FOR IN-HOUSE USE ONLY

NOT FOR PUBLICATION

NOTE TO PROMOTION MANAGER: The following is a more detailed rundown of the events in "FOREVER-FERNWOOD." It has been prepared by the Publicity Department for your use in planning ads and writing promotional copy. Thank you for your cooperation.

--WEEK TWENTY-FIVE--

446. Dr. Szymon tells Tom and a nauseous Penny that Penny is suffering effects of pollution and may be seriously ill. Martha convinces Mel that he is a social freak and must become more contemporary. Guilt therapy has given Cathy the guts to put the make on Tom, but when she finds out Penny is ill, her anti-guilt defenses crumble. Dr. Szymon determines Penny's nausea is psychological, a result of her on-again, off-again relationship with Tom. Tom misinterprets the nausea for pregnancy.

447. Tom, Charlie and Mel discuss vasectomies and Tom's belief that Penny is pregnant. Mac tells Merle and Eleanor about the increasing animosity from plant workers regarding her plans to close the plant for the wedding. Mel has a humiliating nightmare. Mac begins to fall in love with Wanda.

448. Loretta and Charlie try to convince Penny about the joys of motherhood. Charlie admits to Loretta that he wants a vasectomy. At their wedding rehearsal, Merle re-commits himself to Eleanor after being hit with a tomato. Mac pumps Merle for ways to appeal to Wanda; Merle becomes angry and jealous. Cathy tells Penny that Tom thinks Penny is pregnant.

449. Merle confronts Wanda about Mac. Merle and Wanda admit they still love each other, but Wanda refuses to run away with him. Merle decides to go through with his wedding to Eleanor. Martha gives Mel a lesson in being "contemporary" and "with it." Merle does not show at his wedding, he's busy kidnapping Wanda.

450. Tom still thinks Penny is pregnant and feels her silence is because she wants an abortion. Loretta and Charlie discuss his vasectomy. Tom takes Penny to a sex clinic to have an abortion and she is finally able to convince him she is not pregnant. Loretta's father, Pappy Parmenter, arrives to say Loretta has some rare genes and will give birth to a monster.
