.

ED
So everything he told me yesterday was a lie. Everything.

Al takes a loud breath.

JEANETTE
Yes!... practically

ED
What do you mean practically?
Did he really run away or did you throw him out like he says.

REPAIRMAN
I need to replace the coil.

JEANETTE
(to Ed)
He ran away... after I threw him out.
(to repairman)
How much is a new coil?

REPAIRMAN
A hundred and fifty bucks.

ED
So he was telling the truth -- you threw him out.

REPAIRMAN
Should I go ahead?

126 CONTINUED: (2)

JEANETTE

Yes.

ED

Yes to me or yes to the coil?

JEANETTE

Both.

ED

Holy sh --

AL

This one to Dr. Bamajian. Maybe he won't make me wait an hour.

Ed signs.

JEANETTE

He had girlfriends!

ED

He says --

JEANETTE

I don't care what he says. Look,
I don't need to relive this. On television!

Jeanette exits.

AL

Whatever happened to Norman Rockwell?

ED

Who?

AL

Norman Rockwell. He painted magazine covers. Folksy. A mailman, a boy scout, a kid visiting a doctor...

ED

Yeah, so...?

AL

They celebrated the common person.

ED

Well, I don't think you can get more common than me, Al.

126 CONTINUED: (3)

AL
No. Only celebrities now. Now, if you put a mailman on the cover of a magazine he'd better have killed someone or no one will buy it. This one to Dr. Rumpley.

Jeanette storms back in.

JEANETTE
All right -- do you want to know the truth? I took you and Marcia and Ray to my sister's on the train for the weekend and you all got chicken pox. So I took you home a day early and there was your father with a woman in our bed. Okay?

ED Chicken pox? I was six. He didn't leave 'til I was twelve.

JEANETTE
He... apologized, he begged me.
He can be very... charming when it suits his purpose.

ED
But what was that whole story about him and a nurse?

JEANETTE
She could've been a nurse.

ED
Could've been a nurse?

JEANETTE
She had white shoes.

ED
So does Grandma. So does Shaquille O'Neal. You told me you had a hysterectomy and he ran off with your nurse.

JEANETTE
What's the difference?

ED
The difference is for twenty years I thought one thing and now it's another thing.

126 CONTINUED: (4)

JEANETTE

He was no good. Do you remember how he used to scream at me? You used to cover your ears with dinner rolls.

Ed nods.

JEANETTE (CONT'D)

Also, no job was ever good enough for him. "Small potatoes, small potatoes." Al, you remember --

Al breathes loudly.

ED

Wait a minute. I thought you didn't know Al, 'til after Dad left.

Pause. Even the repairman pokes his head out of the refrigerator.

ED (CONT'D)

Oh my God. You and Al were -- and that's why you threw him out.

JEANETTE

He had a woman in my own bed! And how dare you call him "Dad" in front of Al.

(shakes Al by the shoulder)

This is your father. This is who was there for you when you needed someone.

AL

Jeanette, you're hurting me.

ED

(on the defensive)

I'm not -- I didn't -- Al, you know how I feel about you...

Al breathes loudly.

ED (CONT'D)

(uncomfortably)

If I don't call you "Dad" it's just because...

(MORE)

126 CONTINUED: (5)

ED (CONT'D)
I was already a big boy when you came into our lives -- (pointedly to his mother) or when I thought you came into our lives --

JEANETTE
And what did he come back now for?

ED Who?

JEANETTE
Hank! All of a sudden. Because now you're famous and he can get something from you. I don't want you to become a victim like Marcia.

(to the TV)
Not that you're a victim, honey.
You're not. Life's just been a little hard on you, sweetie.

ED
(to Al)
What do you think. I mean about... him. Should I just... have nothing to do with him? I mean...

AL
(to Ed)
Have I ever said a bad word to you about your father?

ED
No.

AL
Well, now I will. He was a crazy mean, son-of-a-bitch.

Al starts to wheel himself out. Ed looks weary.

AL (CONT'D)
But he was your father.

127 INT. ED'S BEDROOM - NIGHT

He's asleep.

128 INT. CONTROL TRUCK

They're monitoring him. They see Ed WAKE UP. They stir. Sleepy, and scratching his ass, he goes into the bathroom.

129 INT. BATHROOM

Ed shuts the door. He takes his PORTABLE PHONE OUT of a bathroom drawer. (He stashed it there.) He makes a call and waits.

ED
(whispering) *
Hi... it's me, Ed. It's been two days, I want to see you... No, I won't let them follow me, I'll sneak out... No it's not allowed, but I'm going for it... I'm on my way.

He takes CLOTHING OUT of the bathroom hamper. He sniffs them until he finds something acceptable.

130 INT. CONTROL TRUCK

They're monitoring the empty bed.

131 INT. BATHROOM

Ed is dressed. He CLIMBS OUT his bathroom window.

132 INT. SHARI'S APARTMENT - LATER

Shari opens her front door.

ED
-- Hi.

She looks down the hallway.

ED (CONT'D)
They're not here.

He goes in, grabs her and kisses her passionately.

SHARI
I tried to tell you over the phone -- my parents went to Atlantic City.

ED
So?

132 CONTINUED:

SHARI
So my little brother's staying here. I'm sleeping with Rita.

ED
Oh Je -- couldn't he sleep with Rita? We'll all have a good time.

SHARI
I'm sorry.

ED
Come on, let's go.

SHARI Where?

ED Somewhere.

133 INT. ED'S CAR - A FEW MINUTES LATER

133

They get in. They look at each other.

ED
Do you want to... go to a motel?

SHARI
I feel like a criminal or, like we're cheating on someone.

ED
(nicely)
Just... just relax. Okay? We won't do anything. We'll just sit here for a while.

SHARI
Okay.

ED
Come on...

Gently he puts his arm around her. At first, she hesitates, but then curls up against him and relaxes.

ED (CONT'D)
I need to talk.

SHARI
Are you all right?

133 CONTINUED:

ED

She lied to me. I mean all my life, she's telling me one story and then... it turns out to be a completely different story. Come to me at some point -- tell me the truth. No. Not in my house. The truth is a stranger. And this is why Ray and Marcia are the way they are. Marcia gets involved with all these losers and sees no problem with herself -- "How do they find me" she says. Ray cheats on you and then blames me for it. I'm the only one in the family who takes any responsibility for himself... Oh, man... Are you all right?

SHARI

(hesitantly)

Yeah... I saw that girl come on to you at the TV show.

ED

Oh that was... no, I... she just kind of trapped me into giving her a ride. It's you. I want you.

SHARI

... yeah?

He TOUCHES her. They KISS. Then again. Their hands are roaming. They're hot. They're breathing hard. He's unbuttoning her blouse. Their hands are all over each other. Her blouse comes off. LIGHTS GO ON. They see cameras, shooting at them. Shari SCREAMS and covers her breasts.

134 INT. TV - DAY

134

ANNOUNCER (V.O.)

Good morning. Welcome to another day of Ed TV. Last night, while most of us were asleep... this happened.

135 INT. FRAT HOUSE - MORNING

135

FOUR GUYS in a disgustingly messy room, watching the replay of Ed and Shari.

FRAT GUYS

Yes!!

135

135 CONTINUED:

They GYRATE LEWDLY.

136

136 EXT. STREET - DAY

Shari is working. Ed is following her around. Shari is ANGRY.
The cameras are there.

SHARI

Get them away from me.

She takes PACKAGES OUT OF the TRUCK and THROWS them at the cameramen.

ED

It's not their fault.

SHARI

No. It's YOUR fault.

She throws a package at him.

ED

What do you want me to do? You want me to quit the show?!

SHARI

No... could you?

ED

No... If I quit I don't get the balloon payment.

SHARI

The what?

ED

Ray borrowed this whole tub of money against this balloon payment that I don't get if I qu -- it's too complicated. I -- Besides...

SHARI

What?

Pause.

ED

You see how people look at me.
Like when they ask for my autograph or say "Hi" to me...
It's like I'm a basketball player or a... you know, like I'm someone.

136 CONTINUED:

SHARI
Everybody's someone.

ED
Well, yeah, everybody's someone.
But I mean someone they want to be. I mean let's face it, I'm working in the video store, no one's coming in saying "Oh, I wish I was that guy. I wish I was rewinding that huge pile of tapes." At least for a month I'm not just a guy with a name tag. I'm famous.

A GUY YELLS from across the street.

GUY
Shari! Nice nipples.

ED
And so are you.

GUYs keep YELLING "Shari!"

She tries to go after them. Ed holds her back.

SHARI
I don't want to be famous for getting caught with my shirt off.
If I'm going to be famous --

The camera is right in her face. She grabs it.

SHARI (CONT'D)
(to the camera person)
This is going right up your ass.

ED
Come on.

He returns the camera.

Shari starts for her truck.

SHARI
Look... maybe we just better put us on hold until this is over.

She gets in her truck.

136 CONTINUED: (2)

ED
Come on! Loosen up...
(trying to joke)
See -- this is why seventy-one per cent of the people don't like you.

She SLAMS the TRUCK DOOR.

ED (CONT'D)
It was a joke! A... vicious, thoughtless stupid joke.

He bangs himself in the head.

She drives away.

ED (CONT'D)
(to the camera)
And that, for you kids out there, is how you screw up a relationship.

He BOWS.

137 INT. ED'S APARTMENT

137

Ed enters. He's worn out. He plops down, and puts on the TV.

ED
(to the camera)
I'm gonna watch anything but me.

Ed is flipping stations. Something makes him stop.

ANNOUNCER (V.O.)
Coming in two weeks to the Lifestyle Channel -- Joma. His Dad's a cop, his brother's a bouncer in a topless bar, his sister is a black-belt social-worker -- and Joma's living with two gals.

ANGLE ON THE TV

We see JOMA. He has a lot of charisma. He seems a little dangerous, but in an exciting way.

JOMA
Hey, Ed! I'm coming to get you, man! I'm gonna eat you right up!
(makes gobbling-up noises)

137 CONTINUED:

ANGLE ON ED

Watching. He's stunned.

138 INT. NETWORK CONFERENCE ROOM - DAY

They're watching a tape of Ed TV. Ed has just entered his own apartment. A WOMAN is there, sitting on his sofa. She's caressing Ed's undershorts against her cheek. Ed is highly agitated.

ED

How did you get into my apartment?!

The BODYGUARD is pulling her out.

REVEAL that Scharlach, McIlvaine, Seaver, Cynthia and Greg are all watching.

McILVAINE

What is she holding?

GREG

(calmly)

A pair of Ed's underwear.

McILVAINE

Oh my God!

ON the TAPE, the woman while being forceably evicted, offers the underwear to Ed. Ed recoils.

ED

No -- keep it.

WOMAN

I love you! I want to marry you!

She's hauled out. They stop the tape.

SCHARLACH

See -- that's television! This other thing, this Joma, that has "stink" written all over it.

GREG

The break-up with Shari was very big. Big ratings.

SEAVER

Only, Cynthia, seriously. Tell Ed not to sneak out anymore.

(MORE)

138 CONTINUED:

SEAVER (CONT'D)

It's in violation of his contract and if we wanted to be hard-nosed about it, he could forfeit all pay, including money he's already received.

CYNTHIA

(dutifully, but a tad resentfully)

I will see that he's properly threatened.

SCHARLACH

Now what? What's on the young man's agenda? We don't want to see him sitting around like a lovesick puppy.

GREG

Young males do not want to see Ed get back with Shari.

SCHARLACH

(impatiently)

Enough with her. That sailed.

McILVAINE

Could Ed live with two girls?

GREG

You know who the audience is requesting a lot? That girl, Jill, that Ed met at the Letterman show. She really scored.

SCHARLACH

Cynthia...

He wants it accomplished.

139 EXT. STREET - DAY

139

Ed is walking from his car to a building. CROWDS are behind barricades. They YELL at Ed as he passes. Ed is used to this.

140 INT. SHARI'S BUILDING - DAY

140

Rita OPENS the door and sees Ed.

RITA

(nervously)

Oh. Ed.

140 CONTINUED:

ED
Hi. Is Shari here?

RITA
No.

ED
What is she, at work?

RITA
She left.

ED
Well, when will she be back?

RITA
She won't.

ED
What are you talking about?

RITA
She left. She moved. She got Fed-Ex to give her a transfer and she left. She couldn't stand it anymore. We had people, news people, regular people, just sleeping in our hallway, going through our mail, our garbage. I mean it was... she couldn't take it anymore. Now I've got to move. I can't afford this place by myself..

ED
I'm sorry. Where'd they send her?

RITA
She wouldn't tell me.

141 INT. ED'S BEDROOM - NIGHT

He's off the air. He's a little down. He's ON the PHONE.

INTERCUT WITH:

142 INT. CYNTHIA'S BEDROOM

She's working out on a contraption. (details to follow)

ED
Remember when you were interviewing me?

141

142

142 CONTINUED:

CYNTHIA

Yeah.

ED

You asked me if I had a dream.
I said "Sure, I have a dream. I just don't know what it is yet."

CYNTHIA

Great line.

ED

What if Shari's the dream?

CYNTHIA

Ed, do you want my advice?

ED

Yeah, that's why I called. I mean, maybe Fed-Ex would tell me where she moved --

CYNTHIA

Leave her be.

ED

You said a woman likes to be pursued.

CYNTHIA

Pursued, not harassed. Give it some space. Can I tell you something -- as a friend? My sister was going with a guy -- they hit a little rough spot -- they started seeing other people -- they got back together and last month they had their third child.
For what it's worth.

143 EXT. PARK - DAY

14

OPEN ON ANDY, Ed's half-Asian nephew. He's eight. He's wearing a baseball glove.

ANDY

Throw me a high one, Uncle Eddie.

ED (O.C.)

Okay.

REVEAL ED, also wearing a baseball glove. He throws a high pop up to Andy. Andy staggers around and almost catches it.

143 CONTINUED:

ED

Oh!!

JILL (O.C.)

We have to stop meeting like this.

ED

Hm?

REVEAL JILL, walking a DOG. It takes just a second to recognize her.

ED (CONT'D)

Oh, hi.

Ed is hit with the ball.

ANDY

Sorry.

REVEAL the Real TV Staff watching this on television in their office. As Ed and Jill chat in the background.

ALICE

(to Cynthia)

Did you arrange this?

CYNTHIA

(points to the TV)

Whose dog is that?

ALICE

(surprised)

That's your dog.

Cynthia doesn't even smile.

MONTAGE

INTERSPERSED IN THE MONTAGE ARE SHOTS OF PEOPLE WATCHING THEM ON TV

1. Ed and Jill going into a chic club -- ushered in immediately. Here, as in the other times we see her, Jill is comfortable with the situation. She's the opposite of Shari. She poses willingly. She chats easily with paparazzi. She clings to Ed. There's nothing overt or obnoxious about her. She's just comfortable and good at it and always looks great.

2. INTERVIEW with the guys who didn't like Shari.

GUY #1

Way to go, Ed!

143 CONTINUED: (2)

GUY #2

Now, we're talking!

3. A N.Y. Post story:

"Readers Pick Jill over Shari."

Pictures of both women. Jill looks great. Shari is in her uniform and looks like a mouse.

4. SHARI

In a new apartment. Watching Ed and Jill on TV. She's very unhappy. She turns it off.

5. Ed and Jill at the nice restaurant he was at with Shari earlier. It looks like he's starting to like her.

6. Ed is refereeing a pro-wrestling match. He counts out the villain who, then, jumps up and chases him out of the ring.

144 INT. JILL'S APARTMENT - NIGHT

144

"DAY 47"

Ed and Jill are in a HEAVY LIPLOCK. Carlos is right there with the camera. Unlike Shari, Jill seems unself-conscious. She's getting Ed pretty turned-on.

SHOTS of VIEWERS, also turned on, especially the men.

JILL

You want to?

It's clear what she means. Ed is conflicted. He's clearly aroused.

ED

Um... it's kind of...

He looks for his watch on the wrong wrist, then seems to check all around his body until he discovers it.

JILL

Are you busy tomorrow night?

ED

No.

JILL

Why don't you come over. And I'll make dinner. And you bring a movie. And... We'll make a night of it... okay?

144 CONTINUED:

ED
(nervously) Sure.

145 EXT. STREET - DAY

Written on the screen -- "Day 48"

Ed is walking, the camera following. He looks tense. People SHOUT "Hey, Ed" "Ed-die" etc.

ANGLE ON A NEWSPAPER VENDING MACHINE

The New York Post front page -- "Is tonight the Night?" with a picture of Ed and Jill kissing.

ANGLE ON ED

ED
Oh man...

CON ED GUY
Hey, Eddie.

Ed looks up.

CON ED GUY (CONT'D) (giving the "thumbs up")
Go for it!

Ed continues down the street. People YELL to him "Good luck tonight," "We're rooting for you" etc.

A STREET CHARACTER walks alongside for a minute.

STREET CHARACTER
Hey, man. This is Haitian Love Juice.
(he produces a vial)
You give her this, she be yours.

Security grabs him and the vial falls and breaks. The liquid hits the pavement and smokes up.

ED
(looking at the smoke)
Jesus!

More shouts "Be gentle" "We'll be watching" "Use a condom" etc.

A SCHOOL BUS passes. The KIDS YELL out the window to Ed.

145 CONTINUED:

KIDS
(in unison)
Good luck!

146 EXT. MOVIE THEATRE - NIGHT

There is no line. At TICKET TAKER sits, bored. No one is going in or coming out.

147 EXT. STREET

It's deserted.

148 EXT. RESTAURANT

It's empty. The HEADWAITER stands in the doorway with nothing to do.

149 INT. LIVING ROOM

A PARTY is in progress. The TV is on. On TV Ed is in a liquor store, buying a bottle of wine. Ed is dressed for his date. The people at the party are watching TV and commenting. It's like a Super bowl party.

VOICE (O.C.)
What's he doing?

PARTYGOER
He's buying wine!

150 INT. BEDROOM

Several high-school age BOYS. They have made themselves look like Ed. They're very excited.

TEEN-AGE BOY #1
You think he's gonna do it?

TEEN-AGE #2
Hell yeah. The guy hasn't had any sex in six weeks.

TEEN-AGE BOY #3
Neither have we.

151 EXT. STREET

Ed's car turns the corner and he sees a CROWD gathered outside Jill's building.

151 CONTINUED:

ED (understating)
I'm starting to feel a little pressure.

152 EXT. BUILDING

Ed carrying his wine enters to APPLAUSE and CHEERS.

153 EXT. RESIDENTIAL STREET

A LONG SHOT encompasses all the houses on the block. Their living room TV's are visible. All but one are tuned to Ed.

154 INT. JILL'S KITCHEN

Something is cooking. Jill picks up a plate of something -- dip and cut vegetables for instance. She starts to exit the kitchen as Ed and Carlos enter. Ed and Jill have a soft collision.

JILL

Oh --

ED

Can I help with anything?

JILL

No. It's going to be about a half-hour.

ED

What is? Oh, dinner!

SELF-CONSCIOUSLY. He takes a vegetable, dips it and eats it.

ED (CONT'D)

Mm.

JILL

Good?

ED

Mm.

They look at each other. Jill leans forward and kisses him. She puts the tray of vegetables on the counter. They continue to kiss.

155 INT. BEDROOM

The high school boys. They're CHANTING.

156 INT. DORM ROOM

COLLEGE GIRLS (same ones as before).

COLLEGE GIRL
Oh, I hope she makes love to him!

COLLEGE GIRL #2
I thought you didn't like her.

COLLEGE GIRL
I don't, but I want him to be happy.

RAPID SHOTS of other VIEWERS, watching, transfixed -- 157

157 INT. JILL'S APARTMENT

Ed and Jill are making out. They begin taking each other's clothes off. They're passing the point of no return. It's going to happen right there in the kitchen.

Ed and Jill, in heavy heat, back up to the kitchen table and climb on to it. They continue to pull at their own and each other's clothing. They're making passionate noises.

158

158 INT. SHARI'S APARTMENT

Shari is not watching television. She's eating a little meal she's made for herself. She HEARS PEOPLE in her building cheering and whooping. She looks miserable.

159

159 INT. CONTROL TRUCK

DIRECTOR
(slightly panicky)
Someone say the word, how far can we go here?

160

160 INT. REAL TV OFFICE

Cynthia and her staff are watching. Cynthia is ON THE PHONE.

CYNTHIA
Stay with them... don't leave yet... not yet...

160 CONTINUED:

Jill is on top of Ed. Carried away with passion, Ed attempts to roll her over and get on top. He does, but rolls too far. He crashes off the table, to the floor, face up.

ED
(in pain) Ohhh...

JILL
Ed?

ED
Ohh... do you own a cat?

JILL
Yeah. Why?

He looks at her apologetically.

161 EXT. JILL'S BUILDING

Ed is being loaded into an AMBULANCE. He looks humiliated. PEOPLE in the street are applauding politely as if Ed were an injured ballplayer being carried off the field. Jill is by the ambulance. She's PETTING a CAT who looks all right. PHOTOGRAPHERS are taking her picture. She's posing willingly. The ambulance drives off as Jill continues to pose.

162 INT. TV STUDIO

Written on the screen -- "Day 49"

The taping of "The Tonight Show" or "the Late Show" -- once again, whichever we have a prayer of getting. The MONOLOGUE is in progress.

JAY (OR DAVE)
(mock annoyed)
So I guess you were all watching
Ed last night.

The AUDIENCE goes wild.

JAY (CONT'D)
This got the highest rating of the year, since the Super Bowl.
I guess that makes sense. After all, Ed is now the Buffalo Bills of sex.

BIG LAUGHS

163 INT. RESTAURANT - DAY

Scharlach EATING. He's stunned.

SCHARLACH

What?!

REVEAL CYNTHIA

CYNTHIA

Take him off the air.

SCHARLACH

What are you talking about? He's fine. He's out of the hospital already. The ratings are higher than ever.

CYNTHIA

I'm telling you, it's peaked. Ed TV is an over-inflated balloon. Get it off before it explodes all over us.

He thinks.

SCHARLACH

With all due respect, Cynthia... you're nuts. I'm giving him another month!

CYNTHIA

(coldly)

Good luck.

164

164 EXT. STREET - DAY

"DAY 54"

Ed is walking. He's wearing a white, Velcro support around his waist. He's agitated. He's carrying a copy of the New York Post.

ED

Look at this!

WE SEE a headline -- "Ed: She Broke My heart."

ED

She did not!

(venting)

You know what she did?

(MORE)

164 CONTINUED:

ED (CONT'D)
 She went out to California and got one of those scandal agents.
 One of those agents who handle, like... Gennifer Flowers and...
 Kato Kaelin and Joey Buttafuco.
 That's what she --

A GUY YELLS AT ED

GUY
 Hey Ed!... She was a little too much for you, huh? Must run in the family.

ED (angry) Oh -- like this guy's ever been with a woman.
 (yells)
 How about I kick your ass 'til the crack goes the other way?
 (to the camera)
 All of a sudden, I'm like fair game for everyone. I'm like --

He stops and looks like he's in shock. He stares in through the display window of a bookstore.

ANGLE ON,

a big DISPLAY of cheap, rushed-out, exploitation books. On the cover we read "My Brother Pissed On Me By Raymond L. Pekurny."
 And there's an old photo of two little boys. (Ed and Ray)

ED
 Oh my -- He wrote a book?! Ray wrote a book?! He never read a book!

165 INT. HALLWAY - NIGHT

"DAY 58"

It's the hallway of a cheap motel. Ed and the camera come off the elevator. Ed looks at room numbers. He can HEAR the noise from all the rooms. A radio -- a domestic disturbance -- a baby crying -- it's a horror. He KNOCKS ON a door.

HANK (O.C.)
 Who is it?

ED
 It's Ed.

165 CONTINUED:

The door opens REVEALING Ed's father.

HANK Ed! Come in.

They enter.

166 INT. HOTEL ROOM

It's depressing. There's a liquor bottle on the dresser. Ed sees it.

HANK (CONT'D)
How've you been?

Ed SHRUGS.

HANK (CONT'D)
They don't get cable here, so I can't watch you.

Ed just GRUNTS.

Hank takes LAUNDRY off a chair.

HANK (CONT'D)
Sit down.

He does. He looks around.

HANK (CONT'D)
Quite a shithole, isn't it?

ED
It could be, if you fixed it up.
How did you...? I mean how does anyone... wind up like this?

HANK
I was in jail.

ED
The whole time? Eighteen years?

HANK
No. Two times.

ED
What...

HANK Check forging.

ED
Oh, man! So...

166 CONTINUED:

HANK

The last two years, I've been a limousine driver, but I don't see well anymore, so...

ED

So you saw me on TV and you said "Hey, let me jump on this."

HANK

I need help. How many times if just one little thing that I needed would've happened, it would've changed everything. If I had a few dollars when an opportunity came along or... the tumblers just never clicked for me.

Ed doesn't know what to say. He's bitter towards Hank, but there's also some empathy.

ED

(to the camera)

All right... This is my father, I don't know what the hell he can do, but if anyone out there can help him -- get him a job -- I'll... help you. I'll... mention your business or... I don't know, we'll figure it out.
(quickly, to Hank)
I gotta go.

HANK

Ed... I'm sorry.

ED

(still bitter)

Yeah? That's good. Sorry is good. You know I finished that model.

HANK

What...?

ED

The pirate ship.

Hank looks blankly at him.

ED (CONT'D)

-- That we were doing "together."
I finished it. It came out great!

(MORE)

166 CONTINUED: (2)

ED (CONT'D)
Because no one was standing over my shoulder bothering me -- "That's too much glue. You're using too much glue."

HANK
Do you still have it?

ED
No. Ray sat on it. I'll see
you.

He exits. Out in the hallway, he leans back against the door, drained. The camera is right on him, soaking it up.

167 INT. TV STUDIO

The same PBS-type panel of smart-looking people we met earlier.
WE OPEN ON about half the panel.

MODERATOR
Let's hear from our guest panelist. You've expressed some interesting thoughts on this subject. What do you see as the meaning, if there is any, of Ed TV, John.

REVEAL JOHN, sitting comfortably on the panel, looking very wise.

JOHN
I feel that Ed is the apotheosis of a prevailing American syndrome. It used to be that someone became famous because they were special. Now people are considered special just for being famous. Fame, itself, is now a moral good in this country.
It's its own virtue.

The others NOD appreciatively as John puts a PIPE in his mouth.

TV INTERVIEWS

OLD GUY
I was Ed's Little League coach.
He had no coordination. The big game, he struck out with the bases loaded. Then he cried like a woman. It was sickening.

CUT TO:

167 CONTINUED:

OLD WOMAN
I was his third grade teacher.
I said "Take him for tests.
There's something wrong with him." They didn't listen.

CUT TO:

ANOTHER GUY
He used to steal things from my store. At least I think it was him. Yeah, it was probably him.

168 EXT. ED'S APARTMENT - DAY

A MAN, on the sidewalk, has a STUFFED CAT stuck to his back to tease Ed.

CAT MAN
Hey, look, I just fell off a table!

Suddenly, a TUBFUL OF WATER crashes down on him.

169 INT. ED'S APARTMENT - CONTINUOUS

Ed at the window, with a now empty plastic tub.

ED
(yelling down)
Okay, is that funny?!

Then he throws the tub out the window.

ED (CONT'D)
(to the camera)
How was that? Was that funny?!

170 INT. NETWORK OFFICE

"DAY 78"

Again, everyone there, including Cynthia. A Honcho is reading a report.

HONCHO =1
Of more concern than the sag in Ed's ratings is what viewers are feeling about him now. The positives are down and the negatives are up.
(MORE)

170 CONTINUED:

HONCHO #1 (CONT'D)
There's a feeling that Ed isn't cool anymore. We're starting to see a big L.F.

GREG

Hm?

HONCHO #1
L.F. Loser Factor.

HONCHO #2
That's deadly.

McILVAINE
Not necessarily. I mean instead of running from the L.F., run with it. Create more moments like the table thing. We can package a video "Ed's Goofiest Moments." Let him be America's Goofball.

CYNTHIA Isn't this getting kind of pathetic. I mean we drank the juice, now we're just licking the peel. Let it go!

SCHARLACH
Cynthia, I think you're laboring under a misconception. You seem to believe that because you happened to predict this, we should be impressed. We're not.
Anybody in any business can predict failure. I need people who prevent failure. I want to see this thing turned back in the right direction. Remember this was your baby.

171 INT. BAR - NIGHT

"DAY 94"

Tad and Barry -- as we met them, originally -- are watching TV.
They're really enjoying it -- laughing, pounding the table.

TAD
I don't know, I still love this guy.

171 CONTINUED:

BARRY

Yeah... only I wish they had the sister on more.

TAD

Ooh, the sister! She is hot.

BARRY

You know it.

REVEAL that they are watching Joma. On the TV -- Joma is eating dinner in his apartment with TWO attractive WOMEN, who, apparently, both live there. Joma is upset (but he's funny when he's upset). What's upsetting him is that across the alley, in a window of another building, he can plainly see an OVERWEIGHT MAN, with his shirt off, exercising. The overweight man is apparently watching an exercise video and is bouncing up and down in place causing everything to jiggle unpleasantly.

JOMA'S FRIEND

Ignore him.

JOMA

I can't! It's like a mudslide.
(screams out the window)

Put on a shirt!

ANGLE ON TAD AND BARRY, HYSTERICAL

ANGLE ON TV

JOMA (CONT'D)

(yelling)

I support the fact that your exercising but, for the love of God, put on a shirt.

JOMA'S FRIEND

(to Joma)

Shut the curtains.

JOMA

No! Let him shut the curtains.

TAD AND BARRY

Laughing and wiping their eyes.

172 INT. ED'S BEDROOM

Off the air. Ed ON the PHONE.

172 CONTINUED:

INTERCUT WITH CYNTHIA

ED

This Joma is so phoney! I mean, those things aren't really happening. I think they have writers making that stuff up for him. Hey, couldn't we do that? Hire some writers and have them write up some crazy situations I could get into?

She's listening, amazed.

CYNTHIA

Ed, everything goes off.
"Cheers" went off. "Mash" went off --

ED

(getting angry)
Yeah, but when they went off people weren't making fun of them. They weren't bozos! I'm Pumpkin Ass again!

CYNTHIA

(getting annoyed)

Ed --

ED

You know, everything you asked me to do I did. I call you for advice about Shari you say --

(mocking imitation)

"Leave her be, see other people for a while." You just wanted me to get involved with Jill because it made for a better show.

CYNTHIA

Ed --

ED

No. You screwed up my life just so you could get higher ratings. You never gave a shit about me.

CYNTHIA

Yeah? Well I'm not starting now.

She HANGS UP and has an acid reflux.

173 INT. POOL HALL - NIGHT

Ed and John are playing.

JOHN

Look, you put anybody on TV sixteen hours a day, at some point they're going to wind up rolling off a table on to a cat. I mean with no privacy, there's no... dignity.

Ed thinks.

ED

You know about that fireman who rescued that little girl?

JOHN

When? Today?

ED

No! Like, ten years ago. In Texas. Baby...
(tries to remember) Jessica!

JOHN

Oh right, right! She fell down, like a...

ED

Yeah, a thing. He became a big hero. He was on TV and there was a parade and a movie about him...

JOHN

Right, right...

ED

And then, uh... you know it blew over and he went back to being a fireman again.

JOHN

(cheerfully)

Right.

ED

So he killed himself.

Pause.

JOHN

(a little shaken)

Oh.

SILENCE. The cell phone RINGS.

173 CONTINUED:

Ed PICKS UP the phone.

ED

Hello.

INTERCUT WITH JEANETTE IN A HOSPITAL

She's crying.

JEANETTE

Eddie...

ED

Mom?

JEANETTE

I'm at the hospital.

ED

What's the matter?!

JEANETTE

He's dead! Eddie, he's dead! It was his heart.

ED

Oh God. What hospital?

JEANETTE

St. Joseph's.

ED

I'm coming right over. I'll be right there.

He hangs up.

174 INT. TAD'S HOUSE

17

Tad is watching TV and talking on the phone.

TAD

I told you! I told you he was gonna die!

175 INT. HOSPITAL - AN HOUR LATER

17

Ed rushes in. He goes up to the desk. Carlos is with him.

ED

Hi. I'm looking for my mother.
Her name is --

A DOCTOR spots him.

175 CONTINUED:

DR. GELLER
Mr. Pekurny.

ED
Yes?

DR. GELLER
I'm Dr. Geller. Your mother is just lying down for a few minutes. We gave her something to calm her down.

ED
Thank you. Can I see her?

DR. GELLER
Just wait here. She's coming right back out.

ED
(wearily)
Oh, man...

DR. GELLER (sympathetically) Mm...

ED
What about him -- did he suffer any or was it quick? I'd hate to think he...

DR. GELLER
Very quick. Between you and me, it's not a bad way to go. Making love to your wife... it's very sweet.

ED
Really? They were...

DR. GELLER (nods) According to your mother. When the paramedics got to the hotel, she told them that --

ED
Hotel? What were they doing in a hotel?

DR. GELLER
I... don't know. I...

VOICE (O.C.)
Eddie. Thank God you're here.

175 CONTINUED: (2)

Eddie looks across the room and sees Al in his wheelchair, just entering from outside. He wheels towards Ed.

AL
How's your mother?

ED
(shocked)
Al!

AL
Our neighbors gave me a ride.

ED
Al!!

AL
Where is she? Is she all right?

Ed turns to the doctor.

ED
I thought -- I thought he was dead.

DR. GELLER Who?

ED
Al!

DR. GELLER
No.
(reads his chart)
The deceased is... Henry Pekurny.

176 INT. TAD'S HOUSE

176

TAD (stunned)
Good twist!

177 INT. HOSPITAL

177

AL
You thought it was me?

ED
Yes.

AL
It's your father. Hank. Your mother went to see him and he had a heart attack.

177 CONTINUED:

ED

Went --

Again, Ed turns to the doctor.

NURSE

Dr. Geller, Dr. Stack wants to see you.

DR. GELLER

(to Ed)

Excuse me.

NURSE

(to Ed)

Could I get your autograph for my niece?

ED

(distracted)

Um... yeah...

Jeanette enters.

JEANETTE

Al! How did you --

AL

The Burkharths drove me. Are you all right?

JEANETTE

(nervously)

I'm fine. I...

AL

Good. I gotta pee.

He wheels off. Jeanette and Ed are left alone.

ED

(loud whisper)

What happened?

JEANETTE

It was horrible. He called me up --

ED

Who?

JEANETTE

Hank! He said he wanted to talk to me to apologize for everything -- he begged -- he cried.

(MORE)

JEANETTE (CONT'D)
So I went to this horrible hotel he was staying in... I felt so sorry for him --

ED
So you had sex with him?

Jeanette GASPS.

JEANETTE
What?

ED
The doctor said you were having sex.

JEANETTE
(horrificed)
To you? In front of him?
(indicates Carlos)
With the...

ED
Yes. He assumed Hank was your husband. He didn't know.

JEANETTE
Oh my god! On TV!

ED
Why? How...

JEANETTE
One thing led to another. He was my husband once.

ED
But Al is your husband now!

JEANETTE
Do you think it's been easy for me? It's been years. Al can't have sex.

ED
Apparently, neither can Hank.
What the hell did you do to him?

Al comes rolling back, SINGING.

AL
"Lovely Rita, the Meter Maid..."

177 CONTINUED: (3)

JEANETTE
(whispers)
Don't tell Al. He doesn't know.

ED
(points to the camera)
Well, he's the only one in America who doesn't!

OPRAH
Women who remarry but have sex today's Oprah.

179 INT. TV STUDIO

Our same panel of pundits.

PANELIST #3
Ed's family is the tip of the iceberg. You watch the daytime tabloid shows it's the same thing. I'm telling you, America is fast becoming a trailer park.

PANELIST #2
Let's not overstate the case.
There are millions of hard-working, sensible, moral, educated people in this country.
Not every family is like Ed's.

REVEAL ED watching this discussion on TV.

180 INT. TV STUDIO

181 EXT. CEMETERY GATES - DAY

Ed is driving Jeanette and Al to the funeral. A CROWD is held back by POLICE. Someone yells "Adulterer." Someone else tries to offer Ed a lunchbox. Someone else is carrying a sign "What a Way to Go."

182

182 EXT. CEMETERY - DAY

Hank's COFFIN is being carried to his gravesite. Ed, Ray and Marcia are pall bearers. One of the other pall bearers is Ed's BODYGUARD. The OTHER TWO are two guys who work for the mortuary. Carlos is shooting.

xxxxxx

ED
 (to Ray)
 You're not going to talk to me?
 You're not even gonna say hello?

RAY
 I have nothing to say to you.

Ed gives up. He turns to Marcia.

ED
 How are you doing? Is Cliff
 here?

She doesn't answer. Ed reacts.

RAY
 Cliff left her, thanks to you.

ED Me?!

RAY That's right. You put Cliff on television.

MARCIA (too loudly)
That's not funny!!

Ed CRINGES.

183 EXT. GRAVESITE - A LITTLE LATER

The service ends. The small group begins to walk away. Ray and Marcia go off together, ignoring Ed. Jeanette is attempting to wheel Al away from the grave, but she's hitting ruts. Ed approaches.

ED
I'll take it.

JEANTTE
(to Al, uncomfortably) Sweetheart, I'm gonna go ahead and sign all the papers.

AL
Right.

She touches him but he pulls away. Ed wheels Al.

ED
Are things gonna be okay with you and Mom? Is there anything I can --

AL
I'm moving out.

ED
What?!

AL I'm going to be living with my brother. He's not in such good shape as I am, but... I'm looking forward to the pillow fights.

ED
(really upset)
Oh, Al... This is just...

183 CONTINUED:

AL Hank was always good with the ladies. Always good-looking.
Hell, he's been dead for two days, he still looks better than me.

He stops wheeling and crouches down next to Al.

ED
I want to tell you something...
I love you. You're my father.

Pause.

AL
I love you, too.

Al KISSES him.

AL (CONT'D)
I'll build a pirate ship with you.

Ed wheels him away.

184 INT. CYNTHIA'S OFFICE

18.

She's watching. She's genuinely moved. She wipes her eyes.

185 INT. BAR - NIGHT

18!

This place is sleazy. Ed enters, worn out. He crosses to the bar where we find, Jeanette nursing a drink. She's not drunk, but she is wallowing.

ED
Hi, Ma.

JEANETTE
(startled)
Ed! How did you know I was here?

ED
You're famous. Somebody called me. What are you doing in a place like this?

JEANETTE
Why shouldn't I be in a place like this? I'm a whore!

185 CONTINUED:

ED (cringes)
Ma...

JEANETTE
I'm a tramp (pulls on the sleeve of the man next to her) Meet your new father. The whole nation is laughing at us!

ED
And how is this helping? Come on -- say, good-night to all your new friends and let's go home.

JEANETTE
(exiting)
I'm a whore!
(yells at an employee)
Your bathrooms are filthy!

They're out.

186 EXT. BAR - CONTINUOUS

18

Ed is helping Jeanette. Ray arrives. He's ANGRY.

RAY
I'll take her. You humiliated our mother on national television. You've single-handedly destroyed this family.

ED
I -- Oh, but that book you wrote was a real love-letter. That... toilet paper with covers.

BYSTANDER =1
That book sucked. I want my money back.

ED
Oh great. Where's Moe?

He looks around. Moe is gone.

RAY
Come on, Ma.

186 CONTINUED:

ED

(to Ray)

Let's remember how I got into this. "Please, Eddie, do this for me. I can't get a break."
(pretends to cry)

RAY

You know what your problem is?

ED

Yeah. My problem is I've got a brother who writes a sentence like "We grew up in a small, little bedroom." As opposed to a big, little bedroom?

RAY

I got paid by the word! No! Your problem is you don't ever want anything to be your fault.

ED

Me?! That's you!

RAY

I commit. I take a chance. You wanted to be the guy on TV, but you didn't want to say you wanted to. So you have me talk you into it so you get what you want, but if it goes bad it's not your fault.

BYSTANDER #2

Right. Like you say you love Shari, but, you wouldn't mind noodling that model.

ED

Moe!

BYSTANDER #3

The truth hurts.

ED

Yeah? So does a kick in the nuts.

RAY

For once in your life, be honest with yourself. I know you, Ed. I know you look at me and Marcia and Mom and you think you're different.

(MORE)

RAY (CONT'D)
 You're like "How did I end up in this family?" You're not different. You're worse.
 Because you have no guts. You drift around, you don't commit, you make fun of me -- okay. Just don't kid yourself.
 (to Jeanette)
 Let's go.

JEANETTE
 You're both good boys.

Ray and Jeanette leave.

187 INT. NETWORK CONFERENCE ROOM - DAY

Ed is there along with Cynthia and the Network Execs. There are more execs than before. Cynthia's people are not there.
 This entire meeting is on ED TV. Cynthia is quiet -- observing. Ed looks whipped.

ED
 Three more months?

MR. SCHARLACH
 Absolutely! Ed TV is more popular than ever.
 Congratulations.

MCILVAINE
 Only, Ed, we want you, in the next few weeks to spend a lot more time with your family.

ED
 You do?

SEAVER
 Definitely. Cynthia, explain it to him.

Cynthia just stares at her, COLDLY.

SEAVER (CONT'D)
 I'll do it.
 (to Ed)
 People want to see what happens to them now. Do your mother and step-father get back together?
 How does your sister handle being alone? Your feud with your brother.

187 CONTINUED:

SCHARLACH

In fact, we have a new concept. Since your family signed releases, we can follow them on camera even when you're not with them. We can cut around from family member to family member. Whoever's the most exciting at that moment.

McILVAINE

And, of course, it's another big bonus payment for you.

Pause.

ED

A couple of years ago my Uncle Roy got bit on the ass by a dog.

Silence. What the hell is he talking about?

ED (CONT'D)

So he gave me his tickets to the U.S. Open -- the tennis matches.

They still have no idea what he's talking about.

ED (CONT'D)

So me and Ray, we tell our friends "Watch when Andre Agassi is gonna serve for the first time. When he's bouncing the ball and it's real quiet, we'll yell "Whoop". And you'll all hear us.

Pause.

SCHARLACH

I see.
(he doesn't)

ED

You know what that is? It's sad. I mean it was just so we could be heard. So we could stand out from the crowd for a second. So we did it. But we had nothing to say. Just "Whoop". That's it. And the stupid part -- I mean the really stupid part -- is we thought it like... elevated us above the crowd. Where the fact is it made us stupider than the crowd.

187 CONTINUED: (2)

SCHARLACH

I see.

ED

Stop saying "I see." You don't see. Cynthia, I owe you an apology.

CYNTHIA

I don't think so.

ED

Yeah. Because, you didn't talk me into anything. Everything you wanted me to do, I wanted to do.

188 INT. SHARI'S PLACE

188

Shari watching Ed TV

189 INT. CONFERENCE ROOM

189

ED

(to the camera)

Ray, you were right. It's like in school. I was always saying "the room was too hot, the teacher didn't like me" -- but it was me! Everything that's wrong with my life I did. Okay? So now this is it. My family has problems. Which are our fault. And TV is not the place to solve them. So I quit. I'm taking what very little dignity I've got left and I quit. Can someone validate my parking?

Pause. SHOCK.

MR. SCHARLACH

Well, Ed, that's... not really possible.

ED

All right, I'll pay for the parking. Big network!

Scharlach speaks carefully - gently. He's aware of the camera. He doesn't want to come off as a villain.

SCHARLACH

No, I mean you can't quit.

189 CONTINUED:

ED

I can't?

MR. SCHARLACH

(very gently)

Well, no. You agreed to stay on the air as long as we asked you to. The station entered into this on that understanding. If you had refused we'd have begun this with somebody else. You can't just change the rules in the middle of the game, son. It's not fair to us. More importantly, it's not fair to the viewers. They're interested in you. They've devoted hours and days and weeks of their lives to you.

ED

Look, if you don't let me out of this... I'll just... I'll just sit in my apartment all day. I won't go anywhere, I won't do anything. What kind of show will that be?

MR. SCHARLACH

Not too good. That's why it states in your contract that if you do not continue to live a normal life, you're in violation and are liable for the station's financial losses. Ed, I urge you to reconsider. I urge you on behalf of all those people out there whose lives have become so entwined with yours. Play fair with them, Ed.

Ed thinks.

ED

All right. Let them decide.

He turns right to the camera.

ED (CONT'D)

I'd like you all to do me a favor. Turn me off. Just grab the remote and change the channel. I mean, basically, all you're watching now is a guy deteriorate.

(MORE)

189 CONTINUED: (2)

ED (CONT'D)
The only thing missing is the smell. You're better than that.
Turn me off. Thank you.

190 INT. CYNTHIA'S OFFICE

Greg bursts in, carrying a sheet of paper.

GREG
Ratings are up across the board.
Look at this!
(drones on)
Men 18 to 35, women 18 to 35...

Cynthia stares, amazed.

191 EXT. STREET

Ed WALKING ZOMBIE-LIKE. CROWDS SWARM.

192 INT. LAWYER'S OFFICE - DAY

Ed is with STEVE, a lawyer. Steve has a huge contract on his desk.

STEVE
This contract you signed?... It's a masterpiece. Don't go to war with these guys. You fart in the wrong direction they can take everything you own and leave you naked by the side of the road.
You ever going to get back with that Jill? Ooh -- she was nice.
Shari, I didn't like that much ("imitates" a gabby girl)
"yet-tet-tet-tet-tet-tet."

ED
Shut up.

193 INT. DINER - NIGHT

Ed is sitting alone, eating lunch. He's surrounded by cameras and shielded by BODYGUARDS.

OUTSIDE the diner a CROWD of rubberneckers is out on the sidewalk, looking in at him, some of them acting up, some just staring in. Ed is tired. He glances out the window and makes a MONKEY FACE. Suddenly, he FREEZES.

193 CONTINUED:

He sees Shari's face in the crowd. She puts her fist in her mouth.

194 EXT. STREET - NIGHT

Ed and Shari are walking -- on camera.

SHARI
I bailed. I bailed on you.

ED
Kinda'.

SHARI
It's what I do. I yell
"Geronimo" and jump out of a relationship.

He laughs.

SHARI (CONT'D)
You weren't able to make me feel safe or secure -- no easy job for any man, I admit -- and my problem is, if I think I'm losing, I pull myself out of the game. I bail. See? I told you,
I'm the love coroner.

Pause.

ED
What did you do to your hair?

SHARI
My truck overheated, so I opened the hood and my hair got caught in the fan belt. So I had to get a haircut.

ED
It's nice.

He touches her hair. They leap on each other. They're KISSING.

195 INT. NETWORK CONFERENCE ROOM - DAY

Big meeting. Many Honchos, including Scharlach and Cynthia.
All but Cynthia are focused. Cynthia looks bored.

195 CONTINUED: (2)

HONCHO #1
Well, we were thinking --

ED
(cheerfully)
Shut up.

He takes back that Honcho's hat.

ED (CONT'D)
Let's have a contest. Now this would mostly be open to professional investigators and detectives. But anyone can join in.

SHARI (rehearsed)
What do we have to do?

ED
My lovely assistant, Shari. I'm glad you asked. The contest is who can dig up -- legally, of course -- I'm not suggesting that anyone break any laws -- the most embarrassing and humiliating facts about any of the executives here at the North American Broadcasting System which owns Real TV.

The Honchos staring blankly.

ED (CONT'D)
But facts! They have to be verified. Anything from their past, their present, business, personal -- arrests, affairs...
And whoever comes up with the sleeziest, most degrading material -- I'll give you ten thousand dollars. And you get to be on Ed TV.
(to the Honchos, excitedly)
Hah?

SHARI
So act now. Here's Ed's home phone number.

She holds up a CARD.

196 INT. CONFERENCE ROOM

It's packed with LAWYERS and EXECS. Everyone is agitated, except Cynthia, who seems relaxed. Ed and Shari are gone.

SCHARLACH
Legal?! How can this be legal?
It's defamation! It's slander!
It's...

LAWYER
Not, technically. He is not showing a reckless disregard for the truth.

SCHARLACH
You're fired!

The meeting continues ANGRILY.

197 INT. CONFERENCE ROOM - LATER

The Honchos are watching Ed TV. They look STRAINED, ANXIOUS.

In Ed's home a BANK OF PHONES have been set up like for a telethon. Manning the phones are Ed, Shari, Ray, Marcia, Al and Jeanette. The PHONES KEEP RINGING.

RAY
(into phone) Uh-huh... uh-huh... Really?! She was how old?

In the conference room one of the Execs looks DIZZY.
The CAMERA PANS to Al on the phone.

AL
(shocked)
He pays a prostitute to do what to him?... I don't even want that on my shoes.

IN THE CONFERENCE ROOM

FEAR and SHOCK, except for Cynthia, who is LAUGHING and can't stop.

SCHARLACH
Stop laughing or you're fired.

She stops. Then she gets up.

SCHARLACH (CONT'D)
Where are you going?

197

197 CONTINUED:

CYNTHIA
I've got this great idea. We put together a video. "The Network Executives Goofiest Moments." And listen, I've really loved working here.

On the word "loved" she shot Scharlach THE FINGER. She exits, LAUGHING.

198

198 INT. ED'S APARTMENT - NIGHT

Ed is off the phone,

ED
Okay. We have a winner. Now please don't feel badly if yours wasn't selected. In our eyes, you're all winners.

RAY
And each contestant gets one of these.

(holds up a tee-shirt with writing on it)
An "I tried to screw a network executive" tee-shirt.

ED
A hundred per cent cotton. Okay, here we go, Andy.

Ed grabs a sealed ENVELOPE. Andy plays a DRUM ROLL -- not terribly well.

ED (CONT'D)
Andy's available for executions.
And the winner is...

As he opens the envelope.

19

199 INT. CONFERENCE ROOM

The Executives staring, HORRIFIED.

20

200 INT. ED'S APARTMENT

He takes out the card and registers mock-surprise.

ED
Hey, the winner is from right here in New York city.

203 INT. CONFERENCE ROOM

As Ed explains, Scharlach reaches for the phone, fumbling it for a moment.

204 INT. ED'S APARTMENT

ED
And the man of the hour -- the executive with the winning secret -- the man who, thanks to the miracle of space-age science and a pump he keeps in his pocket, can now --

A SHOT OF a television set tuned to Ed. Suddenly Ed is replaced by a Real TV logo.

ANNOUNCER (V.O.)
