THE MONTAGE

BLACK AND WHITE ACADEMY FORMAT

1a. THE WASTELAND. DAY.

1a.

Flurries of dust and sand swirl around us as we move through an eerie, barren land. The only sound is the howl of a rising wind.

Ahead something looms out of the storm. As we approach we see that it is the rusting remains of a massive oil pump.

The wind drops to be replaced by the voice of a very old man. This is the Narrator:

NARRATOR v/o

The vision dims and all that remains are memories. They take me back - back to the place where the black pump sucked guzzolene from the earth...

DISSOLVE.

1b. ANOTHER PART OF THE WASTELAND. DAY.

1b.

Out of the dust storm emerges the ancient wreck of a prime mover and fuel tanker. It is partly charred, its wheels and sides studded with metal crossbow bolts.

NARRATOR v/o

And I remember the terrible battle we fought - the day we left that place forever...

DISSOLVE.

1c. A HILLTOP IN THE WASTELAND. DAY.

1c.

A warrior, dressed in leather and steel, stands on a hillcrest. This is MAX. Behind him is a strange road vehicle: two engines and a seat mounted on a chassis.

NARRATOR v/o

But, most of all, I remember

Sc. 1c. Cont...

1c.

the courage of a stranger, a road warrior called Max.

To understand who he was you must go back to the last days of the old world...

FADE TO BLACK.

1d/e. A MOB OF ARAB STUDENTS...

1d/e.

...storm a heavily-fortified embassy and raise the Iranian flag.

1f. U.S. SOLDIERS LAND...

1f.

...on a beach in the Persian Gulf and fight their way across the sand.

NARRATOR v/o
...when, for reasons long forgotten, two mighty warrior nations went to war...

1g. AN OIL WELL ERUPTS...

1g.

...and then another... and another.

Plumes of flame burst across the skyline.

NARRATOR
...and touched off a blaze which engulfed them all.

1h. A LINE OF CARS...

1h.

...stretches for blocks until it finally reaches a gas station.

An attendant pulls down a sign which reads:

$7/Gallon and replaces it with another sign:

AUTHORISED VEHICLES ONLY

A group of angry motorists gather around, yelling and pushing.

The attendant produces a gun motioning them back...

NARRATOR

...For without fuel they were nothing. They had built a house of straw...

1i. BUSINESSMEN AT A STOCK EXCHANGE...

1i.

BUSINESSMEN

Sell! Sell! Sell!

Torn up scrip litters the floor...

1j. THE FOYER OF A HUGE CORPORATION.

1j.

The company's crest is chiselled on the wall. It is accompanied by the words:

SEVEN SISTERS PETROLEUM

"Fuelling The World"

On the floor below, beyond the marble pillars, we see the building is abandoned - littered with broken furniture and piles of documents.

DISSOLVE.

We pass through a door designated:

CHIEF EXECUTIVE

At the other end of the imposing room we see a businessman clearing out his vast desk. His name is PAPPAGALLO. On the wall behind him we see photographs and paintings of oil wells and refineries.

PAPPAGALLO takes a wad of maps and puts them in his briefcase, followed by a copy of "Whole Earth Catalogue" and another book. The cover reads:

TEACH YOURSELF SOLAR ENERGY

11. LIVING ROOM.

11.

An ANXIOUS FAMILY is gathered in front of a television set. A politician addresses the nation.

POLITICIAN

Stage three of the national emergency is effective immediately. Citizens are warned...

The speech is cut short as static fills the screen.

The family looks up at the lights as they flicker...

1m. IN A FACTORY...

1m.

...a giant machine grinds to a halt.

1n. IN A CITY STREET...

1n.

...anxious faces look up as the street lights flick off.

10. AN INDUSTRIAL CITY SCAPE.

10.

It is dark, decaying, silent...

NARRATOR v/o

People stopped in the streets and listened: for the first time they heard the sound of silence.

1p. A CITY LANE - DARK AND DESERTED. NIGHT.

1p.

A terrible scream... a YOUNG MAN runs down the street... a shot is fired.

The YOUNG MAN falls dead... crushing the meat and eggs he has been clutching to his chest...

NARRATOR v/o

Their world crumbled...

DISSOLVE.

1q. IN A DESERTED CITY STREET.

1q.

Bank notes, blown by the wind, flutter towards a store dummy, lying smashed on the road...

A rat emerges from the back of the mannequin's skull and scurries away as we hear the roar of a big engine.

The wide wheels of a big car crush the dummy. As the vehicle roars down the street it is followed by two big bikes...

NARRATOR v/o

And only those mobile enough to scavenge, brutal enough to pillage would survive.

DISSOLVE.

(THE FOLLOWING IS ALL FOOTAGE FROM MAD MAX I)

1r. A GROUP OF OUTLAW BIKERS...

...leap from a hillside onto the roof of a moving fuel tanker. They pass a hose into the tank...

NARRATOR v/o
At last, the vermin had inherited the earth.

DISSOLVE.

1s. A PACK OF BIKERS...

1s.

...swarm around a car and start to hack it to pieces.

DISSOLVE.

1t. A SERIES OF RAPIDLY DISSOLVING IMAGES.

Speeding cars, speeding bikes, crashing vans, crashing police cars, crashing bikes, brawls, smashed windows, explosions.

NARRATOR v/o
And in this maelstrom of decay, ordinary men were battered and crushed...

1u. MAX IN POLICE UNIFORM.

1u.

...turns and smiles.

NARRATOR v/o
...men like the Warrior Max...

MAX fuels the blaze with the remnants of his past life: children's toys; photo albums; his police badge.

1bb. MAX WITH HIS SHOTGUN.

1bb.

...turns to camera, wild-eyed...

NARRATOR v/o
And became a shell of a man.
A burnt out, desolate man, a dead man, running from the demons of his past.
A man who wandered far away...

DISSOLVE.

1cc. MAX DRIVING.

1cc.

The supercharger on the front of the vehicle dominates the foreground.

NARRATOR v/o

And it was out here, in this blighted place, that he learned to live again...

FADE UP COLOUR.

THE SCREEN WIDENS TO ANAMORPHIC RATIO.

2. HELICOPTER AERIAL TRANSITION. DAWN. 2.

We soar along the empty highway, up and down its rises and around its curves until we are out in the vast wasteland.

3. WASTELAND HIGHWAY. DAY. 3.

The black hole of the supercharger dominates the frame. Behind the wheel we see MAX looking about 3 years older. He is gaunt, unkempt - his leathers tattered and torn.

The black-on-black pursuit car, bearing the scars of numerous road duels, cruises down the roller coaster highway.

As MAX crests a hill he hits the brakes. His companion, a mongrel DOG, sitting in a baby's auto seat, lifts its head to look.

The black-on-black slides to a stop.

4. RURAL SHACK ON HIGHWAY. DAY. 4.

On a ridge close to the road, silhouetted in a dust-blown field, is a strange assortment of WARRIOR LIKE MEN. They are cannibalising a farm vehicle: siphoning its fuel and loading food and other loot into their bizarre vehicles.

The DOG growls. MAX looks further along the ridge. On the horizon we see a burning wooden shack and three bodies strung from a gnarled, dead tree.

MAX looks back to the MEN. Several of them, having seen him, are running to their vehicles.

The first of them is a muscular man with a red mohawk haircut. He is heavily protected by a leather and metal chest plate, shoulder pads and leggings. This is WEZ.

Sc. 4. Cont..

He runs to where a GOLDEN YOUTH sits on the pillion seat of a huge bike.

WEZ is followed by TWO MORE MOHAWKERS on bikes, THREE GAYBOY BERSERKERS in road racers and FOUR SMEGMA CRAZIES in bizarre dune buggies.

MAX guns the big motor. The black-on-black takes off. MAX hits the supercharger - surging away.

Through the rear window we see WEZ lead the other nine vehicles down the hill, giving chase...

WIPE.

5. ELSEWHERE ON THE HIGHWAY. (A LITTLE LATER). DAY. 5.

High angle helicopter shot of the chase. The Marauders' vehicles are strung down the highway. Only the fastest, led by Wez, can keep up with the black-on-black.

WIPE.

6. THE WRECKS ON THE HIGHWAY. (STILL LATER). DAY. 6.

The black-on-black surges around a wide curve, revealing only three vehicles still in pursuit.

The first machine is Wez's big road bike, the GOLDEN YOUTH riding pillion. It is followed by a bizarre road racer and a strange dune buggy.

As the black-on-black crests a rise MAX is confronted by a tangle of wrecked vehicles on the road ahead.

He swerves, slaloms through the wrecks and accelerates into a sweeping right hand curve.

WEZ ramps his bike over the first wreck and corrects, avoiding the other wrecks.

The road racer ramps two wheels over the first wreck but cannot correct. It clips the second wreck, sends it spinning, then continues after the black-on-black.

The dune buggy decides to avoid the wrecks altogether and veers off the road to the right. It heads across open terrain aiming to intercept the black-on-black on the curve.

A light flashes on Max's dashboard, an alarm whoops.

- MAX looks down at the fuel gauge: close to empty. He curses and flicks a switch, cutting off the supercharger.

The black-on-black slows...

The DOG whimpers, crawls off its chair and under Max's seat.

WEZ overhauls MAX on the passenger side. He raises his forearm, aiming his gauntlet-style crossbow at MAX'S head.

MAX barely has time to glimpse the road racer drawing alongside the driver's door.

The passenger - a GAYBOY BERSERKER - wields a brutal, gas-powered 'gun': the heads of six metal arrows protrude from a big barrel. This weapon is the "porta-pak".

MAX hits the brakes.

The road racer and the bike surge past the black car... just as the porta-pak fires.

Two arrows thud into the black car, three go astray and one hits WEZ in the arm.

MAX throws the black car in behind the road racer...

WEZ, fighting to control the bike, leaves the road...

MAX changes down and hits the supercharger...

The black car leaps forward, ramming into the back of the road racer, bullying it along.

Wheels and metal screaming, the two cars approach an intersection littered with furniture and other debris. A road rig lies abandoned on the roadside.

MAX eases back for a moment then flattens the accelerator...

The black car slams into the back of the road racer... hurling it forward, just as the dune buggy regains the highway...

The driver of the road racer screams as his vehicle hits the dune buggy, spinning it like a top, sending it crashing into the side of the road rig.

The road racer slides through a 180 degrees, rolls, smashes through a road sign and hits a power pole.

The pole thuds to the road as MAX throws a handbrake "U" turn and skids to a halt in the middle of the intersection.

MAX, carrying a jerry can, gets out of the black car. He looks down the highway.

9. A RISE OVERLOOKING THE INTERSECTION. DAY.

WEZ is stopped on the crest of the road, looking down on the intersection. The arrow is still in his arm.

We see the GOLDEN YOUTH clearly for the first time: he is strikingly beautiful.

10. THE INTERSECTION.

MAX, unfazed, hurries to the wreck of the dune buggy, crushed beneath the road rig. Fuel streams from its ruptured tank.

From inside the wreck we hear the moans of the injured driver.

MAX puts the jerry can under the escaping fuel and - tearing a bandana from his neck - mops up the gasoline lying on the bitumen.

Suddenly, there is a shrill whistle.

MAX looks up at the crest of the road.

11. THE RISE OVERLOOKING THE INTERSECTION. DAY.

WEZ grins as he pulls the arrow slowly out of his arm. His eyes never leave MAX.

He holds up the arrow and mouths the words:

WEZ
For you!

With that he puts the arrow back into his quiver and guns the motor. He rears the front wheel, hangs there a moment, then spins the bike around and roars back

MAX, examines the road rig:
most of the tyres have been punctured with arrows, the rear doors torn off and its contents pillaged.

MAX taps the fuel tank - empty.

He reaches up to open the door of the cabin...

There is an anguished scream. MAX turns.

The hand of the dying driver emerges from the twisted metal of the dune buggy.

The fingernails score deeply into the paintwork, a rush of dark blood pours out of the wreck. Then, silence.

MAX opens the cabin door...

A figure drops down, crashing onto his shoulders. As MAX struggles from its grasp we see that it is the bloated putrifying corpse of the rig's driver. Two crossbow bolts are buried in its neck.

MAX stoops and picks up a toy hurdy-gurdy which has fallen from the dead man's hand.

As he walks back towards the black-on-black he turns the handle, playing the first few notes of "Happy Birthday".

He stops next to the vehicle, in the middle of the intersection. He looks from one direction to another... undecided... and then sees the smashed road sign.

He picks up a fragment which reads:

ONE TREE HILL

And throws it into the air.

It lands at his feet, pointing north.

He gets into the car and drives off in that direction.

FADE TO BLACK.

The black-on-black travels slowly through the shimmering desert. The only sounds are the rumble of the engine and the whistle of the wind.

As the car crests a rise MAX looks ahead and sees a large kite - in the shape of a man's grinning face - hovering above a dune.

MAX leaves the DOG to guard the car and, carrying a jerry can and a tyre iron, cautiously makes his way across the sand.

14. ON THE DUNES. DAY.

14.

From the top of the dune MAX sees that the kite is tethered to an abandoned vehicle: a primitive version of a gyrocopter - little more than a motor, a seat and a rotor mounted on a chassis.

A set of footprints leads from the gyrocopter, up a dune and disappears into the distance.

Slowly MAX approaches the vehicle, skirting around it, looking for a trap. Nothing moves except for the flurries of sand whirling across the dunes.

15. THE GYROCOPTER. DAY.

15.

Carefully, MAX reaches up and taps the gas tank: empty.

As he straightens up, he hears a low hiss.

MAX freezes. Only inches away a snake, coiled around the vertical shaft of the gyro, is poised to strike...

They stare at each other.

The snake strikes... MAX springs... hand flashing... catching it by the neck.

He holds up the snake, grinning, about to kill it.

The head and shaft of an arrow emerge from the sand behind him. It is followed by the frame of a crossbow and a man's face, spitting sand, a length of rubber hose clenched in his teeth. This is the GYRO CAPTAIN.

GYRO CAPTAIN
Don't hurt that snake!

MAX turns. The CAPTAIN emerges from his shallow grave, motioning with the crossbow.

GYRO CAPTAIN
Put him back... gently!

MAX lays the snake on the rotor.

GYRO CAPTAIN
Sounded like a big V-8 to me.
I guess I got myself some guzzolene.

He raises his bow, aiming at MAX'S head, preparing to fire.

MAX
The car's booby-trapped.
Touch those tanks and BOOM! You'll blow yourself apart.

The CAPTAIN looks quickly in the direction of the black-on-black, and back to MAX. He gestures with the crossbow.

GYRO CAPTAIN
Drop the weapons...
Now back up.

MAX throws down the tyre iron and unhitches a holster which contains a sawn-off shotgun.

The CAPTAIN slings the gunbelt over his shoulder.

16. THE DESERT ROAD - MAX'S CAR. DAY.

16.

MAX walks backwards towards his car. The CAPTAIN tense, crossbow trained on MAX, follows him across the dune.

Sc. 16. Cont...

GYRO CAPTAIN

You're quick, I'll give you that. Never seen a man beat a snake. Never. Reflexes, that's what you've got.

Me? I've got brains.

He taps his head as they arrive at the black-on-black.

GYRO CAPTAIN

Now, where's this booby-trap?

MAX reaches under the car. His hand groping for a machete clipped to the chassis. His fingers wrap around the handle.

GYRO CAPTAIN

A fella - a quick fella - might keep a weapon under there.

He nuzzles the bow against the back of MAX'S head.

GYRO CAPTAIN

Then I'd have to pin his head to the panel.

MAX slides his hand away, disconnects a series of mechanical fuses and shows them to the CAPTAIN. He moves to open the driver's door. The CAPTAIN reacts quickly, raising his bow, motioning MAX back.

MAX

There's one more.

GYRO CAPTAIN

Oh no! You don't play me the fool.

The CAPTAIN, keeping the crossbow trained on MAX'S head, opens the door.

The DOG flies out, leaping for the CAPTAIN'S throat. The crossbow discharges, narrowly missing MAX as he hurls himself at the CAPTAIN. The steel arrow buries itself in the car door.

MAX pins the CAPTAIN to the ground and recovers his shotgun.

MAX cocks the gun next to the CAPTAIN'S head.

GYRO CAPTAIN
Gas! Petrol! Guzzolene! Listen!
Hundreds... thousands of gallons...
as much as you want...

MAX eases off the trigger.

MAX
Where?

GYRO CAPTAIN
Not far. Ten... maybe twenty miles. Pumping it they are.
Refining it. Kachunk... kachunk... kachunk...
Day and night. A huge tanker full.

MAX Balls!

GYRO CAPTAIN
It's there, you betcha...
I'll tell you straight though - it's not self service.
It's under guard. Too hard for me. But a man with your ingenuity... Jesus I reckon...

MAX rams the barrel against the CAPTAIN'S head.

MAX
Where?

GYRO CAPTAIN
Kill me, and you'll never find out.

MAX drags him to his feet and pushes him towards the black-on-black.

MAX is driving the black-on-black while the CAPTAIN sits rigid in the passenger's seat. The muzzle of the shotgun is strapped to the back of his head and the stock fastened to the top of the seat.

A length of wire runs from the triggers across to the DOG sitting in the rear of the car. The end of the wire is clasped firmly in its mouth.

The CAPTAIN, not daring to take his eyes off the DOG directs MAX along back roads to an area of high country.

The DOG'S eyes dart out the window. He whimpers, body twitching.

The CAPTAIN stares in horror at a rabbit bounding through the scrub.

MAX smiles to himself.

The DOG settles back.

18. A CLIFFTOP OVERLOOKING THE COMPOUND. DAY.

MAX moves towards the cliff edge. A column of smoke rises into the sky, accompanied by a garble of distant sounds: police sirens; car horns; men screaming; war-whoops; and revving motors.

The GYRO CAPTAIN - manacled and guarded by the DOG - hobbles along behind MAX.

From the top of the cliff MAX looks down on a battle raging on the plain below.

A fortified encampment, surrounded by a wide ditch and coils of barbed wire, is under attack by a large gang of MARAUDERS: MOHAWK BIKERS, SMEGMA CRAZIES in dune buggies, and GAYBOY BERSERKERS in road racers.

They attack along a road which passes through an area - outside the fortifications - which is under cultivation. Three wooden work huts, a small barn and a corral containing several cows and a horse are dotted around a newly-ploughed field.

As the Marauders' vehicles come within range of the compound, they stream around the perimeter, firing crossbows at the DEFENDERS ranged along the battlements.

GYRO CAPTAIN
Well... I never said it'd be easy.

MAX unhooks an old pair of binoculars from the equipment belt around his waist.

Through the binoculars MAX sees a weird dune buggy charging towards the camp. He recognises the two bizarre occupants as members of the gang he encountered sacking the farmlet the day before.

The dune buggy races along a causeway which spans the ditch, heading for a yellow school bus which blocks the gate of the camp. The PASSENGER in the buggy fires a string of arrows from a multi-barrel gas-gun.

A WARRIOR WOMAN on the battlement, armed with a flame-thrower, hits the buggy with a stream of liquid fire.

The blazing vehicle plunges into the ditch. It tumbles into another wreck which met a similar fate - its tyres still smouldering.

MAX pans his binoculars to the interior of the compound.

He sees a large mechanical pump drawing the oil from the ground and a primitive fractionating column used to refine it.

A DEFENDER firing from the refinery tower is struck by an arrow. He falls over the guard rail, where a dead companion hangs over the edge, suspended by his foot.

The sound of an amplified voice draws MAX'S attention. He swings the binoculars around:

A huge, muscular man - his face covered by a metal mask - sits in a bizarre six-wheeled vehicle. He uses a microphone to shout orders to the MARAUDERS, directing the course of the battle. This man is the HUMUNGUS.

Beside him, is the Mohawk Biker called WEZ. He sits astride his bike, the GOLDEN YOUTH clinging to his waist. He speaks with HUMUNGUS, pointing, sweeping his hand.

The GYRO CAPTAIN is becoming more agitated.

GYRO CAPTAIN

Okay, there it is. If anyone can get in, I know it's gonna be you. Me... I've gotta feed the snakes.

MAX drops the binoculars.

The CAPTAIN offers his wrists to be unmanacled.

GYRO CAPTAIN
A man lives by his word, I reckon. And I've kept mine...

MAX gets to his feet and hauls the GYRO CAPTAIN to a nearby tree stump.

GYRO CAPTAIN
Look! We had a deal: I show you the gas - You let me go.

MAX starts to chain him to the stump.

MAX
The contract was: I wouldn't kill you.

The GYRO CAPTAIN turns angry, protesting.

MAX pushes the shotgun close to his face.

MAX
I reckon you got a bargain...
Don't you?

The CAPTAIN shuts up.

MAX tests the chain. The sounds of the battle continue.

DISSOLVE.

22. CLIFFTOP. LATER THE SAME DAY.

22.

MAX has settled in. He sits under a small camouflage canopy. His binoculars are fixed on a tripod fashioned from sticks.

The DOG lies nearby. Further away the GYRO CAPTAIN is tethered to the tree stump, on a short leash.

The black car is covered by a camouflage net.

MAX leans back from his binoculars, takes a can of dog food from a pack and begins to open it.

The DOG pricks up his ears.

- The GYRO CAPTAIN watches as MAX unwraps a velvet cloth to reveal a beautiful silver fork.

The revving of engines wafts up from below.

MAX, spooning the food into his mouth, leans forward to his binoculars.

23. THE COMPOUND. DAY.

23.

The MARAUDERS have formed a bridge of car wrecks across the ditch near a less defended section of the compound.

At WEZ'S signal three bikes ride at the bridge of wrecks. Two of them are hit almost immediately but the third rides over the wrecks and attempts to ramp into the compound.

The bike flies through the air... and bounces into the wire. The RIDER sails over the fence into the compound where he is set upon by THREE DEFENDERS.

24. CLIFFTOP. DAY.

24.

MAX wolfs down his meal.

The GYRO CAPTAIN and the DOG lick their lips in unison.

MAX tosses the can and its remains to the DOG.

The CAPTAIN groans as the DOG buries its muzzle into the can. The CAPTAIN inches over towards the DOG.

The DOG snarls...

WIPE.

25. CLIFFTOP. (MAGIC HOUR).

25.

From the clifftop, we see the lights in the compound come on. A searchlight weaves across the wasteland.

The only sound is the "kachunk! kachunk!" of the huge oil pump.

The battle has reached a stalemate. The DEFENDERS and the ATTACKERS watch each other across "no man's land".

Smouldering wrecks and dead bodies litter the ditch.

The animals in the corral have been slaughtered.

26. CLIFFTOP. ANGLE ON MAX. MAGIC HOUR.

MAX is slumped against a rock.

The DOG is asleep.

The GYRO CAPTAIN rings his finger around the dog food can and licks it clean.

MAX sits up at the sound of a bugle.

He looks down.

27. THE COMPOUND. MAGIC HOUR.

27.

The MARAUDERS kick over their engines, fanning across the area under cultivation, tearing up the ploughed field.

As they pull back to the high ground surrounding the camp, they set fire to the farm huts and drag off the carcasses of the dead animals.

The fires blaze fiercely on the darkening plain.

FADE TO BLACK.

28. CLIFFTOP. DAWN.

28.

Tracking close on MAX as he sleeps.

The DOG sitting next to him is on his feet growling at the sound of vehicles from the plain below.

MAX wakes, alert, looking down.

Below, three compound vehicles are fanning out across the plain.

The MARAUDERS camped on the rise rouse themselves... climbing aboard their vehicles.

The GYRO CAPTAIN, tethered to the stump, strains at his chain but cannot get close enough to the edge to see...

GYRO CAPTAIN
What's up!!

MAX ignores him, concentrating on the situation below.

The bulk of the MARAUDERS have split into three groups each chasing a camp vehicle off into the wasteland. The HUMUNGUS leads one of the groups. Four MARAUDERS, camped on a pinnacle, keep watch on the camp.

Suddenly another vehicle bursts out of the camp and speeds across the plain towards MAX'S clifftop. It passes out of sight around the back of the hill.

MAX hurries from his canopy across the other side of the hilltop.

29. REAR OF CLIFFTOP LOOKOUT. MORNING.

29.

MAX looks past the black-on-black, to where the lone compound vehicle has achieved the bitumen.

Suddenly, three Mohawk bikes and a tow truck emerge from behind a rocky outcrop. Led by WEZ, they fire arrows into the tyres and smash the windscreen.

The compound vehicle leaves the road, rolling...

As the GYRO CAPTAIN crawls to his side, MAX raises his binoculars...

30. MAX'S POV BINOCULARS. MORNING.

30.

The bloodied driver is being dragged from the wreck by TWO MOHAWKERS. The others cannibalise the vehicle and siphon off its fuel. Another occupant emerges from the twisted metal and tries to crawl away... It is a YOUNG WOMAN.

31. REAR OF CLIFFTOP LOOKOUT. MORNING.

31.

The GYRO CAPTAIN sees her and fumbles urgently for something deep in the pockets of his great-coat.

He produces a large telescope which is attached to his waist by a leather cord.

32. GYRO CAPTAIN'S POV. TELESCOPE. MORNING. 32.

Through the cracked lens of the telescope we see two of the MOHAWKERS dragging the woman to the roadside.

33. REAR OF CLIFFTOP LOOKOUT. MORNING. 33.

MAX looks around to see the GYRO CAPTAIN'S telescope and grabs it. The GYRO CAPTAIN, protesting, picks up the less-powerful binoculars.

MAX lifts the telescope.

34. MAX'S POV. TELESCOPE. MORNING. 34.

The GOLDEN YOUTH is sitting on one of the bikes. The POV whip pans across the wreck where two MOHAWKERS have pushed the badly injured driver up to the car panel. WEZ fires an arrow into the man's shoulder, pinning it to the panel.

Methodically, he reloads and fires another pin into the man's other shoulder.

MAX pans the telescope to where the three MOHAWKERS hold the STRUGGLING WOMAN. At WEZ'S signal they start to tear the woman's clothes away...

35. REAR OF CLIFFTOP LOOKOUT. MORNING. 35.

Track in as the GYRO CAPTAIN and MAX watch through the binoculars and telescope.

Camera tightens further to the GYRO CAPTAIN. His face reacts to the horror below.

MAX drops his head... his eyes closing momentarily. The noise of vehicles starting below breaks the moment.

He lifts the telescope and pans to one side.

36. MAX'S POV. TELESCOPE. MORNING. 36.

The telescope lens finds all the MOHAWKERS except one back on their vehicles. They ride off led by WEZ...

37. REAR OF CLIFFTOP LOOKOUT. MORNING. 37.

While MAX has the telescope trained on the departing vehicles the GYRO CAPTAIN has the binoculars on the WOMAN.

GYRO CAPTAIN
Jesus! He's gonna kill her.

MAX whips his telescope around...

38. MAX'S POV. TELESCOPE. MORNING. 38.

The lens finds the remaining MOHAWKER now standing back from the prostrate girl. He is loading his crossbow...

The image blurr...

39. REAR OF CLIFFTOP LOOKOUT. MORNING. 39.

MAX has dropped the telescope and is on his feet running down to the black-on-black. The DOG is at his heels.

GYRO CAPTAIN
Hey! What about me?!!

The black-on-black roars off...

40. THE WRECK OF THE COMPOUND VEHICLE. DAY. 40.

We track low past the dead girl's face towards the back of the MOHAWKER. He is sitting on a wheel pulling on his trousers.

Close to his back, the camera stops.

He turns, looking up.

MAX, carrying a pair of bolt cutters is hurrying towards him.

The MOHAWKER grabs for his crossbow.

- MAX'S foot stamps down, pinning his wrist...
Ssswish! the bolt cutters swing down... onto the Mohawker's head.

Tears stream down the COMPOUND MAN'S face.

As MAX walks up to him we see that he is bleeding badly. His name is NATHAN.

NATHAN

Thank you. Thank you...
I...

MAX

Let's get this straight.
I'm doing it 'cos I need fuel.

NATHAN

As much as you want. Take me back... Don't let me die.

MAX takes the bolt cutters and inserts them between the man and the panel. He cuts away the first arrow, then the second.

WIPE.

41. INT. BLACK-ON-BLACK. DAY.

41.

The supercharger screams as MAX races towards the compound.

NATHAN is slipping into unconsciousness.

MAX grabs him by the shoulder, shaking him.

MAX

Stay alive!
Stay alive!

Angle down on the plain.

- . The black-on-black approaches the burnt out huts.

A GAYBOY BERSERKER stands up into frame in the extreme foreground.

He is joined by TWO OTHER MARAUDERS.

The GAYBOY BERSERKER grabs a hand-mirror and flashes a signal across the wasteland.

From a far hill, we see the answering flash.

43. THE PLOUGHED FIELD. DAY. 43.

Crane down from a high angle on the black-on-black as it approaches the camp. As the camera achieves a smouldering hut we see a small animal-like figure stalking the vehicle.

Tracking closer we see that it is a wild-looking child, about 8 years old. He is dressed in dog skins and carries a chrome boomerang. On one hand he wears what looks like a catcher's mitt: a leather glove reinforced with steel plates. This is the FERAL KID.

Before we get too close the boy scurries into a large rabbit warren.

44. THE CAUSEWAY LEADING TO THE COMPOUND. DAY. 44.

Long low angle on the compound. Its defenders wait on the barricades, the cracking tower and the catwalk.

The black car stops just outside crossbow range - about twenty yards short of the compound.

In extreme foreground, the FERAL BOY'S head pops up from another rabbit hole closer to the compound.

He ducks down out of sight when the car door opens.

High angle on MAX as he steps out of the car with NATHAN across his shoulders.

MAX carries no weapons and as he steps up to camera, he raises his arms high...

A woman on the barricade begins screaming. Her name is BIG REBECCA.

BIG REBECCA

Nathan! Nathan! It's Nathan.

A man on the catwalk orders the gate to be opened.

MAX hurries along the causeway...

The FERAL KID comes out of the rabbit warren and begins to follow MAX.

A trail of blood drips from the injured man onto the causeway...

As MAX approaches the camp the old yellow school bus is pulled aside.

The WARRIOR WOMAN emerges, crossbow ready, keeping it trained on MAX.

She is followed by another defender - the MECHANIC'S ASSISTANT - pulling a strange mechanised crane. Suspended from the front of this machine is a paraplegic. He is the MECHANIC.

They pass MAX, heading for the car, revealing BIG REBECCA, distraught, running towards him.

BIG REBECCA

Nathan! God have mercy..
What a waste.

She wipes the man's face, caressing him, as MAX walks on.

She turns and looks straight at the camp's leader, PAPPAGALLO. He is standing at the gate, surrounded by anxious defenders.

BIG REBECCA

Look at your handiwork!
They didn't have a chance...

One of the group at the gate - a nuggety old man called the CURMUDGEON - plays to the crowd, pointing at PAPPAGALLO:

THE CURMUDGEON

You all heard me. I warned him didn't I? Madness, I said.

As the DEFENDERS part to let MAX through we see the group includes: a teenage couple - PISMO and ANGIE - holding each other tight; a woman BUTCHER, holding a knife and a rabbit; a middle aged man who looks like a FARMER; and a LUSTY young girl chewing her finger nails.

WARRIOR WOMAN

Pity your name wasn't pulled out the hat.

CURMUDGEON

We can escape, take our petrol,
he said.

How? I said.

Get a prime mover, he said...

He points to NATHAN who is being carried to an old bread van. The rear door is open, revealing two hospital-style beds, drip stands and shelves of medical supplies. An injured camp member occupies one of the beds.

CURMUDGEON

...And there's the result!
Madness I said!

PAPPAGALLO ignores him, addressing MAX:

PAPPAGALLO

Where did you find him?

MAX

Two, three miles away... left for dead... next to his car.
We made a deal.

In the background the FARMER starts to work the first arrow out of NATHAN'S chest.

BIG REBECCA comforts him.

PAPPAGALLO

Three other vehicles.
Did you see them?

MAX

Running hard to the south west. In heaps of trouble.

Listen: he said if I brought him in, you'd give me gas.

There's no time...

An anxious young man pushes through the crowd, talking over MAX. This is the QUIET MAN.

QUIET MAN

There was a woman...
in the car...

MAX looks straight at him.

MAX

She's dead.

The man struggles to keep hold of his emotions.

QUIET MAN

How? What did they do?

MAX

It was quick.

The QUIET MAN bows his head and turns away.
NATHAN groans. ANGIE has the clear plastic mask of an air viva device over NATHAN'S face. PISMO pumps air into his lungs.

MAX turns to PAPPAGALLO:

MAX

I saw a man in trouble. I brought him in. And now I just want to get out of here.
Give me my gas.

Sc. 45. Cont.

WARRIOR WOMAN

For all we know, he's one of them.

Give him nothing.

There's an ugly murmur of agreement.

MAX, keeping his temper, talks to PAPPAGALLO:

MAX

We had a contract...

The FARMER succeeds in removing the first arrow.
BIG REBECCA relaxes

NATHAN sputters. Blood sprays into the plastic mask.
BIG REBECCA screams. The FERAL KID looks on as the FARMER feels for a pulse: nothing.

PAPPAGALLO turns to MAX:

PAPPAGALLO

I don't know who you are,
or what happened.

But if you had a contract, it was with him. And it died with him.

PAPPAGALLO turns on his heel and walks through the crowd, back towards his tent.

The WARRIOR WOMAN puts a bow to MAX'S temple and shoves him towards the gate.

46. COMPOUND. MAX IS MARCHED TO THE GATE. DAY.

46.

THE FERAL KID, following MAX, laughs.
The DOG snarls at the boy.

As the crowd parts, MAX sees that the black-on-black is being winched through the gate.

Sc. 46. Cont...

The MECHANIC supervises the work.

MAX stiffens, furious...

WARRIOR WOMAN prods him with the bow:

WARRIOR WOMAN
Be thankful, you're still alive.

She pushes him past the car.

The DOG trained to protect the vehicle begins to growl. The MECHANIC turns to MAX:

MECHANIC
I gotta hand it to you.
Some machine...

He holds up the detonators and fuse wire.

MECHANIC
Would've been a shame to blow it up.

The last of the pursuit specials. It's history, that's what it is. A piece of history...

The MECHANIC runs an affectionate hand along the bonnet of the car.

The DOG flies at him as he touches the car. The DOG'S jaws clamp onto his useless legs threatening to topple him from his mechanical "crane".

The MECHANIC'S ASSISTANT turns, wielding a tyre iron, about to batter the DOG to death...

MAX grabs his arm, wrenching the tyre iron from his hand...
other men raise their weapons...

The head of a crossbow arrow cuts into MAX'S neck.
The DOG, MAX and the camp people are frozen, waiting for the next move.

WARRIOR WOMAN, holding the other end of the bow, motions him forward.

Slowly MAX bends and gathers up the DOG.

MAX
It's OK, Dog. Just do as they say...

His words are lost in the wail of a siren. A guard perched in the watch tower shouts a warning.

The yellow school bus roars across, closing the entrance.

47. THE BATTLEMENTS. DAY.

47.

The compound people run to their positions on the battlements.

A pair of manacles are locked around MAX'S wrists.

WARRIOR WOMAN climbs to a big crossbow mounted above the causeway.

The BUTCHER drops her knife and grabs her long bow. The rabbit on the chopping block leaps for safety.

PAPPAGALLO mans the flame thrower. Others draw their bows.

The FERAL KID follows the rabbit down a hole at the foot of the battlement.

As MAX climbs to a position on the battlements near WARRIOR WOMAN and PAPPAGALLO he sees that the MARAUDER HORDE has gathered in all its glory.

48. NO MAN'S LAND. DAY.

The MARAUDERS rumble in formation over the rise:

At their head is the Humungus machine surrounded by a guard consisting of WEZ and his GOLDEN YOUTH on a bike, a tow truck with TWO SKIN HEADS, a road racer with THREE GAY BOY BERSERKERS and a dune buggy with TWO SMEGMA CRAZIES.

As the advance guard approaches through the dust and heat haze we see that SIX NEAR NAKED AND BLOODIED PEOPLE are lashed to the front of the vehicles.

At the big crossbow, the WARRIOR WOMAN aims at the Humungus machine. One of the TWO VICTIMS, tied to the front of the Humungus machine, is screaming above the awesome rumble of machines and sirens...

THE BROKEN VICTIM

Hold your fire. He wants to talk... he comes in peace... for Godsake! Hold your fire...

49. THE BATTLEMENTS. DAY.

49.

The camp people moan as they recognise the victims.

PAPPAGALLO holds up his hand, stopping the WARRIOR WOMAN from firing.

The MECHANIC cranes himself up into view next to MAX:

MECHANIC

Poor mongrels... not one got through.

BIG REBECCA sobs. The QUIET MAN puts a comforting hand on her shoulder.

PISMO and ANGIE huddle closer together.

50. NO MAN'S LAND. DAY.

50.

The vanguard of 5 vehicles stops on the causeway, just out of range.

MAX and WEZ look across no man's land, recognising each other. WEZ grins, a gold tooth flashing.

The TOADIE, a comically dressed Marauder perched on the top of the Humungus vehicle, waves his arms. The Marauders cut their motors... Silence.

The TOADIE announces:

TOADIE

Greetings from the Lord Humungus
The Warrior of the Wasteland!
The Ayatollah of Rock and Roller.

Camera cranes up to the HUMUNGUS as he rises in his seat. His voice is amplified by two loudspeakers mounted to the roll cage of his vehicle:

HUMUNGUS

I am told you wish to take the gasolene out of the wasteland...

The SECOND VICTIM lashed onto the Humungus vehicle shouts in defiance:

DEFIANT VICTIM

Shoot! Shoot him! While you've got the chance...

The TOADIE takes the wind out of him with an elbow to the stomach...

The FERAL KID watches from a rabbit warren near a burnt out hut.

The HUMUNGUS continues...

HUMUNGUS

You set out this morning to find a vehicle. A vehicle strong enough to haul that fat tank of gas...

Suddenly, the escaped rabbit runs from a hole in the barricade and out into the wasteland. WEZ whirls his arm around... thud!... the rabbit falls dead from a crossbow bolt.

The FERAL KID eases back down into his hole.

The TOADIE bellows:

TOADIE

You see! There is no escape.
The Humungus rules the wasteland...

DEFIANT VICTIM

Don't give them the gas!
Blow it up!

WEZ leaps from his bike and head-butts the man into unconsciousness. The BROKEN VICTIM sobs uncontrollably.

The FERAL BOY runs from his hole, screaming. He lets fly with the chrome boomerang...

The projectile whistles past WEZ'S head and returns to the KID.

He reaches up and - clunk! catches it in his steel plated mitten.

The MARAUDERS roar with laughter.

The FERAL KID throws the boomerang again...

WEZ ducks and it buries itself into the head of the GOLDEN YOUTH.

The MARAUDERS are dumbstruck.

51. THE BATTLEMENTS. DAY.

51.

The MECHANIC grimaces.

The rest of the DEFENDERS are silent.

MAX is impressed.

52. NO MAN'S LAND. DAY.

52.

WEZ bends over the GOLDEN YOUTH and pulls the weapon from his skull.

He hurls it at the FERAL KID.

The boomerang whistles across the ground... the KID throws himself down into the hole... the boomerang arcs and returns to WEZ... out of his reach.

The TOADIE runs forward...

TOADIE
I got it! I got it!

He reaches up to catch it...

Then falls to his knees clutching his bleeding fingerless hand.

The HUMUNGUS and MARAUDERS roar with laughter.

WEZ, bellowing with rage, leaps up onto the HUMUNGUS vehicle. He hits the ignition, yelling:

WEZ
There's been enough talk.
I'm going in!

Powerful arms encircle him from behind. WEZ is lifted bodily from the seat.

The HUMUNGUS reaches over and cuts the ignition and the P.A. system.

53. THE BATTLEMENTS. DAY.

53.

The CAMP PEOPLE ease back on their weapons...

MAX is concentrating on his manacles, starting to use a small file to pick the lock.

54. THE HUMUNGUS VEHICLE. DAY.

54.

Maintaining his vicious hold on WEZ the HUMUNGUS hisses soothingly in his ear.

HUMUNGUS
Be still my dog of war, I understand your pain. We've all lost someone we love...

But, we do it my way.
Fear is our ally.

Later, you can have your revenge.

WEZ tries to break free but still he cannot move.

The HUMUNGUS reaches over and flicks on the P.A. System.

HUMUNGUS

There has been too much violence
... too much pain. None here is without sin.

But, I have an honourable compromise.

Give me the gasoline and I'll spare your lives. Just walk away. I will give you safe passage in the wasteland...

Walk away and there will be an end to the horror...

He hits the ignition, eases WEZ aside and turns the vehicle around...

HUMUNGUS

You have one full day to decide!!

The TOADIE jumps on board as the HUMUNGUS leads the HORDE back over the rise.

As the vehicles rumble away, the FERAL BOY retrieves his bloodied boomerang and scurries back into his hole.

55. INSIDE THE COMPOUND. DAY.

55.

The QUIET MAN fires his long bow at the departing
MARAUDERS: the arrow falls well short, unnoticed.
He yells after them:

QUIET MAN

We'll never walk away. Never!

BIG REBECCA grabs him by the shoulder.

BIG REBECCA

Don't be a fool! It's our only chance...

She turns to the other defenders:

BIG REBECCA

It's simple... we trade the gas for our lives.

WARRIOR WOMAN

No! We've worked too hard.

FARMER

Walk out there? They'd slaughter us... run us down for sport.

BIG REBECCA plays to the crowd.

BIG REBECCA

Don't listen to them! It's bad enough the lunatics are running the asylum. Don't let 'em throw away the key.

56. THE BATTLEMENTS. MAX AND THE FERAL BOY. DAY.

56.

While the CAMP PEOPLE argue, MAX sits forgotten - the manacles unlocked now, dangling from one wrist.

He produces the hurdy-gurdy he found on the bloated man and plays the first few notes of "Happy Birthday".

From the hole under MAX, the FERAL KID appears wiping his boomerang. He is attracted by the noise.

MAX plays the next few notes faster.

The FERAL KID grins.

More notes - very fast.

The FERAL KID laughs.

Several people at the back of the CROWD, including WARRIOR WOMAN, turn around to look. MAX holds the manacles up so that she can see that he's free.

She glares at him as he goes back to turning the hurdy-gurdy.

The argument continues.

PISMO and ANGIE are quietly bickering.

- The CURMUDGEON pushes past them heading towards the gate.

He has a Gladstone bag in his hand and a collection of car parts and personal effects tucked under his arm.

CURMUDGEON

It'll be alright. I'll talk to this Humungus.

He'd never hurt an asthmatic old man.

The LUSTY GIRL is joining him... The MECHANIC turns to her.

MECHANIC

I'm sure they'll find a use for you.

LUSTY

I'd rather be out there, on my back alive, than in here, on my back dead.

BIG REBECCA

He promised us safe passage. He gave his word.

PAPPAGALLO'S VOICE

And just suppose he keeps it...

The DEFENDERS turn to PAPPAGALLO, standing on the battlement:

PAPPAGALLO

...and we walk out of here with our lives. What then? Do we wander the wasteland - scavenging. Wake up one morning and find we're just like them - savages.

He points in the direction of the MARAUDERS.

PAPPAGALLO

Is that what you want? I don't.

PAPPAGALLO Cont.

I came out here and I found that pump. I built that plant and ploughed that field. Why?

Because we are human beings.

We must maintain our dignity.
We are not barbarians...

The crowd is silent...

I made one mistake - I waited too long... thinking we could survive here. We can't. But, as frightened as we all are - let's not forget one thing.

He points to the tanker of fuel propped up next to the cracking plant...

That is more than just a tank of fuel. It's our lifeline, our passport to a place beyond the reach of men on machines.

He talks over several protesting voices...

No! I don't know how we're gonna get there. But the first step is to defend that fuel.

I won't surrender it to anyone.
I stay! Alone if I have to...

BIG REBECCA

Words! Just words. You're going to die, for a pipedream.

BIG REBECCA moves over to join the CURMUDGEON and the LUSTY GIRL.

WARRIOR WOMAN

No! We're going to fight for a belief - I stay!

LUSTY looks straight at PAPPAGALLO.

Sc. 57. Cont...

LUSTY

I really wished it had worked.
I'm sorry.

The MECHANIC'S ASSISTANT starts to push the MECHANIC'S contraption towards the CURMUDGEON'S GROUP, but the MECHANIC resists, grabbing onto the catwalk.

The ASSISTANT leaves him there.

ANGIE takes the ASSISTANT'S place and pushes the MECHANIC'S contraption over to PAPPAGALLO'S side.

ANGIE

We stay!

PISMO is left hesitating in the middle. After a terrible moment of indecision he joins ANGIE.

The camp is now divided, mostly against PAPPAGALLO. The two groups stare across at each other solemnly...

A voice is heard from the battlements....

MAX

Two days ago I saw a vehicle that'd haul that tanker.

All eyes turn to MAX.

MAX

You wanna get out of here.
You talk to me.

58. INT. PAPPAGALLO'S TENT. DUSK.

58.

MAX faces PAPPAGALLO across a desk littered with plans and equipment.

WARRIOR WOMAN, BIG REBECCA, the FARMER and the MECHANIC listen in.

Sc. 58. Cont...

MAX

So that's my offer. I deliver a prime mover - in return you give me my black car and as much gas as I can carry.

All I need right now is three jerry cans of diesel and five gallons of petroleum.

They look at him quizzically.

Think of it as a down payment.

WARRIOR WOMAN

That's the last we'll ever see of him.

BIG REBECCA

What have we got to lose?

PAPPAGALLO nods.

WIPE.

59. THE COMPOUND DITCH - THE BRIDGE OF WRECKS. NIGHT.

59.

From the battlement, PAPPAGALLO watches as MAX, accompanied by the DOG, emerges from a hole in the wall. MAX has a pole across his shoulders, supporting four jerry cans of fuel.

MAX'S knee brace squeaks in the stillness.

The MECHANIC throws him a small can. MAX squirts a stream of oil onto the metal and then moves off across the bridge of wrecks, built by the Mohawk Bikers the day before.

The FERAL KID watches with other camp people as MAX and the DOG move out into the night.

60. NO MAN'S LAND. NIGHT.

60.

MAX emerges from the ditch, the heavy load weighing him down. Behind him, the searchlight from the compound plays over the wilderness. Ahead, he sees the glow of the Marauders' campfires.

He moves forward silently.

Picking his way carefully across rugged ground, MAX skirts close to a large campfire.

Around it, a GROUP OF MARAUDERS are carousing: some are laughing loudly at a VICTIM strung up to a beam by his wrists. A bottle passes among the MARAUDERS. In the shadows, lit by the flickering flame, a MOHAWK BIKER fondles TWO CAMP FOLLOWERS.

Closest to MAX a GAYBOY BERSERKER hones his machete on a whetstone.

MAX skirts round him, not taking his eyes off him. Suddenly MAX'S leg gives way, caught in a rabbit hole. He pitches forward, the jerry cans thumping together.

The GAYBOY BERSERKER pivots... listening... knife ready.

MAX is spread-eagled on the ground. The DOG curls its lip. The GAYBOY BERSERKER walks towards MAX, his eyes searching the darkness...

There is a loud barking! MAX looks up...

On a rabbit warren close by, the FERAL KID sits on his haunches, howling like a wild dog.

The GAYBOY BERSERKER takes a rock and throws it, cursing all howling dogs, and returns to the camp.

The FERAL KID motions for MAX to follow. Keeping low, MAX limps forward.

The FERAL KID stops at the edge of the gully and indicates the direction for MAX to take. He grins at MAX and runs off into the night, back the way he came.

MAX drops down into the gully heading away from the Marauders' camp.

DISSOLVE.

MAX climbs up to the spot where he left the GYRO CAPTAIN. Gone!... Just the canopy, a dog food can and a freshly-dug hole where the tree stump used to be. A clear trail, gouged in the dirt, leads back towards the sand dune country. The DOG sniffs and lopes off...

64. A CLAY PAN. DAY.

64.

MAX and the DOG crest a rise at the edge of the pan. About a hundred yards ahead, out on the clay, is the CAPTAIN, still dragging the tree stump behind him.

The DOG growls.

The CAPTAIN turns to see MAX. He picks up the log and tries to run.

65. THE WASTELAND. DAY.

65.

The sun is much higher in the sky. The CAPTAIN has been freed from the tree stump and now carries the jerry cans, coolie-like, across his shoulders.

66. THE DUNES. DAY.

66.

The three travellers stagger over the dune. The gyro copter is intact though the kite now rests face down on the sand. At the crest of the dune they see the body of a lone Marauder. Foot and tyre prints tell the story. Crossing the dunes in his buggy, he happened across the gyrocopter. He left his buggy, walked down to the abandoned gyrocopter and fell victim to the snake. He staggered around in circles before slumping face down in the sand.

The CAPTAIN lets out a whoop as he and MAX half stumble, half run towards the body.

CAPTAIN

I knew it. I knew it'd work.
Lethal, those snakes. Lethal.
Born killers. The snake's fangs, my brains. Lethal I tell ya ...

The CAPTAIN stops, staring down at the body of the snake, its head crushed.

Quickly he picks it up and begins to skin it, muttering.

Sc. 66. Cont...

CAPTAIN

Don't think you're gonna get any of this. Cos you're not. It was my snake. I found it. I trained it. And I'm gonna eat it.

Keeping the gun trained on the CAPTAIN, MAX rummages through the MARAUDER'S clothes. He finds a necklace of spark plugs, bolts, teeth and two old shotgun cartridges.

MAX removes the two cartridges. One crumbles apart. The second, although dog-eared, remains intact.

The GYRO CAPTAIN looks up as MAX cracks open the shotgun - both barrels are empty.

MAX shoves the dog-eared cartridge into the barrel and snaps the shotgun shut.

The GYRO CAPTAIN gasps:

CAPTAIN

You mean? All this time?
Jesus, that's dishonest!

MAX nudges the CAPTAIN towards the gyrocopter.

The CAPTAIN stands fast, eyeing the shotgun...

CAPTAIN

How do we know that one's not a dud.

MAX

There's only one way to find out.

He lifts the barrel to the CAPTAIN'S head. The CAPTAIN moves off towards the gyrocopter.

67. SAND DUNES - GYROCOPTER. DAY.

67.

One jerry can lies discarded by the gyro. MAX, with the DOG on his lap, is settled on the chassis, the three remaining cans strapped on beside him. A flurry of sand whips back from the propellor.

The gyro, unaccustomed to the extra weight, lumbers across the sand and slowly rises into the sky.

The bloated fly-blown corpse of the driver lies next to the abandoned road rig.

The bonnet of the prime mover is up and MAX is working on the engine.

A chain passes from the bull bar up into the cabin where the CAPTAIN sits behind the wheel, muttering into a handkerchief.

The DOG watches him carefully.

MAX yanks on the chain.

The GYRO CAPTAIN tests the motor: nothing.

After two more attempts it splutters to life.

DISSOLVE.

The prime mover, disconnected from the rest of the rig, stands in the middle of the road.

MAX is in the cabin with the DOG, the engine running.

The GYRO CAPTAIN looks up at him, rattling his chains.

GYRO CAPTAIN
You can't just dump me!
Think of us as partners.

MAX tosses him a set of keys, shouting over the engine.

MAX
It's up to you. Fly a kite, or follow me back. Maybe they'll throw some gas your way.

MAX eases the prime mover down the road:

Sc. 69. Cont...

69. Cont.

69.

The GYRO CAPTAIN, struggling to unlock his manacles, yells after him:

GYRO CAPTAIN
What sort of deal's that?!
I'm running on empty!

WIPE.

70. THE LONELY HIGHWAY. DAY.

70.

MAX hurls the prime mover down the long empty highway, eating up the miles.

WIPE.

71. HILL CREST NEAR PINNACLES. DAY.

71.

The prime mover crests a hill. In the distance MAX can see the pinnacles surrounding the camp. He checks his shotgun on the seat beside him. MAX tramps the accelerator. The DOG climbs under the seat. The back wheels burn rubber as the prime mover thunders down the road...

Suddenly the gyrocopter zooms over the rise behind him spluttering and coughing like he's running out of gas.

72. SIDE OF ROAD NEAR THE PINNACLES. DAY.

72.

In the Marauders' camp a MOHAWKER is shaving WEZ'S head. At the sound of the approaching prime mover, WEZ leaps to his feet, clambers over a tow truck on blocks and straddles his bike...

Other MARAUDERS follow as we track to a SKINHEAD lying under the tow truck making noisy repairs.

MAX hurls the prime mover towards the rise above the compound.

A dune buggy comes up alongside the rear passenger wheel. The SMEGMA CRAZY riding shotgun fires a crossbow arrow into a tyre... which explodes.

WEZ appears on the road ahead as a road racer rockets from out of the scrub in front of the prime mover.

MAX shunts it back off the road and into the rear of the tow truck on blocks.

The tow truck crashes down, pinning the SKINHEAD beneath it.

74. A RISE ABOVE THE COMPOUND. DAY.

74.

The HUMUNGUS - his vehicle sitting in the middle of the road - turns at the sound of the crash.

75. THE GYROCOPTER. (HELICOPTER MOUNT). DAY.

75.

The gyrocopter sputters along, staying out of range of the MARAUDERS.

The CAPTAIN is shouting advice and instructions from the sidelines:

GYRO CAPTAIN
Watch your tyres! Turn left!

Down over the CAPTAIN'S shoulder we see WEZ'S bike coming alongside the prime mover's rear wheels on the driver's side.

76. THE ROAD APPROACHING THE RISE. DAY.

WEZ lifts his feet onto the saddle, steadies himself and leaps onto the back of the prime mover.

As the vehicle crests the rise, MAX sees the camp below. He yanks the air horn lanyard...

11. INSIDE THE COMPOUND. DAY. 11.
PAPPAGALLO'S people turn at the sound. From the cracking tower PAPPAGALLO shouts:

PAPPAGALLO
Open the gate!!

The FERAL KID, astride the pump, is on his feet...

BIG REBECCA runs to the yellow school bus...

78. ON THE RISE ABOVE THE COMPOUND - HUMUNGUS VEHICLE. 78.
DAY.

...The HUMUNGUS raises the magnum .44 aiming directly at the oncoming prime mover...

79. THE RISE ABOVE THE COMPOUND. DAY. 79.

On seeing this MAX grabs the shotgun, shoves it through the smashed front window of the truck and fires...

The gun fizzes and pops - the cartridge was a dud.
MAX ducks and yanks down hard on the wheel...

The HUMUNGUS fires. The big gun kicks...

The front of the prime mover bursts with steam and hot oil.

The big machine careers off the road, and through a primitive tent. As the canvas rips away... we glimpse two startled MARAUDERS in the throes of heterosexual love.

MAX recovers, the big machine keeps going, rocketing down the hill 400 yards from the causeway...

Suddenly a powerful arm bursts through the driver's window... and grabs MAX around the throat - it's WEZ!

The DOG attacks WEZ, clamping his jaw around his gauntlet.

WEZ pulls the DOG out the window and flicks his arm.

The DOG sails through the air...

MAX rams his elbow into WEZ'S face.

The big biker holds on, tightening his grip.

A dune buggy with a machine gun like crossbow - the 4-pak - fires four bolts into the tyres. All but one tyre on the driver's side blow out.

As the prime mover charges past, we track with the Lone Wolf, who drives a two-engined assault car.

He yells to other Marauders behind:

LONE WOLF
The gate's open!
Follow me in!

A street car and a dune buggy surge up beside him.

In the background we see the DOG, running along the road, trying to catch up to the tanker.

The GYRO CAPTAIN curses and screams.

GYRO CAPTAIN
Don't lose it now!
We need the fuel!

The CAPTAIN grabs whatever he can find - the two jerry cans and his chains and throws them at the chase below.

Two of the objects fall across the path of the on-rushing street car ... the third smashes into the vehicle's windscreen - to no avail, the vehicle continues in the chase to the causeway... converging on the prime mover.

The 4-pak dune buggy surges up to the driver's side wheels... The SMEGMA CRAZIE has reloaded the crossbow and is taking aim on the critical last tyre.

83. THE AIRBORNE GYROCOPTER.
DAY.

83.

The GYRO CAPTAIN is reaching down into a sack...
He pulls out two snakes. Clamping their jaws shut he kisses them goodbye and hurls them down...

84. THE APPROACH TO THE CAUSEWAY. DAY.

84.

...The snakes land in the 4-pak dune buggy - one of them between the DRIVER'S legs. Perplexed, he reaches down for it... pulling it up to look...

He screams... the snake has its fangs in his hand...

85. THE CAUSEWAY. DAY.

85.

The 4-pak dune buggy swerves out of control... up and over the back of the prime mover... and onto the street car. Locked together, both vehicles tumble down into the ditch.

In the cabin of the truck MAX smashes the butt of the shotgun into WEZ'S face, again and again. WEZ just grins.

86. THE COMPOUND GATE. DAY.

86.

The prime mover thunders through the gate.
PAPPAGALLO and WARRIOR WOMAN take their positions on the battlements...

As soon as the prime mover clears the gate BIG REBECCA plants her foot on the accelerator of the school bus/gate. The Lone Wolf vehicle and the dune buggy just make it inside.

The DOG scampers through the rapidly closing gap.

A road racer slides up to the gate.

The DRIVER looks up... to see PAPPAGALLO aiming the flame thrower down at him... He slams the vehicle into reverse...

PAPPAGALLO sends the torrent of flames down on the retreating vehicle... as HUMUNGUS and the OTHER MARAUDERS hover at the entrance of the causeway...

88. INSIDE THE COMPOUND - THE CATWALK AREA. DAY.

88.

The prime mover slides to a halt underneath a catwalk.

As SEVERAL CAMP PEOPLE run towards him, WEZ swings up onto the roof of the prime mover and onto the catwalk.

The two Marauder vehicles stop in the middle of the compound.

MAX jumps out of the prime mover assessing the situation. In addition to WEZ there are FOUR MARAUDERS inside the compound: the LONE WOLF, the LONE WOLF'S PASSENGER and TWO SMEGMA CRAZIES.

89. THE BATTLEMENTS. DAY.

89.

Under the direction of the HUMUNGUS - HALF A DOZEN MARAUDERS come surging up the causeway on foot. PAPPAGALLO stands up on the very limit of the battlement and scares them off with a burst of flame.

A MARAUDER fires an arrow...

...PAPPAGALLO is hit high up in the thigh. He tumbles backwards, off the parapet and crashes to the ground below.

90. INSIDE THE COMPOUND - THE CRACKING TOWER. DAY.

90.

Up on the catwalk WEZ is shouting at the FOUR OTHER INVADERS.

WEZ
The gate! The gate! Move!!

MAX looks around as the LONE WOLF, the LONE WOLF PASSENGER and the TWO SMEGMA CRAZIES start to sprint across the compound towards the gate...

Thud! The LONE WOLF PASSENGER falls dead - an arrow in his back...

WEZ spins around to see the QUIET MAN, standing on the cooling tower, reloading his bow.

WEZ starts running towards him.

91. INSIDE THE COMPOUND. DAY.

91.

With the help of the DOG, MAX tackles the FIRST SMEGMA CRAZY who is running towards the gate. They land at the foot of the pump. The FERAL BOY, bouncing up and down on top of the pump looks down gleefully, as the FARMER, the BUTCHER and the CURMUDGEON descend on the MARAUDER.

MAX is on his feet running towards PAPPAGALLO, as the second SMEGMA CRAZY is hit by the MECHANIC flying on the end of his lattice-arm contraption. ANGIE and PISMC, manning the other end, smile with satisfaction.

92. INSIDE THE COMPOUND - THE CRACKING TOWER. DAY.

WEZ confronts the QUIET MAN who has his bow drawn...

The QUIET MAN fires - WEZ ducks - missed!

WEZ grins. The QUIET MAN is paralysed by indecision. WEZ is on him... head-butts him - once, twice, three times.

The QUIET MAN'S face is a torrent of blood as WEZ throws him off the cooling platform.

The QUIET MAN lands, groaning, badly injured.

93. FROM INSIDE THE BUS. DAY.

93.

The LONE WOLF has made it to the gate and smashes his way through the window - clawing at BIG REBECCA. She shoves a boot in his face as WARRIOR WOMAN drops onto him from the battlement above and buries a knife blade in his neck.

MAX has picked up PAPPAGALLO'S flame thrower.
PAPPAGALLO watches as he climbs the battlements.

A DOZEN MARAUDERS are charging up the causeway.

MAX appears above them... spraying fire. The MARAUDERS retreat...

WEZ grabs a cable and swings from the catwalk across the cracking tower to Pappagallo's 'dinosaur tent'.
He slides down the tent, leaps onto some tyres, onto a storage tank and then onto the tanker...

He hesitates a moment looking for some way to get to the gate...

The WHOLE CAMP turns to confront him.

He ducks, the gyrocopter swoops down over his head and lands in the centre of the compound...

An arrow flies past WEZ, then the Feral Kid's boomerang
... he decides to call it quits.

Running along the top of the tanker, he leaps the barbed wire fence.

WEZ lands in the ditch.

He clambers over a wreck out of the ditch and out of range.

The GYRO CAPTAIN is up on the tanker, throwing a stick and shaking his fist at the MARAUDERS - putting on a show for the jubilant compound people.

Several people shake hands with the GYRO CAPTAIN.

The FERAL KID watches, puzzled, intrigued by this strange ritual.

The MECHANIC is already examining the damage to the prime mover.

PAPPAGALLO is propped up against the base of the battlement. BIG REBECCA and the WARRIOR WOMAN tend his thigh wound.

PAPPAGALLO
OK! OK! Let's go.
We leave tonight!

The MECHANIC lifts his head out of the engine:

MECHANIC
We got a hole through the radiator - into the timing case.

Gonna take at least 24 hours.

PAPPAGALLO
You've got twelve.

The crowd disperses.

The QUIET MAN is carried to the bread van/medical centre; the bodies are removed; camp members load vehicles; men are working on the tanker.

WARRIOR WOMAN climbs onto the battlement.

98. THE BATTLEMENTS. DAY.

98.

The MARAUDERS have regrouped on the rise.

MAX is watching them, the flame thrower in his hands, as the WARRIOR WOMAN approaches him:

WARRIOR WOMAN
I want you to know... that was a very brave thing you did...

He doesn't reply - just hands her the flame thrower and descends the ladder.

BIG REBECCA has just pulled the arrow out of PAPPAGALLO'S leg as MAX moves into view.

PAPPAGALLO watches him walk towards the black-on-black - its nose poking out of the pyramid workshop.

As MAX passes the gyrocopter we see the GYRO CAPTAIN in conversation with the CURMUDGEON.

CURMUDGEON

...and tell me, son, this machine of yours - it takes two ... does it?

The GYRO CAPTAIN glances over the CURMUDGEON'S shoulder at LUSTY who is admiring the gyrocopter.

GYRO CAPTAIN

... er... possibly.

The FERAL KID steps forward, holding his hand out stiffly to MAX.

MAX hesitates, then shakes it briefly. The KID laughs - he finds this hand shaking-business hilarious.

As MAX moves on to the pyramid workshop, the FERAL KID follows in his footsteps, mimicing his squeaky, stiff-legged gait.

Through the maze of pipes in the peak of the pyramid, we have a high angle down on MAX working on the black-on-black below.

The FERAL KID comes into view in the foreground, climbing along the pipes.

The KID is softly humming a tune - approximating the first few notes of "Happy Birthday".

On the workshop floor a small siphon pump is transferring fuel from a 44 gallon drum into the black-on-black's fuel tanks.

MAX is re-arming the booby traps - connecting a string of wires and fuses to the gas tank caps. His utility belt and jacket are off and he has laid his personal effects on a nearby work bench.

In the background, through the arched doorway we see the MECHANIC and his TEAM working on the truck with arc welders, lights and so on.

MAX locks up:

The CURMUDGEON is leading PAPPAGALLO into the workshop.

CURMUDGEON

See! I told ya. I said he was leaving.

High up in the pyramid the FERAL KID starts to swing down the pipes - towards the bench where MAX has laid his jacket and utility belt. On the floor, PAPPAGALLO confronts MAX:

PAPPAGALLO

I don't have time for thanks. You know what you did out there and what it means to us.

Come with us, MAX. Drive the tanker.

MAX continues to work - muffling the four exhausts by plugging them with rags.

MAX

We had a contract. I did my job, I got my car and I got my gas. End of story.

PAPPAGALLO

It doesn't have to be - we'll make a new contract. I can offer you a chance to rebuild your life. I can offer you a future.

The CURMUDGEON breaks in, excited.

CURMUDGEON

You gotta come. Look!

He produces a grubby souvenir postcard pack which bears the heading:

GREETINGS FROM THE SUNSHINE COAST

The FERAL KID's arm sneaks across the work bench - reaching out for the hurdy-gurdy.

MAX'S hand snaps out and clamps around the KID'S wrist. The FERAL KID drops the hurdy-gurdy. As MAX releases his grip the KID retreats into the shadows.

The CURMUDGEON unravels the postcard pictures in front of MAX'S face.

CURMUDGEON

This is where we're going.
Two thousand miles away.
Bloody paradise. Fresh water... plenty of sunshine... nothing to do but breed...

MAX starts to go back to his work.

PAPPAGALLO takes him by the shoulder.

PAPPAGALLO

What are you looking for out there? How long do you expect to survive, scavenging day to day?

You're no different than them...

He points in the direction of the Marauders...

...vultures, maggots.
Don't you see? There is a better way!

MAX flares at him, angry:

MAX

Yeah. I tried it once!
Now forget it, 'cos I never get involved.

I'm leaving. I leave tonight.

PAPPAGALLO is about to reply when a scream echoes through the camp.

They all turn to look: the men working on the prime mover are running towards the battlement.

An ominous drumming begins in the Marauders' camp.

PAPPAGALLO climbs onto part of the refinery's catwalk which is close to the workshop area.

SEVERAL OTHER CAMP MEMBERS, including the GYRO CAPTAIN, and LUSTY, are already there - looking across no-man's land.

The MARAUDERS are raising two tall poles. TWO OF THE CAMP MEMBERS captured that morning are nailed to the poles screaming.

PAPPAGALLO turns to MAX, who is still down at the black-on-black.

PAPPAGALLO

You see! That's the alternative!
Men feeding on men.

MAX goes back to work.

The GYRO CAPTAIN slips his arm around LUSTY'S shoulder.

GYRO CAPTAIN

I know you're afraid darlin'...
But I'll let you into a secret, sweetheart. I'm afraid too.

He squeezes her tight. She caresses his hand.

DISSOLVE.

Silhouetted against a large fire, near the two poles, a group of TWELVE MARAUDERS of various breeds beat out a tattoo on the panels of their cars. The HUMUNGUS watches as two more victims are raised on poles. The beat becomes more frenzied.

FADE TO BLACK.

Pouring with sweat, MAX tears up the first of a series of metal plates which form the floor of the workshop area.

He drags it across the compound, passing the MECHANIC'S TEAM working in a shower of sparks on the prime mover.

The MECHANIC looks up:

MECHANIC
Go on! Go! Just another mercenary!

He spits.

MAX ignores him, dragging the plate past Pappagallo's tent. It is crowded with CAMP PEOPLE, laying their plans for escape.

They fall silent, turning to watch MAX.

104. COMPOUND WALL. BRIDGE OF CARS. NIGHT.

104.

The black-on-black waits next to the fence, near the place where the Mohawkers attempted to build the "bridge of cars" across the ditch.

MAX has cut a hole in the barbed wire and is manouevring the metal plate on top of the first car - starting to build a ramp from the compound, over the top of the cars and onto the far side of the ditch.

DISSOLVE.

105. INSIDE THE COMPOUND. LATER THAT NIGHT.

105.

The HUMUNGUS has stepped up his theatrics of terror. His voice booms across the night - reciting dark poetic descriptions of death and hell.

The CAMP PEOPLE, gathered in Pappagallo's tent, watch as the GYRO CAPTAIN walks towards the spot where MAX is working. PAPPAGALLO sits at his desk, flicking an egg timer: the sand trickling from one end to the other.

MAX, who is locking the last metal plate into position, looks up at the GYRO CAPTAIN.

GYRO CAPTAIN

I just want you to know that
I don't agree with them.

He indicates the people in Pappagallo's tent.

GYRO CAPTAIN

I don't think you're a coward.
A bit stupid - but not a coward.

Where else you gonna find what we've got here?
Food... fuel... clean women.

MAX goes back to work, putting the finishing touches to the ramp.

GYRO CAPTAIN

Men, too, if that's your inclination.
Jesus! All we've got to do is get away from that Humungus. With you driving the tanker we can do it.
I know you can. I saw you out there. Stay with us
Max. Drive the tanker.

MAX gets up, shaking his head.

MAX

I haven't got time to explain.
Just believe me - I've got everything I want.

The CAPTAIN starts to interrupt but MAX cuts him short.

MAX

Good luck tomorrow.
I hope you make it.

MAX puts out his hand.

- The CAPTAIN, a little surprised, shakes hands with him.

GYRO CAPTAIN
Thanks. Thanks a lot.

The CAPTAIN walks back towards the GROUP watching from Pappagallo's tent. He shrugs his shoulders.

MAX opens the door of the black-on-black.

107. OUTSIDE THE COMPOUND. BRIDGE OF CARS. NIGHT.

107.

MAX eases the black car onto the metal plates.

The wide wheels rumble slowly across the makeshift bridge.

MAX revs the motor to get over the last hump, the plugs in the exhausts muffling the sound of the big engine.

The Humungus's bizarre ravings continue to boom across the wasteland.

108. THE WASTELAND NEAR THE COMPOUND. NIGHT.

108.

The black-on-black eases away from the compound.

The DOG is edgy, growling. MAX takes hold of his shotgun.

There is a thump! Something lands on the roof.

The DOG flies at the window snarling. MAX jams the barrel against the roof.

A face appears, leaning over the windscreen, peering in at MAX. It's the FERAL KID.

He grins and tumbles through the passenger's window.

He grabs hold of MAX'S hand, shaking it.

The FERAL KID laughs, settling in to the seat.

The car continues to roll forward.

MAX

Get out.
Scat! Go back.

The FERAL KID looks at him, puzzled, then throws his head back, howling.

MAX stops the car, looking round, nervous.

The first light of dawn appears on the horizon.

MAX turns to the FERAL KID:

MAX

You're a fine kid, but you can't come. You've gotta learn - don't get close to people. It can churn you up...

The KID can't understand a word, so just grins.

MAX thrusts his hand into his back pocket and produces the hurdy-gurdy.

He shoves it into the FERAL KID'S hands, opens the door and pushes him out.

109. THE WASTELAND. DAWN.

As the FERAL KID gets to his feet the black-on-black accelerates away, surging up the rise towards the Humungus encampment.

The rapid burst of power fires the four plugs out of the exhausts. The big engine roars.

110. THE RISE ABOVE THE COMPOUND. DAWN.

110.

WEZ springs to his feet. His face covered in a white war paint. His eyes searching out the darkness. He starts running... towards the Humungus machine.

Sc. 110. Cont...

110.

A GAYBOY BERSERKER is running with him. As they climb into the vehicle, the HUMUNGUS - sitting on a rock near the VICTIMS on the poles - gets to his feet.

He bellows with rage as WEZ drives the vehicle off in pursuit of Max. The TWO VICTIMS, still strapped to the front, lift their heads.

111. THE HUMUNGUS MACHINE. DAWN.

111.

From the Humungus machine WEZ sees six other vehicles stream across the landscape in pursuit of the black-on-black. (One tow truck, two dune buggies, two street cars and a bike).

The TOADIE emerges bewildered from where he has been sleeping under the fuel tanks of the Humungus machine.

112. A ROAD NEAR THE COMPOUND. DAWN.

112.

The black-on-black achieves the road...

The DOG is looking back through the passenger window as we see the first of the pursuing vehicles rumble onto the road...

MAX hits the supercharger switch...

The big engine whines up.

Once again, the DOG climbs down under the seat.

The Humungus machine rockets onto the road... and begins to overtake the other six Marauder vehicles one by one...

WIPE.

113. THE HIGHWAY. EARLY MORNING.

113.

MAX is giving the black-on-black all its got...

In the Humungus machine WEZ, the GAYBOY BERSERKER and the TOADIE have left the rest of the Marauders well behind...

The big machine seems to be encroaching on the black-on-black.

Sc. 113. Cont..

WEZ shouts instructions to the GAYBOY BERSERKER who comes to his side.

The GAYBOY BERSERKER slides behind the wheel as WEZ clambers forward onto the front of the vehicle.

The GAYBOY BERSERKER reaches down. His hand rests on a toggle switch next to three gas bottles marked:

NITROUS OXIDE

At the front of the vehicle WEZ grabs a huge exhaust pipe jutting into the air. In spite of the heat he tears the pipe off the mounting. He signals to the GAYBOY BERSERKER.

The GAYBOY BERSERKER flicks down the toggle switch: there is a mighty roar matched by a massive surge of power in the Humungus machine...

The TWO VICTIMS on the front scream... MAX is bewildered by the massive acceleration.

The Humungus machine leaps alongside the black-on-black.

WEZ swings the chrome pipe down through the front windscreen - into MAX'S face.

114. A CURVE IN THE HIGHWAY. MORNING.

114.

The black-on-black takes out a guide post and leaves the road... rolling over and over.

Inside the car MAX - his face bloodied - and the DOG are slammed around in the cabin of the black-on-black.

It continues rolling, over and over again, into a gully...

115. THE CREEK BED. MORNING.

115.

What is left of the car comes to rest, upside down, among the boulders of a dry creek bed. MAX is slumped, dangling in his harness - his face and body bloodied and broken. Somthing moves... it's the DOG pulling himself out of the wreckage. He licks and paws at MAX'S face. One eye flickers open.

WEZ stands looking down into the gully. Another vehicle has arrived. TWO GAYBOY BERSERKERS and the TOADIE scramble down towards the wreck carrying jerry cans.

WEZ

Don't waste him. If he's alive I want him.

117. THE CREEK BED. MORNING.

117.

By an enormous force of will, MAX frees himself from the harness and - as the sound of the Marauders approaches - pulls himself through the window of the wreck.

He falls to the ground, dragging his crippled body into the shadow of a large boulder, hiding there.

The DOG confronts the MARAUDERS, snarling, standing between them and the wreck.

One of the GAYBOY BERSERKERS raises his crossbow...

MAX watches, grim-faced, as the DOG falls dead.

The THREE MARAUDERS run to the vehicle.

While the TOADIE prepares to siphon off the gas, the other two peer into the crushed cabin.

Perplexed, they examine the wreck more closely, looking for MAX...

ONE of them sees the drag marks, leading down the creek bed.

He signals to the OTHER MARAUDER... MAX prepares to defend himself... the TOADIE prises the cap off the black car's fuel tank.

The booby trap explodes... the petrol ignites... the THREE MARAUDERS are engulfed by a giant fireball.

MAX looks past the flames, staring up at WEZ, not taking his eyes off him...

118. ROADSIDE. MORNING.

118.

WEZ and the OTHER MARAUDERS watch the great pillar of smoke rise up into the sky.

They return to their vehicles.

The GYRO CAPTAIN helps the LUSTY GIRL dismantle one of the small tents.

In the background we see the camp vehicles standing ready - fully loaded. The Mechanic's TEAM are still working on the prime mover.

As PISMO shouts from the tower, the GYRO CAPTAIN looks up to see the smoke from the wreck rising into the sky.

The GYRO CAPTAIN, mutters an oath and sprints towards his machine.

Foot by foot, MAX drags himself along the creekbed - heading for the compound. Blood seeps from wounds on his head and face. His legs are useless, his hands heavily bandaged with strips from his leather jacket.

Behind him, in the distance, we see the still-smouldering wreck of the black-on-black.

MAX struggles on, the pain growing, the sun climbing, the temperature soaring. His mind becomes more feverish: the wasteland dissolves into the heat haze; the buzz of the flies around his face becomes the steady drone of an engine.

The gyrocopter appears above him.

MAX, strapped to the chassis of the gyrocopter, drifts back to consciousness.

He sees the compound surging towards them as they come in to land.

He drifts back into unconsciousness, the images distorting, dissolving...

MAX'S eyes flicker open to a slow, distorted version of "Happy Birthday".

As he fights to make sense of his surroundings, we see that his wounds have been stitched and dressed.

He lifts his head, looking through the back door of the bread van.

is sitting on the roof of the van, playing the hurdy-gurdy

Then, beyond the KID, coming into clear focus, he sees the prime mover attached to the tanker.

The tanker now sports a 'cow-catcher' on the front, armour-plating on the bonnet, steel aprons on the wheels and a barbed wire net along each side.

MAX'S vision clears. He sees PAPPAGALLO on the catwalk addressing the CAMP PEOPLE.

MAX drops his head back and looks to one side: a bloated face stares back at him.

The QUIET MAN, is lying unconscious on a stretcher next to him.

MAX lifts his head urgently and looks around. He realises that he is in the bread van. The canopy has been removed and his stretcher is supported by a collection of 44 gallon drums.

123. INSIDE THE COMPOUND - THE CATWALK. DAY.

123.

PAPPAGALLO paces the catwalk as he gives final instructions to the CAMP PEOPLE gathered below.

PAPPAGALLO

We're going to use the tanker and the two assault vehicles to punch our way out of here.

If I'm right, they'll all go after the tanker. That'll give the rest of you a chance.

124. INT. BREAD VAN. DAY.

124.

MAX is sitting up, binding his leg tight with bandages, clipping on his metal knee brace.

PAPPAGALLO (v/o)

Split up. Go as hard as you can. Two hundred miles north there's a bridge. At Powder River. If we make it, that's our rendezvous...

As MAX struggles to haul himself out of the bread van, the FERAL KID hands him his equipment belt.

PAPPAGALLO (v/o)
It's defensible. We can refuel there.

125. INSIDE THE COMPOUND. DAY.

125.

MAX, grim-faced, starts to walk towards the tanker.

Blood seeps through the bandage on his leg.

PAPPAGALLO (v/o)
But! Only give us 'til sunset.
If we haven't made it by then,
keep going!

PAPPAGALLO swings down off the catwalk, heading for the cabin of the tanker.

The meeting breaks up - the CAMP PEOPLE moving to take up their positions on the various vehicles.

MAX
I'll drive the tanker...

Everybody stops, turning to look at him.

MAX is staring at PAPPAGALLO, swaying slightly, hands clenched.

MAX
Until you're clear of trouble...

The CURMUDGEON breaks in:

CURMUDGEON
He's gotta be joking!

PAPPAGALLO
Look at you.

MAX nods.

Sc. 125. Cont...

MAX
But I'm still the best you've got.

PAPPAGALLO thinks for a long moment..

PAPPAGALLO
You'll need these...

He tosses MAX his sawn-off shotgun and a bandolier containing six cartridges.

126. CRACKING TOWER. HIGH ANGLE. WHOLE SCENE. DAY. 126.

The tanker stands at the far end of the compound. Behind it, the GYRO CAPTAIN is spinning the rotor of his machine.

A dune buggy and the Lone Wolf's car - armour-plated since being captured by the camp - wait on either side of the tanker.

Beyond the gate the MARAUDERS have formed an arc of vehicles just out of crossbow range. The Humungus machine stands at its centre.

127. INSIDE THE COMPOUND. DAY. 127.

MAX sits in the tanker, checking out the controls, familiarising himself with the machine...

WARRIOR WOMAN stands on the running board.

She turns as the MECHANIC clambers on board. He glares at her, daring her to stop him:

MECHANIC
I sweated blood on this mother.
And no bastard's gonna make me go in no lousy bread van.

MAX kicks over the big engine...

WEZ stands on the back of a tow truck, beyond him we see the arc of vehicles, engines gunning, straining at the leash...

The Humungus vehicle eases forward into frame...

The TWO VICTIMS on the front of his vehicle have their heads hooded.

MAX is revving the engine higher and higher.

WARRIOR WOMAN climbs up to the top of the tanker...

PAPPAGALLO starts the assault vehicle.

WARRIOR WOMAN finds the FERAL KID crouched down in her position behind the protective plate. Holding the KID by his arm, she passes him down to MAX who passes him down to the ground... PAPPAGALLO yells for someone to come and take him...

The LUSTY GIRL runs forward... the FERAL KID avoids her. MAX engages the engine. The tanker rumbles forward, gathering speed as it runs the length of the compound. BIG REBECCA, at the wheel of the school bus draws the vehicle aside - revealing the burnt out wreck of the road racer on the causeway and the MARAUDERS beyond.

The HUMUNGUS has opened his gun case and removes the magnum .44. The remaining 4 bullets have been placed in the revolving chamber...

The dune buggy and the Lone Wolf machine follow close behind the tanker.

The FERAL KID leaps onto the back of Pappagallo's vehicle.

Sc. 131. Cont...

The WARRIOR WOMAN and the MECHANIC lie low as the tanker roars out the gate, ploughing through the burnt out wreck, knocking it into the ditch.

The HUMUNGUS, raises his gun, calmly, taking aim at the oncoming tanker...

As the tanker accelerates towards him, the gyrocopter swoops out of the compound and over the MARAUDERS.

The GYRO CAPTAIN drops three burning molotov cocktails.

They fall in and around a road racer at one end of the arc... the road racer bursts into flames...

The GYRO CAPTAIN whoops with delight.

132. THE BREAK OUT. OUTSIDE THE COMPOUND. DAY.

132.

With the Lone Wolf machine and the dune buggy close alongside, MAX steers the tanker towards the burning road racer.

The HUMUNGUS fires... once...

The bullet dents the protective plate mounted on the front of the tanker but does no further damage.

Twice... three times!

Two more dents.

The tanker keeps going crashing through the burning wreck... breaking the Marauders' cordon...

133. ON BOARD THE GYROCOPTER. DAY.

133.

The GYRO CAPTAIN has banked around and is swooping low. Having swung around, the GYRO CAPTAIN, swoops down, taking aim on the Humungus machine with another fistful of lighted bottles.

The HUMUNGUS looks up. He swings the revolver up, taking aim at the approaching gyrocopter.

He fires!

The bullet hits, piercing the right rudder peddle.

Dropping his bottles, the GYRO CAPTAIN screams and looks down: blood pours from what is left of his right foot.

MAX glances up to see the gyrocopter, flying erratically, swoop over and bank away towards the horizon...

On top of the tanker WARRIOR WOMAN and the MECHANIC prepare to fire their weapons.

Behind them, the HUMUNGUS and his HORDE power over the rise, pursuing the tanker.

Suddenly, three of the Marauder vehicles skid to a halt.

They start to turn back towards the compound, where the remaining camp vehicles are making their bid for freedom.

The bread van and three other vehicles have followed the yellow school bus out onto the causeway.

They skirt round the back of the compound and head off across country.

The HUMUNGUS screams at his men through the amplifier:

HUMUNGUS

The tanker! All on the tanker!

As the three Marauder vehicles turn to rejoin the tanker chase... whoomp! a massive flash fills the sky. The camp erupts in flame, followed by a series of rolling explosions.

The camp people have destroyed what they cannot take...

WIPE.

As the tanker surges towards us, we see the dune buggy, the Lone Wolf machine and the pursuing MARAUDERS, surrounding it.

MAX grimaces as he changes gears. His leg is bleeding freely now...

He looks to the passenger-side:

The dune buggy, driven by the BLACKSMITH and manned by PISMO, leaps onto the road in front of the tanker.

A tow truck, manned by SKINHEADS, converges on it from the driver's side.

Sc. 135. Cont...

On the back of the dune buggy PISMO lifts his crossbow... unaware that, behind him, Wez's convertible tow truck is approaching fast.

The FIRST OF THE TWO SKINHEADS on the back of the tow truck fires his crossbow...

The arrow sails past PISMO'S ear. PISMO fires... He hits the FIRST SKINHEAD but the arrow bounces off the SKINHEAD'S protective armour. The SKINHEAD grins.

PISMO hurries to reload...

The SECOND SKINHEAD raises his bow, aiming at PISMO. An arrow hits the SECOND SKINHEAD in the back of the head.

PISMO looks up to see WARRIOR WOMAN reloading her longbow.

PISMO grins at her... behind him, WEZ'S arm reaches down and hooks the jib chain around the roll bar of the dune buggy...

The tow truck accelerates... the chain tightens... PISMO screams as he is thrown through the air.

WEZ'S tow truck drags the dune buggy askew...

It rolls in front of the tanker... MAX has no choice.

The cow catcher shunts the dune buggy aside, sending it tumbling off the road.

MAX struggles with the wheel... managing to keep the vehicle on the road...

He looks down in the side mirror: two road racers and a dune buggy - followed by the Humungus machine - surge up behind the tanker.

From behind protective plates on top of the tanker the MECHANIC hurls a molotov cocktail...

The FARMER, stationed at the rear of the tanker does the same...

The two bottles smash into the first road racer. It bursts into flames... swerves in front of the other road racer, ramps off the road and plunges into a Marauder's dune buggy.

PAPPAGALLO, who has been forced off the road, narrowly avoids the wreck.

The Skinhead tow truck draws alongside the tanker, near Max's door.

The SECOND SKINHEAD, twirling a grappling hook, lets it fly.

It trails out towards the tanker cabin... flies through the driver's window... and lands virtually in MAX'S lap...

As the tow truck swerves away from the tanker the cable tightens.

The grappling hook drags across MAX'S arm, tearing away part of the sleeve and hooks onto the door...

The tow truck brakes... Max's door is ripped off its hinges...

A SMEGMA CRAZY riding in the cabin of the tow truck is encouraged by this success...

He begins twirling his grappling hook as the vehicle approaches the back of the tanker...

The FARMER pops up from behind a protective plate and fires his crossbow...

The arrow misses the tow truck, flies through the caged window of a road racer armed with a 4-pak and lodges in the driver's helmet.

The DRIVER pulls off his helmet... the arrow has barely creased his scalp.

The SMEGMA CRAZY hurls his grappling hook...

It catches the FARMER by the leg and hooks on to the lip of the back protective plate.

The cable snaps taut, the FARMER screams.

MAX feels the sudden tug on the tanker. He changes down...

The tow truck is dragged along, veering out of control...

The strain pops the rivets off the tanker's back plate... it comes away in one piece... carrying away the FARMER and the steel aprons protecting the rear wheels...

The tow truck tumbles and rolls...

On top of the tanker, the MECHANIC has lit another molotov cocktail...

He swings back to throw...

The road racer, armed with the 4-pak' swings alongside and fires.

Three arrows rat-a-tat against the protective plates... the fourth hits the MECHANIC'S upraised arm...

The bottle drops... and smashes on top of the tanker... spreading flames.

The HUMUNGUS accelerates hard towards the now-undefended rear of the tanker. He pulls a rope, whipping the hoods off the heads of the TWO VICTIMS lashed to the front. They scream as the back of the tanker looms in front of them.

MAX looks in the passenger-side mirror...

Wez's convertible tow truck is drawing alongside the left rear wheels of the prime mover.

WEZ fires an arrow into the first tyre...

It explodes... flailing cable and rubber...

As WEZ reloads, another MOHAWKER - wearing two bizarre bear claws on his crossbow gauntlets - steadies himself on the back of the tow truck... ready to jump aboard the tanker.

Pappagallo's Lone Wolf machine appears in the background.

WARRIOR WOMAN turns to see that the MECHANIC is losing the battle with the flames. In vain he tries to stop his clothes catching alight...

Rising to her feet WARRIOR WOMAN fires an arrow at the BEAR CLAW BIKER... hitting him in his protective pads ... throwing him off balance.

As WARRIOR WOMAN scrambles along the top of the tanker towards the MECHANIC, TWO MARAUDERS fire at her.

She is hit, once in the protective plate around her kidneys and once in the thigh...

From the Lone Wolf vehicle PAPPAGALLO and the FERAL KID watch as she staggers forward...

In the tow truck, WEZ has reloaded and fires at WARRIOR WOMAN. The arrow hits her in the back... she buckles and falls into the barbed wire.

MAX watches helplessly in the rear vision mirror as she struggles in the wire.

141. CONVERTIBLE TOW TRUCK. DAY.

141.

As WEZ reloads his crossbow, the Lone Wolf machine accelerates alongside the tow truck.

The KID throws his steel boomerang... hitting Wez's crossbow gauntlet, preventing him from aiming.

The MASKED MOHAWKER driving the tow truck turns to see...

PAPPAGALLO firing his gauntlet crossbow.

The MASKED MOHAWKER screams as the arrow passes through his neck...

The convertible tow truck swerves in and bounces off the tanker.

WEZ is thrown off balance...

The BEAR CLAW BIKER grabs the barbed wire on the side of the tanker for support...

The tow truck swerves away, out of control, leaving the BEAR CLAW BIKER clinging to the wire.

WEZ scrambles over into the driver's seat, bringing the vehicle back under control.

142. WARRIOR WOMAN AND THE MECHANIC. DAY.

142.

WARRIOR WOMAN, caught in the wire by her clothing, struggles to remain conscious as she slips closer to the tanker's wheels.

The MECHANIC, who has managed to extinguish the flames, crawls towards her. Her clothing tearing... his hand reaches out... further... further... and grabs her.

A road racer draws alongside them.

MAX yells as he sees the driver - a GAYBOY BERSERKER - fire another arrow into the MECHANIC.

The MECHANIC shudders, the WARRIOR WOMAN slips - her weight dragging them both off the tanker.

143. MAX ATTACKS. DAY.

143.

MAX, enraged, tears off the sling which supports his wrist. He grabs the shotgun off the seat next to him.

He swings the gun around then pumps both barrels into the road racer: the first blast shatters the windscreen; the second blows off the bonnet...

The GAYBOY BERSERKER is unharmed.

MAX hauls down hard on the wheel...

The tanker swerves into the road racer, taking it through a guide post and into the 'rough'...

The tanker barrels over the road racer, rolling it, tumbling it into another Marauder's vehicle.

MAX changes down and hurls the tanker back onto the highway. The BEAR CLAW BIKER hangs on desperately...

MAX grabs two of the four remaining cartridges and quickly reloads the shotgun.

143. BOARDING THE TANKER. DAY.

143.

The Humungus machine draws up behind the undefended tanker.

A GAYBOY BERSERKER clambers to the front of the Humungus vehicle - between the TWO VICTIMS - and leaps onto the back of the tanker.

Further along the tanker, a MOHAWK BIKER with PILLION RIDER has drawn alongside. The PILLION RIDER helps the BEAR CLAW BIKER swing up above the wire...

Once he is on top, the BEAR CLAW BIKER hauls the PILLION RIDER on board.

The MOHAWK BIKER accelerates alongside the leading set of wheels - one of which has already been blown apart. He raises his bow taking aim...

The flying steel belt of the shredded tyre lashes around his arm, dragging him and his bike beneath the rig...

Sc. 143. Cont...

The giant wheels trample the MAN and machine, spitting them out the back... beneath the wheels of the Humungus machine.

144. UNDER THE TANKER. DAY.

144.

On its way through the bike has ruptured a small hose underneath the tanker. We see something trickling out of the tank... streaming down the road.

It's sand!

145. THE MARAUDERS ON BOARD. DAY.

145.

On board the tanker, the GAYBOY BERSERKER scrambles towards the cabin, leaping the gap between the tank and the prime mover...

MAX looks up at the 'thump' overhead...

The GAYBOY BERSERKER braces himself, taking aim through the roof... he fires...

The arrow rips through the metal and buries itself in the seat between MAX'S legs...

The GAYBOY BERSERKER prepares to reload.

MAX brakes...

The HUMUNGUS, tailgating him, isn't quick enough. The front of his vehicle smacks one corner of the tanker, crushing the BROKEN MAN strapped to the front.

The GAYBOY BERSERKER on the roof pitches forward, falling past the windscreen and out of sight over the front of the tanker...

The PILLION RIDER and BEAR CLAW BIKER scramble and fall...

The BEAR CLAW BIKER catches hold of an outlet valve and steadies himself...

The PILLION RIDER totters... reaches... and grabs the chromed exhaust stacks...

He screams as the pipe scorches his hand... letting go... tumbling over the side.

On the crest of a hill about 400 yards ahead, MAX sees another vehicle.

The gyrocopter stands in the middle of the road facing away from the chase...

The GYRO CAPTAIN has bandaged his foot and is trying to repair the right rudder peddle...

As the chase looms up behind him he turns... we see that the GAYBOY BERSERKER is clinging to the cow-catcher on the front of the tanker.

Furiously, the GYRO CAPTAIN starts spinning the rotor by hand, turning over the motor.

As the tanker bears down on him he takes off - so steeply that he almost stalls.

Once he is airborne he looks down... assessing, cursing.

Down below we see Pappagallo's Lone Wolf vehicle draw alongside Wez's convertible tow truck.

WEZ looks over his shoulder...

PAPPAGALLO comes alongside... the FERAL KID, standing on the back of the machine, hands him a crossbow.

WEZ wrenches down hard on the wheel... shunting into the Lone Wolf vehicle... sending Pappagallo's arrow astray...

The FERAL KID loses his footing, tumbling off the side of the vehicle.

PAPPAGALLO turns in dismay... as WEZ comes in to shunt him again...

A bike with a side car accelerates alongside the tanker. The SIDECAR RIDER fires and takes out another tyre...

The BEAR CLAW BIKER signals, calling for a weapon.

The SIDE CAR RIDER throws him a large, powerful crossbow.

The BEAR CLAW BIKER catches it and starts to haul himself onto the roof of the cabin.

The SIDE CAR RIDER leaps onto the tanker.

At the rear of the tanker a SMEGMA CRAZY leaps off the front of the Humungus vehicle and onto the ladder which leads to the top of the tanker.

149. OFF ROAD. THE KID ON HIS FEET. DAY.

149.

The FERAL KID staggers to his feet as Wez's tow truck and Pappagallo's Lone Wolf vehicle continue their shunting... the KID turns... a street car and a bike are roaring towards him. The KID starts running...

150. OFF ROAD. THE EROSION DITCH. DAY.

150.

In the scrub ahead - over WEZ'S shoulder - we see an erosion ditch looming up. WEZ brakes and turns the wheel...

The tow truck and the Lone Wolf machine go into a slide...

WEZ manages to avoid the ditch and keep going but the Lone Wolf machine's wheels plunge into the ditch, bringing the vehicle to an abrupt halt...

151. MAX STILL UNDER SIEGE. DAY.

151.

As MAX looks back, a hand comes over the front bull bar of the tanker, followed by the GAYBOY BERSERKER'S head.

He sees the BEAR CLAW BIKER and signals for the crossbow... the BEAR CLAW BIKER throws it...

The crossbow lands on the bonnet...

MAX turns, sees him... and raises the shotgun... the GAYBOY BERSERKER ducks... MAX waits...

The BEAR CLAW BIKER works his way to Max's window...

The SMEGMA CRAZY jumps from the tanker onto the cabin roof.

MAX looks up as the man's feet thump on the metal above his head.

The passenger's window shatters; the SIDE CAR RIDER clings there, raising his crossbow...

On the roof, the SMEGMA CRAZY braces himself, preparing to fire a crossbow bolt through the roof...

MAX raises the shotgun, firing point blank at the SIDE CAR RIDER, blowing him away.

Immediately he fires the second barrel through the roof: the blast hurls the SMEGMA CRAZY off the back of the cabin.

MAX breaks open the barrel...

MAX grabs his last two shells as a muscled arm reaches through the open door. MAX recoils. It is the BEAR CLAW BIKER. The cartridges fall to the floor.

The BEAR CLAW rips the seat next to MAX'S right shoulder.

MAX zig-zags the tanker down the highway trying to keep the BEAR CLAW off his balance.

Thud! The BEAR CLAW strikes again - this time - through the rear window into Max's shoulder padding...

The BEAR CLAW BIKER'S foot slips, MAX screams with pain as the claws dig into his left shoulder.

The BEAR CLAW hangs there unable to move.

MAX tries desperately to reach the two cartridge shells rolling around on the floor.

On the front of the tanker the GAY BOY BERSERKER pokes his head up for another look...

152. OFF ROAD. THE EROSION DITCH.

152.

PAPPAGALLO spins the back wheels of the Lone Wolf machine... frantically trying to pull it out of the ditch.

It begins to move...

153. OFF ROAD. THE FERAL KID IS RESUCED. DAY.

153.

The FERAL KID runs.

WEZ streams in behind the MARAUDERS in the bike and street car.

They are bearing down fast...

When a rope drops from above, swinging past the KID.

The KID grabs it and is hauled up just as the vehicles pass under him. The gyrocopter banks away...

The FERAL KID flies through the air.

A GAYBOY BERSERKER in a road racer looks up to see the gyrocopter and the KID...

He swings a 4-pak around on its axis and fires.

Three of the four arrows hit the gyrocopter in its under-belly...

The aircraft makes a terrible noise and dips radically, dropping down towards the tanker.

The KID clings desperately to the rope... looking up and then down at the rapidly approaching tanker.

154. THE TANKER CABIN. DAY.

154.

MAX struggles to free himself from the bear claws and reload the gun...

The GAYBOY BERSERKER scrambles over the bull bar reaching for the crossbow...

MAX, lets go of the wheel and grabs the rear view mirror, tearing it free and throwing it at the GAYBOY BERSERKER. He slips back behind the bull bar...

155. THE SIDE OF THE TANKER. DAY.

155.

While the GYRO CAPTAIN struggles to keep his machine in the air, the KID reaches out - trying to grab hold of the tanker's exhaust stacks.

He can't reach...

The gyro drops again...

The KID grabs the barbed wire but can't hold it...

156. THE TANKER CABIN. DAY.

156.

MAX is struggling to pull the bear claw out of his shoulder when he sees the FERAL KID fly past the missing driver's door.

MAX throws his arm out as far as it will go... grabbing hold of the KID, hauling him into the tanker.

MAX and the KID look out as the gyrocopter bucks wildly and crashes into the ground.

As the Marauders swarm around the tanker, a SMEGMA CRAZY shoots out yet another tyre.

A MOHAWK BIKER fires... exploding another tyre.

158. THE TANKER CABIN. DAY.

158.

MAX shouts at the FERAL KID, indicating the cartridges rolling around on the floor...

The KID recovers the cartridges, MAX hands him the gun...

The GAYBOY BERSERKER has crawled back onto the bonnet and is reaching for the crossbow.

The KID tries to insert the first cartridge upside down...

MAX

No! The other way!!

The KID slips in the first cartridge, then the second...

He snaps the gun shut and tries to aim it at the GAYBOY BERSERKER... but can't find the trigger.

The GAYBOY BERSERKER raises the crossbow...

MAX grabs the gun and fires...

The GAYBOY BERSERKER disappears over the side...

MAX rams the barrel into the left arm pit of the BEAR CLAW BIKER.

He fires...

The BEAR CLAW BIKER falls away... leaving his arm and crossbow gauntlet embedded in MAX'S shoulder.

159. THE REAR OF THE TANKER. DAY.

159.

Bellowing through his loudspeakers, the HUMUNGUS organises the destruction of the tanker.

The 4-pak street car surges forward and discharges its arrows...

Two more tyres shred away...

The tanker shudders.

The FERAL KID looks out of the passenger window.
MAX struggles to control the tanker.

The FERAL KID climbs through the smashed windscreen and onto the bonnet...

MAX watches as he picks up the crossbow lying on the bonnet...

MAX

Get back! For Chrissakes!

The KID doesn't understand...

He clambers onto the roof before MAX can grab him.

The tanker shudders again as another tyre is blown out.

MAX watches through the rear window as the KID jumps from the cabin to the top of the tanker and then disappears from view.

161. TOP OF THE TANKER. DAY.

161.

The KID tries to load the crossbow as he clambers along the top of the tanker...

The bow string is too powerful for him to draw.

162. REAR OF THE TANKER. DAY.

162.

Another tyre is shot...

Then another. One bogie falls down on the wheel rims...

163. TOP OF TANKER. DAY.

163.

The tanker lurches... the KID slips down into the wire... the crossbow clatters onto the road...

PAPPAGALLO has got the Lone Wolf machine back onto the road... starting to overhaul the pack, heading for the rightand side of the tanker.

Up ahead on the left, we see Wez's tow truck drawing alongside the tanker.

Pieces of tyre are flailing everywhere... the tanker is down on one side... slowing...

165. THE SIDE OF THE TANKER. DAY.

165.

The KID is trying to climb back onto the top of the tanker. Wez's tow truck comes into view.

WEZ fires...

The KID is pinned by his dogskins to the side of the tank...

He tries to free himself... he tears his dogskin off the arrow and reaches up once more to the top of the tanker.

WEZ fires again.

The arrow pierces the KID'S arm, pinning him to the tank...

166. THE FRONT OF THE TANKER. DAY.

166.

MAX is fighting to bring the crippled tanker under control... he changes down, wrestling with the wheel, slewing across the road.

PAPPAGALLO draws alongside his doorway, yelling:

PAPPAGALLO
Jump! It's finished. Jump!

MAX turns around, looking for the KID...

The tanker leaves the road and ramps up on the embankment, rolling to a stop.

PAPPAGALLO Jump!

MAX
The Kid?!

PAPPAGALLO
Forget it! Jump!

MAX hesitates.

As the MARAUDERS swarm on top of the tanker, PAPPAGALLO guns the engine... spraying dust.

MAX leaps, the arm of the BEAR CLAW BIKER still embedded in his shoulder

He grabs the rear roll bar of the Lone Wolf machine, fighting to swing his feet clear... and finds a foothold as the vehicle roars away...

167. THE CRIPPLED TANKER. DAY.

167.

The HUMUNGUS draws up to the crippled tanker. WEZ and a SECOND MOHAWKER are on top.

WEZ pulls open a hatch...

The SECOND MOHAWKER plunges in his hand and lets out an anguished cry...

He pulls out a handful of sand.

Below the HUMUNGUS has opened the outlet hose... Sand pours out onto the road.

Above him, the KID is hanging by his arm. Despite the pain... he grins.

SECOND MOHAWKER
All this - and no guzzolene.

WEZ, pale with fury, speaks softly:

WEZ
I know where there's guzzolene.

WEZ whirls around and fires his crossbow...

The arrow buries itself in the HUMUNGUS'S mask...

The big man crumbles to the ground, dead.

The rest of the HORDE are arriving. As their vehicles screech to a halt TWO SMEGMA CRAZIES and TWO GAYBOY BERSERKERS leap out, waving their jerry cans in the air.

WEZ, the SECOND MOHAWKER and TWO OTHERS, open fire.

The FOUR MARAUDERS crumple.

MAX makes his way over the back engine of the speeding vehicle towards PAPPAGALLO. He tears the bear claw arm out of his shoulder...

Through the screaming motor we hear Pappagallo laughing, almost hysterical.

As MAX eases himself down into the cockpit...
PAPPAGALLO turns:

PAPPAGALLO

We've done it!
I thought it'd be impossible.
But we've done it!!

MAX yells:

MAX

What about the Kid?!

PAPPAGALLO

We've won! Don't you see?
The fuel was with the others.
It's already at Powder River.

MAX reaches across and cuts the engine... the vehicle rolls to a stop...

MAX grabs PAPPAGALLO:

MAX

What happened to the boy?!

PAPPAGALLO

We've gotta keep going. It's our only chance.

MAX raises the Bear Claw arm to PAPPAGALLO'S face. We see that the crossbow strapped to the forearm is still loaded.

MAX

The Kid?

PAPPAGALLO

I had to leave him... he was pinned to the rig...

MAX
 You left him there?
 With them? Alive?

PAPPAGALLO
 There was nothing I could do.

MAX throws PAPPAGALLO out of the vehicle and takes the driver's seat...

169. THE TANKER WRECK. DAY.

169.

WEZ is sitting at the wheel of the Humungus machine. He and the THREE OTHER MARAUDERS - all on bikes - accelerate away from the tanker. Dead bodies litter the ground.

WEZ urges the OTHER THREE on - pursuing the Lone Wolf machine.

As the Humungus machine winds around the bends, we see, the Lone Wolf vehicle approaching over a distant hillcrest.

170. UNDULATING HIGHWAY. DAY.

170.

MAX guns the vehicle over the rise...

Over his shoulder we see the Humungus machine, 400 yards away, approaching at terrific speed...

MAX steels himself... 300 yards.

The two vehicles are on direct collision course... 200 yards...

The two victims have been taken from the front of the Humungus machine and something else is in their place...

MAX sees that it is the FERAL KID, lashed there - upside down...

He throws the wheel, sending the vehicle into a slide, spinning clear of the Humungus machine.

The Lone Wolf vehicle spins around... Thud! into the bikes of TWO MARAUDERS flanking WEZ.

The third - a MOHAWK BIKER - follows WEZ.

As soon as MAX has the Lone Wolf machine under control, he guns the two engines and is off after WEZ. He hits 171. HUMUNGUS MACHINE. DAY.

171.

As the vehicle approaches we see the KID, his head inches off the bitumen... WEZ looks back to see MAX overtaking the MOHAWK BIKER.

172. THE LONE WOLF MACHINE. DAY.

172.

As MAX overtakes the MOHAWK BIKER, he twitches the wheel... the big car swipes the bike... sending the MOHAWKER sailing off the road.

The Lone Wolf surges away, catching up to the Humungus machine.

173. HUMUNGUS MACHINE. DAY.

173.

WEZ looks back at the approaching machine. He floors the accelerator, "red-lining" the engine...

As the Humungus machine surges into camera we do a track, in zoom, on the FERAL KID'S face, turning the camera through 180 degrees.

174. THE KID'S UPSIDE DOWN POINT OF VIEW. DAY.

174.

We are upside down as we rocket along the curving, undulating, highway, through a flock of birds... towards a puddle of water... as the water splashes on the lens...

CUT TO:

The Humungus vehicle as it roars through the water, passing a startled PAPPAGALLO walking along the road...

MAX rockets past moments later.

175. THE LONE WOLF MACHINE. DAY.

175.

MAX raises the Bear Claw arm as he closes in on WEZ, drawing alongside the Humungus machine...

WEZ reaches down... to the toggle switch next to the nitrous oxide bottles... waiting for the right moment...

He flicks the switch...

He is thrown back by the massive acceleration... the Humungus machine surges away from camera...

MAX doesn't have time to aim the crossbow still attached to the bear claw arm.

He fires, the arrow disappearing in a blurr...

The Humungus machine thunders away, rocketing along the open highway... eating up the white line...

Upside down, the FERAL KID is terror-struck: the Humungus machine roars straight into a wide curve, leaving the road, continuing out into the wasteland.

The Humungus machine charges through the salt bush...

Over MAX'S shoulder, we see that the vehicle is slowing...

MAX follows it out into the wasteland...

The vehicle comes to a halt...

Cautiously, MAX draws alongside: WEZ sits stock still, looking out at the desert beyond....

It is not until MAX is alongside his face that we see the tip of the arrow protruding from his left eye...

On the front of the vehicle the FERAL KID starts to sob...

FADE TO BLACK.

MAX stands on a hilltop, overlooking Powder River.

- Below him, the convoy - led by the yellow school bus - moves out across the plain.

A dust trail appears on the horizon, racing to intercept the convoy.

MAX lifts his broken binoculars: it's the GYRO CAPTAIN, bumping along in the twisted, wreck of the gyrocopter - its rotors gone, engine screaming.

MAX shakes his head and walks back to the Lone Wolf machine on the top of the hill.

Once again we hear the Old Man's voice:

NARRATOR (v/o)

That was the last we ever saw of him...

We see PAPPAGALLO, face set with determination, driving the yellow school bus.

NARRATOR (v/o)

As for the rest of us...

Pappagallo led us north... to safety - to a place in the sun...

In the tenth year, nurturing his vision of a new world, he died felling timber.

The LUSTY GIRL rolls her eyes and sighs as the GYRO CAPTAIN draws alongside her window...

NARRATOR (v/o)

The Captain and the Girl waged war for years... together they raised eight children...

And as for me...

180. Cont.

The FERAL KID, sitting in the back of the bus, turns to face us. His bright yellow eyes stare directly into camera...

NARRATOR (v/o)
... in the fullness of time,
I became the leader - the chief of the Great Northern Tribe...

DISSOLVE.

181. THE NARRATOR'S FACE.

181.

For the first time we see the Narrator's eyes - they are bright yellow.

FADE TO BLACK.

182. END CREDITS.
