THE THINGCAST

- MAC READY - 35. Helicopter pilot. Likes chess. Hates the cold. The pay is good.
- GARRY - 46. The station manager. Stiff. Ex-army officer. Wears a handgun.
- CHILDS - 33. Six-four. Two-fifty. Black. A mechanic. Can be jolly. But don't mess.
- BLAIR - 50. Senior biologist. Edgy. Inquisitive. Overworked.
- FUCHS - 25. Sensitive. Intelligent. Unassuming. An assistant biologist.
- DR. COPPER - 45. Professional. A decent man. A good doctor.
- PALMER - 27. Second string chopper pilot. Crack mechanic. Long hair. Slight sixties acid damage.
- NAULS - 22. The cook. Bright. Black. Irreverent. But kindhearted. Roller skates.
- NORRIS - 44. Stocky. Rugged looking. A geophysicist. An incipient heart condition.
- BENNINGS - 38. A meteorologist. Dutiful. An old pro.
- CLARK - 24. The dog handler. Likes it here. Good at his job.
- SANCHEZ - 21. The radio operator. Hates it here. Lousy at his job.

In the winter of 1982 these men were commissioned by the United States National Science Foundation to gather data concerning the physical and natural sciences on the continent of Antarctica.

THE THING

THE MAIN COMPOUND OF U.S. OUTPOST #31

The interior is a cramped and never ending maze of hallways, passageways and doors which connect the many rooms and compartments within the compound. Sturdy, but prefabricated materials have been used in its construction.

There is a laboratory. An infirmary. A kitchen and mess hall. A communications room and sleeping quarters. Other cubicles are for storage and supplies.

The most spacious area of the building, and the main center of activity, is the Rec Room. Of the many entrance ways to this room can be seen the small work chambers with their sophisticated computers and other scientific equipment.

The below quarter houses the generator and still other compartments for storage.

A long underground tunnel connects the main compound to the dog kennel.

THE THING

FADE IN

1 A STARRY BLACKNESS 1

From out of the billions, the smallest of specks drives slowly forward. It closes; getting larger; its features becoming more identifiable: a vessel. Flip-flopping; out of control. Its stern roaring with flame. It passes; its blue fire surging into screen.

"THE THING"

A thundering....

FADE TO

2 A BLIND AND FERAL WHITENESS 2

...Glacial desert...gusts of snow...superimpose:

ANTARCTICA 1982 WINTER

3 A SOUND 3

Loud and strident. A helicopter streaks across frame. It travels precariously close to the ground; its chassis battered and swayed by the wind.

4 INT. COPTER 4

Red dials beam on the faces of two men. One carries a rifle and searches the horizon with binoculars. The other pilots. Their unkempt faces, their blazen eyes notate a wildness. They bark at each other in some Scandinavian tongue. Two men arguing like mad and desperate children.

The man with the binoculars sights something.

5 EXT. HORIZON - BINOCULARS' POINT OF VIEW - A DOG 5

It turns and snarls at the craft some fifteen hundred yards to its rear. Then whirls and gallops off. A gun blast kicks up snow at its heels.

6 INT. COPTER

6

Another blast of rifle fire as the man takes issue with his prey. The pilot slams a fist into his gunman friend and implores for better aim. The craft swoops lower and the engine is put into full throttle.

7 EXT. HILL - THE DOG

running feverishly up and over a hill of ice. A weather-beaten, wooden sign sticks up on the other side:
U.S. NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION -- OUTPOST #31.

A rifle blast kicks up more snow.

8 EXT. COMPOUND OF U.S. OUTPOST #31

8

A large, almost snow-covered building. Not far from that a tall, meteorological balloon tower.

A scattering of several small shacks at varying distances from the main compound. The smaller hovels are connected by wooden planked walkways and steadying ropes. Multicolored pennants stick out of the snow marking pathways and directions to outdoor experiments.

A tractor and two helicopters sit idle, covered with mounds of continuously mounting snow.

9 TWO MEN, NORRIS AND BENNING

9

standing some thirty yards from the main building are in the process of letting up a large red balloon. Childs, a hefty black man, is twenty yards away tinkering with a snowmobile. Their beards are caked with ice. It is winter and it is harsh.

The faint sound of the copter turns their attention.

10 THE COPTER

10 flying even lower now. The man with the gun leans dangerously outside and fires away at the dog as it nears the outpost.

11 THE MEN

11 outside the compound look to one another, incredulous.

12 THE COPTER 12

much too low now, and chastised by the wind, attempts a high-speed landing, directly on the heels of the sprinting dog. It bounces violently on the hard-packed surface. Once. Twice. Passing the dog.

A third bounce sends it skidding. It flips; its blades snapping off like toothpicks. It lands belly-up, soundless except for the whine of its engine.

The man with the gun rolls out before the explosion.

13 INT. MAIN COMPOUND 13

The half a dozen men, playing cards, monitoring equipment, listening to music -- spring to their feet, startled.

14 EXT. COMPOUND 14

The dog reaches Norris and Bennings, as they awkwardly wade through the snow, toward the downed copter.

15 THE SURVIVOR 15

of the crash, his eyes crazed with determination, struggles to his feet. Heedless of his companion, he double-times his way to the men and the dog. He reloads his gun and bellows in his Scandinavian tongue.

Norris and Bennings have no idea what he is saying.

The survivor waves his arm as if shooing them off, screaming as he does so; his face now caked with blood.

The two men are bewildered. The dog jumps up, licking and pawing them, imploring for safety.

Blam!! The visitor fires. The men jump back in disbelief.

NORRIS

What the fu....

Blam! Blam! The crazed visitor screams and fires as he stalks after them. His countenance ablaze, mad. Ice and snow kick up about the terrified Americans. A bullet smacks into the dog's hip, sending it skidding and howling in pain.

CONTINUED

15

Childs, the black man by the snowmobile, takes cover, diving behind his machine.

Bennings is hit. Norris pulls, drags him back toward the compound. The dog crawls along beside them.

The intruder is relentless in his assail. He runs, screaming, firing, screaming, reloading and firing.

16 INT. COMPOUND

16

Total confusion. Some watch helplessly through the small, fogged-up and translucent windows. Others try to mobilize, grabbing for their heavy jackets.

17 CLOSE ON A .357 MAGNUM

17 as it efficiently breaks through a windowpane and into the cold. A steady hand grips it firmly.

18 THE SCANDINAVIAN

18 getting closer. Kablam! Suddenly, his head jerks back. He falls to his knees and then face down into the snow.

19 NORRIS AND BENNING

19

stare blankly, but relievedly at the fallen man. The dog whimpers in pain.

20 CHILDS

20 pokes his head out from under the snowmobile.

21 INT. MAIN COMPOUND - REC ROOM

21

The rumbling of voices fades. The men adjust their eyes to station manager Garry, as he extracts his gun from the broken window, relieves it of its spent shell and puts it away.

CUT TO

22 EXT. BURNING COPTER

22

Several men spray snow on the burning wreckage. There is no hope for the pilot.

CUT TO

23 INT. COMPOUND - CLOSE ON THE PALLID FACE OF THE SCANDINAVIAN INTRUDER 23

A neat round hole is set in the middle of his forehead. Station manager Garry holds up something akin to an ID.

GARRY

Norwegian...Jans Bolen.

Fuchs, a young and sensitive-looking biologist, stands closest to the large area map of Antarctica. Several men sit and stand around viewing the body that lies on two brought-together card-tables.

FUCHS

Gotta be from the Norwegian camp.

GARRY

How far's that?

FUCHS

'Bout eighty kilos southwest.

GARRY

(surprise)

That far?

Garry directs his attention to Childs, the large black who had been working on the snowmobile. Next to him sits Norris, the rugged-looking, fortyish, geophysicist, who was one of the men being shot at.

GARRY

You catch anything he was saying?

CHILDS

Am I starting to look Norwegian to you, Bwana?

Garry motions inquiringly to Norris.

NORRIS

Yeah. I caught that he wanted the better part of my ass to come apart.

24 INT. INFIRMARY

24

Dr. Copper, mid-forties, works on the outstretched leg of Bennings, the meteorologist. Clark, the dog handler, is mending the hip of the wounded dog off in the corner. Bennings lets out with an ouch.

DR. COPPER

Don't 'ouch' me. Two stitches.
It just grazed you.

He helps a shaken Bennings up off the table.

BENNINGS

What in the hell were they doing?..
Flying that low...shooting at a dog...at us....

DR. COPPER

Stir crazy. Cabin fever...Who knows.

The dog yelps and whimpers as Clark tries to calm him.

CLARK

I'll be here a while. Shell's pretty deep.

25 INT. RADIO ROOM

25

Blair, senior biologist, fifty, balding, leans against the entrance door.

He looks on as the young, bored-looking radio operator, Sanchez, attends to his equipment. Bursts of static.

SANCHEZ

It's no go.

BLAIR

Well, get to somebody. Anybody.
We've got to report this mess.

SANCHEZ

Look, I haven't been able to reach shit in two weeks. Doubt if anybody's talked to anybody on the whole continent.

26 INT. HALLWAY

26

Nauls, the cook, glides along on his roller skates down one of the many narrow hallways that connect the various compartments of the main compound. He is black, a little mischievous, about twenty-two.

He comes to a flashy skidding stop at one of the entrances to the rec room area, where the men are gathered with the dead Norwegian.

NAULS

Maybe we at war with Norway.

Palmer, a spacy, twenty-seven year old, novice pilot and mechanic, grins as he lights a joint. He directs a remark to station manager Garry.

PALMER

Was wondering when 'El Capitan' was going to get a chance to use his pop gun.

Garry rebukes him with a stern look and then turns to Fuchs.

GARRY

How long have they been stationed there?

FUCHS (leafing through pile of papers)

Says here about eight weeks.

Dr. Copper enters the room. Bennings limping after him slightly.

GARRY

(shaking his head)

That's not enough time for guys to go bonkers.

NAULS

Bullshit, Bwana, sweetheart. Five minutes is enough to put a man over down here.

PALMER

Damn straight.

NAULS

I mean Palmer been the way he is since the first day.

Palmer smiles and flips the cook the bird.

GARRY

How many in their party?

CONTINUED

FUCHS

(referring)

Started with six. There'd be four others left.

DR. COPPER

How do you know?

The men's attention turns to Copper.

DR. COPPER

(continuing)

...Guys as crazy as that could have done a lot of damage to their own before they got to us.

GARRY

Nothing we can do about that.

DR. COPPER

Yes, there is. I'd like to go up.

GARRY

In this weather?

DR. COPPER

(turns to) Bennings?

BENNINGS

Winds are going to let up a tad, next couple of hours.

GARRY

BENNINGS

Can't condone it much myself. But is it a short haul. Hour there, hour back.

Garry still does not much like the idea. Palmer takes another hit off his joint.

PALMER

Shit, Doc, I'll give you the lift if....

GARRY

Forget it, Palmer. Doc, you're a pain in the ass.

GARRY (Cont'd)

(turns)

Norris, go get MacReady.

Slight laughter from some of the men.

NORRIS

(grins)

MacReady ain't going nowhere.
Bunkered in till spring.

GARRY

Just go get him.

NORRIS

(stands)

Anyway, he's probably ripped.

27 EXT. U.S. OUTPOST #31

27

Norris, bundled in his sixty-five pounds of clothing, exits the main compound. He walks the prefab wooden planks up the precipice; his destination is some one hundred yards up the slope -- to a shack. He grabs onto the steadying ropes and pulls himself against the wind and blowing sleet.

28 INT. MAC READY'S SHACK - CLOSE ON ICE CUBES

28 being dumped into a glass, followed by the pouring of whiskey. An electronic Voice is heard.

VOICE

Bishop to knight four.

MacReady takes a sip of his drink; makes his way over to his electronic chess game. A large Mexican sombrero hangs on his back. He is tall; about thirty-five. His shack is sparse but unkempt. A few centerfolds on the wall are interspersed by an occasional poster of some Mediterranean or South American paradise.

The chess game is of larger than normal size. The pieces move automatically with the press of a button. He sits down and chuckles over his opponent's bad move.

MAC READY

Poor little son of a bitch. You're starting to lose it, aren't you?

28 CONTINUED

28

He confidently taps out his move. His companion's response is immediate.

VOICE

Pawn takes queen at knight four.

MacReady's grin slowly fades as he examines the board. There is a pounding at his door. MacReady broods for a bit, heedless of his visitor and makes his next move.

VOICE

(continuing)

Rook to knight six. Check.

More impatient pounding. MacReady glares at his opponent for a beat. He bends forward, opens up a flap containing the chess game's circuitry and pours in his drink. There ensues a snapping, popping sound as smoke and sparks rise from the machine; followed by a flush of chess gibberish.

MacReady gets up from his seat, mumbling on his way to the door.

MAC READY

...Cheating bastard....

He opens the door. Norris steps in followed by a flurry of snow and wind.

NORRIS

You jerking off or just pissed?

MAC READY

We got any more of those electronic chess things down in supply?

NORRIS

Get your gear on.

MAC READY

What for?

29 EXT. OUTPOST

29

One of the grounded choppers is being readied for take-off. Childs holds a huge industrial torch to the engine, warming it up.

30 INT. MAIN COMPOUND - CORRIDOR

30

Garry, Bennings, Dr. Copper, Palmer and MacReady wind their way through the slender corridors on their way to the chopper. Dr. Copper carries a satchel of medical supplies. MacReady, going over his flight chart, looks mad as hell. Dialogue overlaps.

MAC READY
...Craziness...
This is goddamn insane....

GARRY
...Quit the griping MacReady. Sooner you're there -- sooner you're back.

MAC READY
It's against regulations to go up this time of year!

DR. COPPER
Screw regulations! Four guys could be crawling around on their bellies out there!

MAC READY
So, I don't want to end up crawling around with them when we go down.

GARRY
Look, if you're going to keep bitching, MacReady -- Palmer's offered to take him up....

MAC READY
What are you talking?! He's had two months training in those choppers!

PALMER (defiant) Four!

MAC READY
(to Bennings)
What is it out there, anyway?
Forty-five knots?

BENNINGS Sixteen.

MAC READY
(disgusted)
And the horse you rode in on .
Sixteen for how long?! You can't predict this time of year....

31 INT./EXT. CHOPPER 31

Dr. Copper sits next to MacReady, who is at the controls. MacReady tightens the string of his sombrero around his neck and starts up its choking engine.

MacReady fights violently with the controls as he struggles to get the craft into the air. It finally rights itself and moves up and off into the grey-white sky.

32 INT. MAIN COMPOUND 32

A couple of the men mingle in the area. Clark, the dog handler, looks out the window.

CLARK

Mac's really taking it up, huh?

The dog, a large bandage on his hip, wades through the room. Under tables. Past men's legs. It hobbles slightly. No one takes notice.

CUT TO

33 •EXT. THE CHOPPER 33

moves over a ridge of ice. Columns of smoke can be seen rising ominously from a quarter mile off.

34 INT. CHOPPER - POINT OF VIEW 34

As they near, the smoke looms thicker. A black, tar-like gush; billowing up into the grey sky from the whiteness below.

35 EXT. NORWEGIAN CAMP 35

Smoke climbs upward in the f.g. MacReady sets his craft down. Pull back to reveal the camp itself: resembling the aftermath of a western fort, sacked and ravaged by Indians.

Small fires and debris are strewn everywhere. The prefab Administration Building exposes gaping holes. Smoke rises from the almost entirely snow-buried Quonset huts. Embers swirl in every direction.

36 INT. CHOPPER 36

The two men look at each other in silence. They get out.

37 CLOSE ON A LARGE, MAKESHIFT FUNERAL PYRE 37

smoldering to a close. A hastily conceived crematorium. Wood, books, furniture, tires, anything that will burn has been mixed together with the charred remains of several dogs and the body of a man.

Curious mounds of a melted and blackened goo are heaped within the mess.

A small can of gasoline lies nearby. A large oil drum not far off.

38 MAC READY AND COPPER 38

their faces ashen as they take in this grotesque sight. MacReady turns to view the Norwegian compound. He then exchanges a look with Copper. MacReady heads back toward the chopper.

39 THE CHOPPER 39

MacReady unhinges the shotgun that is latched to the panel behind the seats.

40 EXT. THE MAIN BUILDING - THE DOOR 40

MacReady and Dr. Copper stand hesitantly amidst the wisps of snow and embers. MacReady tries the door. It is unlocked. He slowly pushes it open with his gun. A creaking. A long pitch-black corridor. Copper shines a flashlight.

DR. COPPER

Anybody there!?

No answer. Just wind. They exchange a look and enter.

41 INT. NARROW CORRIDOR 41

The two men move slowly. It is dank and cold. Their breath, bleating like exhaust. A soft, steady wind howls overhead. The flashlight is not much help.

Further down, they hear a faint hissing sound. As they get closer it more resembles static. The flashlight finds a door at the end of the corridor. The sputtering static comes from within.

41

The face of the door has been shredded. An ax sticks out from its middle. MacReady wrenches out the ax. There is blood on it. The men acknowledge this for a beat. MacReady tries the knob. It opens slightly. Something is blocking it from the other side.

MAC READY

Anybody in there?!

Nothing.

DR. COPPER

We're Americans!

Nothing.

MAC READY

Come to help you!!

MacReady pushes against the door.

MAC READY

(continuing)

Give me a hand.

They push, shove, grunt. The door gives a bit. Finally more. It widens enough for MacReady to see that a large computer-like machine is blocking their path. MacReady wedges in and shines the flashlight.

It is the communications room. Holes in its roof have allowed in the freezing cold. The flashlight exposes the back of the radio chair. One more nudge allows them into the room.

A beat as they catch their breath. MacReady spots a Coleman lantern. He lights it with a match. Holds it up. The brighter light exposes the top of a man's head sitting in the radio chair.

MAC READY

(continuing)

Hey, Sweden!.. You okay?

The chair rocks slightly with the gentle breeze. They inch closer. A yard from the chair, MacReady stops the Doctor. He pokes his gun at the chair's back.

MAC READY

(continuing)

Sweden!?

41

Dr. Copper spots something. From the man's wrist on the armrest, he follows a long, yarn-thick, red line, ending in a pool of frozen blood on the floor.

The two men step around the chair. The Norwegian stares up in blanched death. A gaping black hole for a mouth. His throat and wrists slit. An old-fashioned straight razor in his lap.

MacReady turns off the hissing radio, and marches to the other door. It is locked and barricaded.

DR. COPPER

(more to himself)

My God, what in hell happened here?

MAC READY

Come on, Copper.

The two men free a machine-like obstacle from the other exit. MacReady opens lock and pushes the door open. More blackness. Stronger wind. Copper holds the lantern high as they make their way down a row of wooden steps and into a cavernous, underground causeway.

MAC READY

(continuing)

Hey, Sweden!!!

DR. COPPER

(irritated)

They're not Swedish, goddamn it, they're Norwegian, MacRe....

Whap!!!!!! Something slaps into the Doctor's face from the darkness. The lantern crashes to the ground. The Doctor stumbles, falls. MacReady grabs the flashlight and whirls in different directions. A panting beat. Silence.

Dr. Copper holds up what hit him. A thick centerfold, buffeted by the wind. MacReady takes it.

MAC READY

Norwegian of the Month, Doc.
Harmless.

MacReady pockets it for further viewing.

42 INT. THE NARROWEST OF CORRIDORS

42

The supporting beams have long since buckled and cracked from the constantly moving ice underneath. The evidence of fire has further weakened the foundations. The wood creaks overhead. Bits of ice and silt trickle down.

The two men walk haunched, cautious. MacReady gingerly tries to make his way around a broken and smoldering beam. He brushes it gently sending a shower of debris from the yawning roof.

The two men wait until it subsides and then move on.

Further down. MacReady's knee bumps into something along the wall, causing him to stumble slightly. He shines his light on it.

An arm is sticking out of a steel door about three feet off the ground. The door has been slammed shut. The arm pinned. Its fist still gripping a small welding torch. The flame long since gone out.

MAC READY

(wincing)

Holy shit....

He tries the door. Unlocked. It opens. The arm drops to the ground. It had been severed by the force of the slam. Its owner is nowhere to be seen.

MacReady, sickened, coughs. Dr. Copper mumbles.

DR. COPPER

Christ....

They step over the arm and into another slim passageway. Moving along they come to rest in front of a door with Norwegian lettering on it.

MacReady pushes it open with his foot. Dozens of papers fly about, flailed by the holes in the Quonset hut-style roof. The place is a wreck. They enter. MacReady surveying the small room with his flashlight.

DR. COOPER

(continuing)

...Laboratory.

Broken beakers, test tubes, a microscope are illuminated. MacReady notices a video camera.

42 CONTINUED

42

MAC READY
Portable video unit.

Copper makes his way over to the main work table. He shuffles through papers, glancing at the writing.

MAC READY
(continuing) Anything?

DR. COPPER
All in Norwegian.

Dr. Copper bends down and begins gathering the papers, strewn about the room.

MAC READY
What are you doing?

DR. COPPER
Could be important work. Might as well bring it back.

MAC READY
It's getting late. Hurry it.
I'm going to check the last few rooms.

He exits. Amongst the rubble, Dr. Copper finds a pocket tape recorder and several cassettes. He selects a tape and is about to pop it in when he senses something to his rear. He turns. Looks. A beat. Nothing.

43 INT. HALLWAY

43

MacReady shoves himself into another room.

44 INT. ROOM

44

Debris and wood flush down on him. The receding ceiling had been blocking the door from above. He brushes his coat and shines the light upwards.

The ceiling is a shambles. He then shines the light deeper into the room.

45 INT. NORWEGIAN LAB

45

Dr. Copper is playing the small tape recorder. A casual Norwegian voice drones on as if making notes. He fast forwards. The same casual drone.

MAC READY (o.s.)
Copper, come here!!

46 INT. ROOM

46

Dr. Copper enters, squeezing in, through the door. The wood cracks overhead. More debris comes falling down.

MAC READY

Careful. It's about to go.

Copper dusts himself. MacReady stands before a huge block of ice. Fifteen feet long. Six feet wide. Four feet tall.

It has partially melted, but its thawing process has been stopped by the now freezing temperatures within the outpost.

Its one curious feature: the middle has been thawed and scuppered out. Giving it the appearance of a large bathtub. The two men study it uncomprehendingly.

MacReady's gaze turns to a large metal cabinet at his left. He moves for a closer look. Several photographs are pasted to its door. Small snapshots of the Norwegians at work and play.

He tries to open it. Stuck. The partially caved-in ceiling is slightly blocking the top of the door. He tries again, careful not to dislodge the wood and plaster above. Bits of dust float down.

DR. COPPER

Watch it.

His grip is too strong. It gives suddenly, unexpectedly. The large metal door flies open.

Large chunks splash from the ceiling. They come thumping to the floor, behind and in front of the open cabinet door. MacReady coughs and waves away the dust. He peers inside. Nothing much. Some empty shelves. Some small scientific gear.

His flashlight then locates a large photograph taped to the inside of the cabinet door.

It is a picture of five Norwegians, arm in arm, all smiles, toasting each other. They are on either side of the frozen block of ice, pridefully displaying it for the camera. The block looks much thicker. Its interior opaque.

MacReady looks to the block of ice and then back to the photograph. He untapes it, pockets it and shuts the door.

46

An armless corpse swings into his face from behind the closing door. Dislodged from the ceiling, the body and MacReady go crashing to the floor.

CUT TO

47 INT. U.S. OUTPOST - RECREATION ROOM

47

The loud beat of Warren Zevon's song, "The Werewolves of London," can be heard throughout the compound. The room is empty. Close on a video pong game, its ball of light lazily traveling back and forth. The dog, its tail wagging, its bandage on, walks by.

48 INT. KITCHEN

48

Zevon's record is blasting from Nauls' stereo. He skates from the big walk-in freezer and plunks down a large side of beef on the wood-cutting table to thaw. He skates from pot to pan keeping time with his sounds.

He smells. Tastes. Adds a little something here, a touch there. He clearly enjoys his work.

Station Manager Garry stops past the open door.

GARRY

Turn that crap down, Nauls. You can hear it all over camp!

NAULS

Oui, Bwana. Can do.

He skates over and turns it down, but not much.

49 INT. COMMUNICATIONS ROOM

49

Garry enters and sees that Sanchez has nodded off in front of his receiver. His headgear is still on. Garry walks over and turns up the volume, the static jolting Sanchez awake.

CONTINUED

SANCHEZ

Hey, man...!

GARRY

You reach anybody yet?

SANCHEZ

We're a thousand miles from anybody else, man. It's going to get a hell of a lot worse before it gets better.

GARRY

Well, stick to it.

An empty hallway. Larger than most. Doors to several sleeping quarters on either side. The dog slowly walks through.

One of the doors is open up ahead to his left. The dog stops in front of it and looks in. Someone is inside.

Inside the small cubicle, a slight portion of a man's back can be seen as he sits bent over a chair; his large shadow displayed on the wall.

Back in the corridor. The dog looks up the hall once and casually to the other end. No one. He enters the room. [The sound of a man's voice, too indistinct to tell whose, mumbles a, "Hello boy." A beat.

The sound of a glass breaking. A muffled scuffling. The door is slammed shut from the inside. And then silence.]

56 INT. MAIN COMPOUND - HALLWAY

56

Blair passing through, holding a chart and carrying a rack of test tubes, notices a large bandage on the floor. He picks it up, inquiringly. It is mangled and shredded.

57 INT. GENERATOR ROOM

57

Palmer works on the generator. He hears the sound of approaching propeller blades from outside. And then the sound of his tool box crashing to the floor. He turns to see what caused the ruckus.

The dog, who has entered the shed, has jumped on the work table and upended the tool box in its eagerness to look out of the above window. Palmer curses under his breath and calls out.

PALMER

Clark! Will you kennel this goddamn dog?

(bangs wrench against pipe)

Hey, Clark!!

58 THE DOG

58

It paws at the window and watches as the chopper, carrying MacReady and Dr. Copper, fights against the newly arrived heavy winds and lands safely.

Garry, MacReady, Dr. Copper, Norris, Bennings, Blair and his assistant, Fuchs, are present. The small Norwegian video unit has been set up and its contents are being viewed on a TV screen. Grainy, home movie-ish, no sound. The proceedings are grim.

Shots of the Norwegians at work. Others of them playing soccer on ice. Generally the footage is a prosaic record of their day-to-day life.

Norris shuffles the bundle of notes Dr. Copper brought back with him.

NORRIS

...Seems they were spending a lot of time at a place four miles northeast of their camp.

GARRY

What were they involved in?

MacReady, working on the video machine, answers.

MAC READY

Little ice core drilling...some seismology...glaciology...same old shit we do.

The present footage is a shot of them all naked and probably drunk, holding a sign across their waists as they stand outdoors in super-freezing weather.

BENNINGS

How much more of this crap is there?

DR. COPPER

About nine more hours.

BENNINGS

We can't learn anything from this.

Probably right.

59 CONTINUED

59

MacReady turns on the light and shuts off the video machine. He then slides the portable tape deck across the table to Dr. Copper. They exchange a look.

DR. COPPER

(continuing)

MacReady and I were listening to some of these cassettes on the way back.

(somberly)

Like you gentlemen to hear it.

A Norwegian voice drones on calmly, making verbal notes. Norris shrugs.

BENNINGS

What do you want from us?

MAC READY

(flat)

Just listen.

Dr. Copper fast forwards. The calm voice continues. And then a loud blast, followed by a pounding. The sounds of confusion. Voices. Loud. Frenetic. Men's feet running up and down wooden floorboards. A gurgling. A hissing. Screams. And then a screeching. More blasts mixed with the din of wild, carnage-wrought cries. And then more screeching. A screeching unlike anything these men have ever heard.

The men look from one another in silence as they listen. Dr. Copper turns it off.

DR. COPPER

Goes on like that quite awhile.

(beat)

What do you gentlemen make of it?

GARRY

Could be anything...Men in isolation
...some beef that snowballed...got out of hand....

NORRIS

Maybe the whole camp got bent...
Something they ate. What about food poisoning, Doc?

59

Dr. Copper taps the tape deck pensively.

DR. COPPER

Maybe.

He glances at MacReady, and then back to the others.

DR. COPPER

(continuing)

There's something else we want you to see.

60 INT. INFIRMARY

60

Dr. Copper and MacReady begin dumping the heavy contents of a large plastic trash bag onto the slab.

DR. COPPER

We found this.

Displayed on the slab is what appears to be the corpse of a man. Badly charred. What is left of the trousers and shoes of the bottom torso are ripped and split, as if his legs and feet had burst from the inside. His upper body is an almost undecipherable gnarled mass of protoplasmic mush.

The head is strangely disfigured and looks larger than normal. It is situated not on its shoulders but near the abdomen. Tendon-like appendages are wrapped around the carcass and sticking up and out in odd postures. One is wrapped around the body's left leg.

The shirt has been ripped and lies shredded in the tar-like mess.

The men grimace.

DR. COPPER

(continuing)

I know he's pretty badly burned... but could fire have done this?

Blair, sickened but fascinated, pokes at the tendon-like things and the tarry goo.

DR. COPPER

Blair, I'd like you and Fuchs to help me with autopsies on this one and the one Garry shot this morning.

61 INT. REC ROOM - LATER - CLOSE ON A TABLE HOCKEY GAME 61

Foosball. Nauls and Clark are going at it hot and heavy.

Sanchez sits off in a corner thumbing through an old issue of Photoplay.

Bennings, Norris and Garry are engaged in a card game. Bennings is about to play a card when he feels something under the table. He looks. It is the dog.

BENNINGS

Clark, will you put this mutt with the others where he belongs?!

62 INT. LAB 62

larger than most of the other rooms and well-equipped. Dr. Cooper is performing an autopsy on the Norwegian intruder, killed early that morning.

Blair sits over his microscope, while Fuchs prepares slides. The other body is draped with a sheet, waiting its turn. Dr. Copper pulls off his gloves.

DR. COPPER

Nothing wrong with this one.
Physiologically, anyway.

(to Blair)

Find anything toxic?

BLAIR

No drugs...alcohol. Nothing.

63 INT. TUNNEL 63

Clark leads the dog through the long, cold tunnel toward the kennel. A new dressing has been placed on its hip.

He unlatches the door to the kennel and leads him in.

64 INT. KENNEL 64

About twenty feet long, five feet wide. Poorly lit. Cramped with dogs. Some of them sleeping. Others pacing around and

65 INT. SLEEPING CUBICLE

65

Childs lies in his cot watching a small television. The show is a tape of an American TV game show. He has seen this one too many times, extracts the cassette and injects another game show.

Palmer is stretched out in the other cot, reading a comic book and smoking a joint. Childs beckons for it and takes a hit.

66 INT. PUB

66

A small area, just off the rec room. Set up like a bar. MacReady is alone looking over the rest of the videotapes from the Norwegian outpost. Mundane to esoteric chores of Antarctic camp life.. He looks bored.

67 INT. LAB

67

Blair, hovering over the microscope, lays in a slide, focuses and motions for Dr. Copper to take a look.

Copper is confused as he examines. He shrugs.

DR. COPPER

I don't understand.

Fuchs takes the opportunity to look. Blair moves over to the disfigured corpse and indicates one of the fibrous, tendon-like appendages.

BLAIR

It's tissue from one of these siney rods.

Fuchs is befuddled as he examines.

FUCHS

What in the world kind of cell structure is this?

67

BLAIR

That's the point.

(tired)

I don't get you, Blair.

BLAIR

I'm not sure it is any kind of cell structure. Biologically speaking.

DR. COPPER

(sighing)

This really isn't my field, Blair. Let's wrap for the day.

Dr. Copper undoes his lab coat and lays it over a chair as he exits. Blair stares down ominously at the mutilated body.

68 EXT. COMPOUND - NIGHT

68

A steady stream of sleet pounds the compound and small surrounding shacks.

69 INT. REC ROOM

69

Vacant. The wall clock reads four-thirty.

70 INT. HALLWAY

70

Sleeping cubicles on either side. The sound of snoring.

71 INT. PUB

71

Bleary-eyed, MacReady is in the process of blowing up some strange inflatable object. As he puffs away, he still keeps an eye on the Norwegian video tapes. His balloon begins to take shape. It blossoms into a life-size replica of a full-breasted woman. Something on the tape catches his eye. He rewinds, then starts it forward again.

71

The screen shows the Norwegians on the surface of what appears to be an enormous, flat glacier. They are spread out on the ice around a large odd oval shape; their arms outstretched.

It fades to black and then a Norwegian comes on mugging childishly in front of the camera, apparently quite pleased with something.

The tape fades to black again and the picture reappears. This time they have marked off the large oval area with flag sticks.

Closer shots show three of the men digging a deep hole into the ice. There is a small patch of something dark and metallic at the bottom.

MacReady leans forward, intrigued.

The men are now sinking something deep into the ice at various points around the markings. MacReady squints and mumbles to himself.

MAC READY
Decanite?...Thermite charges?...

The tape jump cuts again showing a long shot of the markings. No Norwegian in sight. An explosion kicks up the ice. A beat as the ice sprays to the ground. Then the camera appears to shake as the ground beneath it quivers.

Another immense explosion follows. An earthquake-like force throws the camera to the ground.

MAC READY
(continuing)
What in....

The tape continues, distorted, unviewable. A distinct crack in the lens. MacReady lets go of his companion and quickly rewinds. The deflating mannequin is sent sputtering around the room.

72 INT. KENNEL - NIGHT

72

Most of the dogs are sleeping or lounging. The new dog watches them calmly, silently.

72

He takes several steps towards a group of about five dogs and sits upright. Completely still. He stares at them. A beat. The dogs are aware of something. They begin to seem a bit confused, uncomfortable.

The new dog continues to stare. Sitting rigidly, unnaturally still. His eyes dead, lusterless black spheres.

Bewildered, a few dogs start to pace. As if sensing something: a portent. A danger. But so odd. They begin a soft, purring growl.

The new dog remains a statue. The growling builds. More dogs begin to pace. Nervously. Faster, encircling. Emitting hisses, snarls. The lack of response driving them into a frenzy.

Barks. Growls. More frenetic pacing. The din escalating. Three dogs start to close in on the stranger. They attack.

73 THE SHADOW OF THE NEW DOG against the kennel wall. The shadow suddenly lurches upward, seeming larger.

The kennel roars.

74 INT. PUB

74

MacReady is still going over bits of the same footage, fascinated. He hears the far-off clamor of the dogs.

75 INT. NAULS' QUARTERS

75

He, too, bothered by the noise, tosses and turns in his sleep.

76 INT. CLARK'S QUARTERS

76

Clark snores. MacReady has entered.

MAC READY

Clark.

76

No response. MacReady nudges him. Clark rolls away, annoyed. MacReady pinches his snoring nose, cutting off the air. Clark sits up, groggy.

MAC READY

(continuing)

Dogtown's going nuts. Take care of it.

77 INT. TUNNEL

77

Clark, sleepy, irritated, makes his way down the freezing corridor. The wind sougning loudly overhead.

78 CLARK

78 reaches the kennel door. The savage outpouring of noise from within baffles and angers him. He unlatches the door.

CLARK

What's got into....

Smack! Just as he opens the door, two dogs, as if jettisoned from a cannon, knock him off his feet. Growls, barks, snarls. And a screeching from within.

79 INT. KITCHEN

79

MacReady is fetching himself a beer. The sound of the far-off screeching. He freezes. A beat. He turns and sprints.

80 HIS BEER CAN

80 as it smashes the glass of the fire alarm. He pulls the lever.

81 INT. TUNNEL

81

The alarm is blaring throughout the camp. MacReady, Garry, Norris run through the narrow tunnel led by Clark. MacReady carries a shotgun. Garry, half-dressed, has his .44. Clark, a fire ax.

CLARK

I don't know what the hell's in there, but it's weird and pissed off, whatever it is.

82 INT. HALLWAY

82

Chaos. Men, half-naked, bounce from their cubicles. Pulling on their pants, digging into shoes.

83 INT. CHILDS' CUBICLE

83

Childs is grappling with his belt buckle.

CHILDs

Mac wants the what??

BENNINGS

(at the doorway)

That's what he said. Now! Move!

Bennings is off.

84 INT. TUNNEL

84 as the men approach the locked kennel door. The two dogs, thrown into Clark, bark ferociously and scratch at the door trying to get back in. One is badly bloodied.

The fight inside rages on. MacReady and Clark brace themselves by the narrow door. Norris and Garry hold back the two hysterical dogs. Clark undoes the latch and he and MacReady enter the kennel.

The light has been broken and it is pitch black. MacReady snaps on his flashlight. Norris and Garry can't contain their animals and the dogs burst into the room. They smash into MacReady and send him sprawling. Total confusion: the dogs; the men; the screeching; the blackness.

CLARK

Mac, where are you?

MacReady gropes for his flashlight and rights himself. He finds Clark. Then shines it around the cramped room trying to get his bearings.

The light finds a mass of dogs in a wild melee in the corner.

84

Barking mixed with hissing, a gurgling, a screeching. Dogs being hurled about and then charging back into the fray with a vengeance.

The flashlight illuminates parts of some "thing." A dog. But not quite. Impossible to tell. It struggles powerfully. Garry pokes his head into the blackness.

GARRY

What's going on, damn it?

MacReady aims his shotgun at the entire pack.

MAC READY

I'm going to shoot.

CLARK

No! Wait!!

Clark wades into the pack, grabs at dogs' hides and throws them back. He then wields his ax into the fray, chopping and hacking away at the gurgling, hissing silhouette.

From out of nowhere, a large, bristly, arachnid-like leg springs up and wraps around Clark's ax. It sends Clark smashing violently into the wall.

85 OUTSIDE

85

More men running, nearing the kennel. Several squeezing in with Garry, trying to get a look.

86 INSIDE

86

MacReady fires several rounds. A dog is flung at him, knocking him and his flashlight once more to the ground.

Garry squeezes in and begins blasting away in the direction of the hissing and screeching. A dog is hit. MacReady crawls for his flashlight.

MAC READY

Clark? Where are you? Clark!

Blam. Blam. Garry continues firing at the silhouette.

87 INT. TUNNEL

Childs, huffing and puffing, lugs the huge industrial torch toward the crowded kennel doorway.

MAC READY (o.s.)

Childs, you got that torch? You

88 INT. KENNEL

Childs scrunches in, disoriented by the blackness, and bumps into Garry, knocking him off balance.

CHILDS

Where are you?

MacReady signals with his flashlight and then points it at the gathering of snarling dogs.

MAC READY

Torch it over there!

CHILDS

The dogs?

MAC READY

Screw the dogs!! Torch it!!

Childs lets loose with a burst of blue flame. A mewing, a screeching.

Part of the kennel starts to burn.

GARRY

(panic)

We're on fire!

MAC READY

Don't let up, Childs!

GARRY

(to outside)

Extinguishers.

Childs moves closer, continuing his assault on the hissing, gurgling presence.

Men charge into the room and begin spraying dogs and burning walls. Dogs and men choke and cough amidst the smoke and CO<sub>2</sub>.

The screeching lessens. The hissing and gurgling fade. Childs turns off his torch.

CUT TO

89 INT. REC ROOM - NEXT MORNING

89

Those of the men that have gathered exhibit a pale and quiet uneasiness.

Blair, in silent awe, stands over the badly burned corpses of two interlocking dogs, that lie before him on a table.

They are connected as if they were one animal. Though, the one wearing the remnants of Clark's bandage is much larger and appears less doglike. Its entire torso is cracked and peeled, as if its innards were trying to burst out.

Odd appendages, recoiled and withered by the flame, are wrapped grotesquely about both bodies.

Clark, his eyes set in glassy stare, sits in shock. Nauls comforts him. Childs stands nearby smoking a joint and staring at the floor.

Blair, transfixed, continues hovering over the united cadavers. Weighing. Thinking. A very worried look on his face.

The dead bodies of two other dogs from the kennel are not far off.

90 INT. INFIRMARY

90

Fuchs is attending to the shredded bodies of three other badly wounded dogs.

91 INT. REC ROOM

Nauls pats Clark on the shoulder and grins, trying to pick up his spirits.

NAULS

It's okay now, man. It's dead.

It's over.

(to Clark

You see.

Clark turns to him with a childlike smile.

CLARK

I know. Mr. Childs killed it.

I saw.

NAULS

Right, man. Right.

92 INT. SMALL WORKROOM

92

Norris is going through some maps. MacReady is bent over his shoulder. Norris finds the one he's looking for.

NORRIS

Here. This is where they were spending most of their time.

Bennings pokes his head in the room.

BENNINGS

Pretty nasty out, Mac. Thirty-five knots.

MAC READY

Screw it, I'm going up anyway.

93 INT. MAIN COMPOUND - MORNING

93

Station Manager Garry has joined Blair by the stuck-together bodies. Blair motions to the bandage.

BLAIR

Wasn't anything that got in from the outside. Was that dog. The Norwegian dog.

GARRY

I just can't comprehend any of this. It was just a dog.

CHILDS

(evenly)

'Tweren't no dog, Bwana.

BLAIR

That tape MacReady showed us this morning....

GARRY

Couldn't make much of it myself.

BLAIR

I've asked him to try and locate the site. Okay with you?

GARRY

Sure. You think there's a connection?

BLAIR

Maybe.

94 EXT. CHOPPER

high above the Antarctic expanse.

95 INT. CHOPPER 95

MacReady pilots. Young Palmer and Norris are with him. It is clear but the winds are troublesome. The ride is a shaky one. Norris refers to their map. He points.

NORRIS

One of their sites would be directly over here.

They aim for a large mountainous wall. As they go up and over...they see:

96 A FLAT, GLACIAL EXPANSE 96

On the surface, an enormous blackened oval shape.

97 INT. U.S. OUTPOST #31 - LAB 97

All the bodies of the dogs have been brought in. Fuchs stands by as Blair studies through his microscope.

98 INSERT - A MICROSCOPIC SAMPLING 98

of two cells. They appear to be much different from each other. They are joined at the ends but are completing the process of breaking off from each other.

99 ON BLAIR 99

A disturbed look on his face. He checks his watch, as if timing the procedure.

100 EXT. GLACIER - TRACKING WITH MAC READY, NORRIS AND PALMER 100

as they walk along the ice. They come to a stop at the edge of a sharp drop.

Pull back to reveal -- the massive black hole about fifteen feet beneath the ice. Charred, gnarled and mangled metal are all that is left of what was once an enormous sphere.

MacReady's and Norris' eyes meet each other in silence. Palmer is in awe.

PALMER

Wow....

MacReady finds a burnt thermite canister. He and Norris climb down.

100

They move along amongst the wreck. Almost everything but the skeletal superstructure has disintegrated into a fine ashy powder.

Norris digs for ice samples at the perimeter of the wreckage, while MacReady browses through the center.

Palmer continues to marvel, as he walks around the oval, atop the ice.

MacReady returns and kneels down next to Norris as the latter examines a piece of metal.

NORRIS

Magnesium of some type...or some kind of strange alloy.

(looks out at debris in disgust)

And those poor dumb bastards had to go and blow the hell out of it.

MAC READY

So what do you make of it?

NORRIS

You know damn well what we both make of it.

MAC READY

No chance it could have been some new kind of test craft?

Norris shakes his head no.

NORRIS

Seismic activity has been pushing this area up from way down for a long time...

(holds up ice sample)

...This ice it was buried in...It's over a hundred thousand years old.

Palmer calls out, waving them over.

101 EXT. GLACIER

Fascinated, a few of the men are reviewing the Norwegian video tapes of the finding of the mysterious craft. MacReady sits quietly by his chess set contemplating a large glass of Scotch. Clark, less interested than the others, is flipping through the Norwegian nudie magazine.

Blair, looking worried, sits off in a corner, pondering the photo of the block of ice and fingering a piece of crumbled-up metal brought back from the site.

Childs, viewing the tapes, can't quite believe it all.

CHILDs

Okay now, Mac, run this by me again.
Thousands of years ago this rocket ship crashes, right?...And the....

MacReady is not listening.

MacReady!

MAC READY

Nauls, about to prepare dinner, scowls as he rummages through his many cabinets.

NAULs

Where's that big ol' steel pot of Blair says nothing, lost in thought.

Palmer, stoned, a joint dangling from his mouth, is searching for information through stacks of old issues of The National Enquirer and The Star.

PALMER

(rambling)

Happens all the time, man. They're falling out of the skies like flies. Government knows all about it...Chariots of the Gods, man... They practically own South America. I mean they taught the Incas everything they knew....

CHILDS

Cool it, Palmer!!

Palmer shakes a magazine at him adamantly.

PALMER

Read von Daniken! Have you read von Daniken? Get your facts straight!

Clark marvels at a particular photo.

CLARK

Jesus, why would those guys ever want to leave Norway...?

Nauls skates into the room. He shakes the crumpled-up pair of long johns in his fist.

NAULS

Which one you muthers been tossing his dirty underwear in the kitchen trash?!

He flings it across the room. It lands on MacReady's chess set.

NAULS

I want my kitchen clean. Germ

Nauls spins on his skates and storms off. MacReady fetches the strangely shredded underwear and rolls it up, while Childs paces.

CHILDS

So, MacReady, come on now. These Norwegian dudes come by...find him and dig him up....

MacReady tosses the ball of cloth across the room into a trash bin.

MAC READY

Yeah, they dig him up and cart him back. He gets thawed out, wakes up and scares the shit out of them.
And they get into one hell of a brawl....

CHILDS

Now how's this motherfucker wake up after thousands of years in the ice, huh?

MAC READY

(annoyed)

I don't know how. Because he's different than we are. Because he's a space guy. What do you want from me, anyway. Go ask Blair.

CHILDS

You buy any of this, Blair?

Well, isn't it?

103 INT. LAB - CLOSE ON A SHEET

as Blair rips it off exposing the tangled mess of interlocking dogs.

Pull back. All the men have gathered. Some of the men settle into chairs, others stand.

BLAIR

Whatever that Norwegian dog was...
It...It was capable of changing its form...

(indicates their dog)

...when it attacked our dog...it somehow was able to digest...or... or absorb it...and in the process shaped its own cells to imitate our dog's cells exactly...

(holds up gooey dog leg)

...This for instance isn't dog at all -- it's imitation...We got to it before it had time to finish or....

NAULS

Finish what?

BLAIR

...I think the whole process would have taken an hour...maybe more.
And then I suppose both would have changed back to dog form.

Of course not...But whenever it was revived, it...Well, The Thing was probably disoriented...and realized it couldn't survive for long in our atmosphere...But being the incredibly adaptable creature it was...it tried to become something that could...Before the Norwegians killed it...it somehow got to this dog.

CLARK

What do you mean 'got' to the dog?

BLAIR

It was a life form that was able to imitate and reproduce, whatever it ate or absorbed, cell for cell.

Silence.

BLAIR

The concept is staggering. I know...I...I don't fully understand it myself.

CHILDS

(skeptically, points)

You're saying...that big muther in the ice, became that dog.

BLAIR

(nodding)

I think we're talking about an organism...that could imitate other life forms...perfectly...It could have gone on and on...It could have become one dog...It could have become as many dogs as it wanted to -- and without losing any of its original mass....

NORRIS

You been into Childs' weed, Blair?

Blair slams his fist on the slab.

BLAIR

MAC READY
And the horse you rode in on, Fuchs.

Light it up.

Childs lights the tip. Fuchs makes a determined move for the

FUCHS
Well, I'm not going to let this

Childs struggles with him for a beat and then flings him to the ground. Dr. Copper grabs him preventing him from getting back up.

Childs splays the remains with a jet of flame. Fuchs shakes his head in frustration and disgust.

FUCHS
I just can't believe it...We're going

The night feeding. Clark dishes out the food. Blair is taking blood samples from the remaining three dogs.

BLAIR

(perplexed; bothered)

Clark, did you notice anything strange about that dog? Just anything at all? Any little thing?

CLARK

No. Just that he recovered real quick...That night when I found him in the rec room, he had already scraped off his bandage. Before I put him with the others, I redressed his wound and noticed it had healed up real good....

A beat as Blair stares at Clark.

BLAIR

That night?

CLARK

(pets dog vigorously)

Yeah.

BLAIR

What was he doing in the rec room?

CLARK

Well, after I worked on him -- thought I'd let him rest. Left the room for a bit. When I came back, he was gone.

BLAIR

Well, where was he? Where did he go?

CLARK

Don't know. Looked for him for a bit...couldn't find him.

You're saying he wasn't put into the kennel until the night?

Clark seems uneasy under Blair's intense gaze.

BLAIR

How long were you with the dog?
Alone, I mean?

CLARK

Ah...He was hurt bad. Bullet nicked an artery...I don't know...An hour
...hour and a half....

Blair's eyes glaze as if in revelation.

CLARK

(continuing)

What the hell you looking at me like that for?

BLAIR

Nothing. Nothing at all.

He backs out of the kennel.

106 INT. HALLWAY - COMPOUND

Irritated, harrassed, station manager Garry moves briskly down the hall. Blair, worried and pale, tries to keep up with him.

BLAIR

...It could have gotten to somebody....

GARRY

Anybody sick?

BLAIR

No, I...I don't mean infection... or disease....

Garry stops at the entrance to the communications room.

GARRY

Any luck yet?

Sanchez shrugs.

SANCHEZ

Bennings interrupts, entering the hallway, referring to his meteorological chart.

BENNINGS

(to Garry)

Travel-wise, tomorrow may be okay. But after that some pretty nasty northeasterly shit's coming in.

FUCHS

...Goddamn fools....

The men from outside come stomping through the hallway.

BLAIR

(pleading)

Listen to me, Garry. Please....

GARRY

(to MacReady)

If the weather clears enough before we reach anybody -- I'm sending you and the Doc up to MacMurdo....

BLAIR

No! You can't let people leave....

MAC READY

I ain't going anywhere in anything over forty knots, Garry....

Close on Blair, ashen-faced, falling silent. As if in a daze,

Far away from the others, MacReady sits in his little hovel putting the final screw into his mended chess set. On the other side of the set, his busty, inflatable companion has been propped up in a chair. His sombrero hangs down her back, keeping her in place. Hawaiian music plays from his

All set.

MAC READY

Aw shit.

He flips open the circuitry panel in disgust. He tosses his screwdriver on the board and grabs his drink, downing it.

MAC READY

Sorry, hon.

He reaches inside his ice bucket. Empty.

MAC READY

(continuing)

Never any damn ice around here....

111 EXT. MAC READY'S CABIN - NIGHT

MacReady exits. He swacks at a nearby bank of ice with a small ice pick.

MAC READY

Now in Mexico...Tahiti...They got ice...They got ice coming out of their ears.

The sound of a clanking. He turns his attention. Metal against metal. Strange. MacReady listens. It appears to be coming from far off below, near the camp.

112 MAC READY 112

as he makes his way down with the aid of the steadying ropes. The clanking louder now. He senses the direction.

114 INT. CHOPPER 114

MacReady slips in. He turns on a flashlight. The controls have been mangled. Beaten with something heavy. Bang!! MacReady, startled, turns. Like the sound of a gun. Coming from the main compound.

115 INT. COMPOUND - MAIN ENTRANCE 115

Confusion. Shouts. MacReady enters. He grabs Palmer as he and Bennings rush by.

MAC READY

What's....

PALMER

Blair. He's gone berserk.

BENNINGS

He's in the radio room. Got a gun. Beat on Sanchez something fierce.

116 HALLWAY - RADIO ROOM ENTRANCE 116

The men are on either side of the open radio room doorway. Garry peeks his head in. A gunshot blast forces him back.

Childs runs up, out of breath.

Garry readies his large .357 Magnum.

MAC READY

No, wait a minute.

(to Norris)

The fuse box.

Norris double-times down the hall.

MacReady turns the corner and into the rec room. He grabs one of the thick card tables.

MacReady returns with the table to the hallway.

BLAIR

...Can't you see?..If one cell of this Thing got out it could imitate every living thing on Earth. Noth-

MAC READY

(humoring)

Look, Blair, maybe you're right about this. But we've got to be rational.
We've got to talk this over. I'm Norris smiles and pats him comfortingly.

MacReady is writing down what appears to be a list on a pad.

DR. COPPER

How long do you suppose they've been gone?

CLARK

I haven't seen them since their last feeding. Could be as much as twenty-four hours.

MAC READY

They couldn't have gotten that far

Garry and several others turn to MacReady quizzically.

GARRY

You're not thinking of going after them, are you?

CONTINUED

MAC READY

I am going after them.

NORRIS

What in hell for? Even if Blair's right -- they'll just die out there. No food. They're over a thousand miles from anything.

PALMER

Choppers aren't going to be ready for days.

MacReady hands his list to Bennings.

MAC READY

Get these things out of supply and meet me over by the snowmobiles.

GARRY

You're not going to catch them in one of those with the start they got.

MAC READY

Palmer, how long would it take you to strap those big four-cylinder carburetors on?

PALMER

Oh, I got you. Not too long.

MAC READY

Pull back. The stream has shot out some fifteen feet.
Childs has been modifying it.

CHILDS

I can get maybe another five or six feet out of it.

MAC READY

That's good enough.

supplies.

BENNINGS

All right...Box of dynamite...box box of flares...two flare guns... thirty cans gasoline...and a case of alcohol.

MAC READY

Let's load 'em.

MacReady follows the line of continuing dog tracks.

MAC READY

Maybe dinner.

BENNINGS

Dogs don't eat each other.

MAC READY

CHILDs

Where's the other half?

MAC READY

Mac.

BENNINGS

Gonna get dark soon, too. Supposed

MacReady gets in and revs up the engine.

MAC READY

Childs and Bennings return shrugs.

MacReady surveys the new direction. They are headed toward a far-off ridge of bluffs. Large, windswept mounds of ice.

CUT TO

143 THE SNOWMOBILES

143

as they move through a valley of newly-formed dunes and tall ice cliffs. The last of the sun obscured, the headlamps are turned on and pointed at the tracks.

The men look behind, in front, and from side to side, as they proceed cautiously through the maze. Up ahead MacReady spots:

144 A DOG

144

It sits, its back to them, unconcerned, heedless of their arrival. It is munching on the other half of the dog carcass.

The men stop their machines some twenty yards from it. They are hemmed in at the valley's narrowest point.

Childs, carrying the torch, and MacReady, armed with a thermite bomb, wade awkwardly but carefully toward the animal in their snowshoes. Bennings stands back by the snowmobiles.

Childs and MacReady spread out some dozen feet from the dog. It continues to pay them no mind, content to chew its food.

CHILDS

Where's the other one?

Bennings surveys the tops of the snow bluffs that encircle them with his flashlight.

MAC READY

(to dog)

Where's your buddy, boy? Huh?

No response. MacReady searches the near vicinity with his light. All three are growing uneasy.

MAC READY

(continuing)

Let that thing fly, Childs. Don't let up until he's ash.

Childs turns on the gas and lights the tip.

Bennings is still watching the bluffs. Something from beneath the snow reaches up and grabs his feet. He is ripped back down through the hard snow in one incredibly powerful motion. He screams, his head the only thing sticking out of the ice.

Childs and MacReady turn, confused, unable to see anything but Bennings' screaming head. They rush toward him. MacReady stumbles.

The sound of a snapping, a crackling to MacReady's rear. He freezes; turns back to the dog. Its back is still to him; its coat of hair sticking up like that of a porcupine. It snarls; its face turns slowly toward him. Its skin splitting; its mouth ripping open wildly.

MAC READY

Childs!!

144

Childs stops, confused as to who to help first. He notices the dog haunched and ready to spring. He steps back toward MacReady. The dog/Thing leaps for MacReady; an incredible jump of some twenty feet.

Childs lets loose a blast, hitting the dog in midair; the force of the spray knocking it back and tumbling to the ice in flames.

MacReady throws his thermite canister. It discharges and engulfs the screeching animal in fire.

145 BENNINGS

145

howling in pain. The ice underneath him thrashes violently. Childs and MacReady stand by helplessly, unable to see what has him or what action to take. Childs moves closer to help.

MAC READY

(pulls him back)

Stay back!!

Bennings' head disappears with a sudden jerk through the ice. The ice continues to rumble like boiling water, moving in different directions. Part of Bennings' body pops up in a different area and is just as quickly pulled back down.

MacReady and Childs watch on in frustration and anger.

CHILDS

What we going to do?!

MAC READY

How the fuck do I know?!

Bennings' head and shoulders then surface near one of the snowmobiles. Something has him. Unclear as to what. The jowls of a dog. But huge. Bennings' heavy clothing begins to rip, tear, as if his skin underneath was bulging out. The jowls seem to be absorbing his head.

MacReady runs for the snowmobile.

MAC READY

Torch them!!

CHILDS

But....

MAC READY

He's gone already! Do it!

145

Childs blasts away. The ice begins to melt as Bennings and whatever has him catch fire. A screeching.

MacReady grabs cans of gas from the snowmobiles. Suddenly a steel-like, arachnid-shaped arm shoots out in pain and with incredible force pierces the fiber glass chassis of the snowmobile. MacReady is knocked back. He recovers and dumps cans of gasoline on the writhing mess.

He dives and rolls away from the lunging appendage.

He and Childs watch on as Bennings and The Thing roar in flame. Behind them, the other dog/Thing continues to burn. The screeching, mewling and gurgling wails on, all about them.

They look to each other in disbelief, their faces illuminated by the flickering flames. The strident sounds beginning to subside.

146 THE SUN

146

Its slim, orange arc sets, signaling the start of the Vernal Equinox. And the beginning of six months of darkness.

away)
...get that out of my face.

Childs grabs him by the collar and rips him off his chair.

CHILDS

Don't you be telling me....

Nauls steps between them.

NAULS

(to Childs)

Lighten your load, sucker. You ain't the judge and executioner around here!

CHILDS

Who you trying to protect, muther-fucker? I'm telling you this S.O.B. could be one of them.

Garry breaks it up, pulling them apart. MacReady enters from the outside. A bundle is tucked under his arm.

GARRY

Hold on, damn it. We're getting nowhere...If this bit of Blair's about absorbing and imitating is true...then that dog could have gotten to anybody.

DR. COPPER

And if it got to Clark...Clark could have gotten to anybody.

MacReady moves over to the table.

DR. COPPER

(continuing)

Theoretically any of us could be whatever the hell this thing is.

Norris shakes his head, rubbing his chest in slight discomfort.

NORRIS

It's just too damn wild -- I can't believe it.

MacReady pushes his sombrero back over his head.

MAC READY

Well, you can believe it now.

He drops the bundle he had been holding on the table between the men. It is the shredded pair of long johns.

MAC READY

(continuing)

Nauls found this yesterday. It's ripped just like the clothing on the Norwegian we brought back. The same thing was happening to Bennings' clothes when it got to him. Seems these Things don't imitate clothes. Just flesh and bone.

The men look from one another. Silence. MacReady picks it up and examines the label.

MAC READY

(continuing)

Size large.

(grins)

What do you wear, Clark?

Clark stews.

CLARK

So what?

NORRIS

I wear a size large, too.

MAC READY

SANCHEZ

(scared)

Well, what we going to do?

Norris turns to Dr. Copper and Fuchs.

NORRIS

Can there be...some kind of test? To find out who's what?

DR. COPPER

A serum test possibly.

FUCHS

Right. Why not?

GARY

What's that?

DR. COPPER

It's a simple blood typing test. This Thing's blood chemistry is different from ours. Basically we mix someone's blood with uncontaminated human blood. If we don't get the proper serum reaction -- then that person isn't human.

CHILDS

Whose uncontaminated blood we going to use?

DR. COPPER

We've got blood plasma in storage.

GARRY

How long will it take you to prepare this?

DR. COPPER

GARRY

Well, get to it.

Garry unhinges a key from his belt and hands it to Dr. Copper. Dr. Copper and Fuchs head for the infirmary.

PALMER

How'd that Thing get to the dogs?
I thought we stopped it in time.

MAC READY

Copper thinks they swallowed pieces of it during the fight.

PALMER

And that was enough?

DR. COPPER (o.s.)

Garry. The rest of you! Come here!

150 INT. INFIRMARY

The men rush in. Fuchs and Copper stand by the open plasma storage refrigerator. The inside is a mess of dried blood. The bladders have been ripped open. Copper is ghastly pale.

DR. COPPER

(continuing)

Somebody got to the blood...
sabotaged it.

NAULS

Oh, my God.

A horrified silence.

MAC READY

Was it broken into?

FUCHS

No. Somebody opened it. Closed
it. And then locked it.

CONTINUED

Sanchez twitches, terrified.

MAC READY

Well, who's got access to it?

DR. COPPER

I guess I'm the only one.

GARRY

And I've got the only key.

Several pairs of eyes turn to Garry.

MAC READY

Would that test have worked?

DR. COPPER

I think so.

NORRIS

Somebody else sure as hell thought so.

MAC READY

Who else could have used that key?

GARRY

Ah...no one...I give it to Copper when he needs it....

MAC READY

Could anyone have gotten it from you?

DR. COPPER

I don't see how...when I'm finished I return it right away.

NORRIS

When was the last time you used it?

CONTINUED

DR. COPPER

(uneasy)

A day or so ago...I guess.

Garry senses the nervous and inquiring eyes on him.

GARRY

I suppose...well, it's possible someone might have lifted it from me. But....

CHILDS

That key ring of yours is always hooked to your belt. Now how could somebody get to it without you knowing?

GARRY

(upset; flustered)

Look, I haven't been near that... that refrigerator.

Silence as the men continue to stare. Sanchez is perspiring.

GARRY

(continuing)

Copper's the only one who has any business with it.

The eyes shift from Garry to Copper.

DR. COPPER

Now...wait a second, Garry, you've been in here on several occasions....

FUCHS

And the Doc thought of the test.

CHILDS

(anger)

So what?! Is that supposed to leave him in the clear?! Bullshit!

Sanchez bolts out the door. Stunned for a beat, the others chase after him.

GARRY

Hey, Sanchez!

CUT TO

152 SANCHEZ

He hears the clamor of feet and voices as the others are nearing. He breaks the glass and grabs a shotgun. Then a box of shells. He frantically tries to load, but is too nervous.

The others arrive at the end of the hallway. Garry pulls his handgun and points.

GARRY

Put that down!

SANCHEZ

(trembling)

No.

GARRY

I'll put this right through your head.

No one doubts Garry's sincerity.

SANCHEZ

You guys going to let him give orders? I mean he could be one of those Things.

The others regard Garry tensely. No one oblivious to the fact, that Sanchez just might be right.

MAC READY

(calm)

Put it away, Sanchez. Just put it away.

Still trembling, he tosses the shells back into the broken case, leans the gun against the wall and begins to sob. Nauls skates over to comfort him.

The men watch as Garry lowers his gun. He turns to them.

Can't see anyone objecting to you,
Norris.

NORRIS

MacReady beats him to it.

MAC READY

Maybe it should be someone a bit more even-tempered, Childs.

Childs glares.

MAC READY

(continuing; to others)

...Any objections?

Roving eyes pass about the hallway. Nobody is sure who to trust. MacReady seems as good as any.

153 INT. REC ROOM

153

The men have gathered to discuss plans. Furtive and untrustworthy glances are passed around the room.

MAC READY

...From what we know this Thing likes to go one on one. So we stick together as much as possible.
In two's and three's.

CHILDS

What do we do about those three?

MAC READY

We got morphine, don't we?

Fuchs nods.

MAC READY

(continuing)

Well, we keep them loaded. Stash them here in the rec room and watch 'em twenty-four hours.

PALMER

(ears perk up)

Morphine? You know I was pretty close to that dog, too.

Palmer is ignored.

NORRIS

We should sleep in shifts.

MAC READY

Right. Half of us awake at all times.

SANCHEZ

How we going to try and find out who's...you know, who's who?

MAC READY

(to Fuchs)

Can you think of any other tests?

FUCHS

I'll try. I could sure use Copper's help though.

CHILDS

You can eighty-six that thought right now, man.

Dr. Copper eyes his accuser solemnly.

MAC READY

Also...When this Thing turns...it turns slowly at first. I think we if it ever got to full power...from what I saw of that Norwegian camp

...well, I just don't know...It would probably take it an hour or more to get like that. So no matter what anybody's doing, we all return to this room every twenty minutes.
Anybody gone longer than that... anybody trying to leave...we kill 'em.

CUT TO

154 EXT. COMPOUND - DARKNESS

154

It is the dead of winter. Six months of darkness ahead.
Palmer fights the cold as he works dismantling the engine of the helicopter.

He frowns, searching for something.

PALMER

(mumbles)

Where's that magneto? Can't find a darn thing around here any more.

155 INT. REC ROOM

155

Copper, Clark and Garry sit moodily together on a couch.
Norris awkwardly prepares to give them their injections. He is new at this. Childs stands guard with his torch.

Dr. Copper offers to help.

DR. COPPER

I'll do it. You're going to break the needle in my arm.

CHILDS

No, Doc. He's doing a real fine job.

156 EXT. COMPOUND

156

MacReady and Sanchez are foraging through the trash dump.

MAC READY

Look for shoes, too. And burned cloth.

157 INT. RADIO ROOM 157

Norris has begun dismantling the radio. He rubs at his chest as he disengages the headset.

158 INT. HALLWAY 158

Following Nauls as he skates through the labyrinth. Checking waste bins. Pausing to look behind shelves and any obscure hiding place.

MacReady passes him coming the other way.

NAULS

That thing's too smart to be hiding any more of its clothes, MacReady.

MAC READY

Just keep looking.

159 INT. LAB 159

Fuchs is poring over a book. Several others lie open on his desk.

MacReady pokes his head in the lab.

MAC READY

How's it going?

FUCHS

Nothing yet. But, MacReady, I've been thinking...If our dogs changed by swallowing parts of that other one...We better see to it that everyone prepares their own food and we eat out of cans.

MAC READY

Gotchya.

160 EXT. COMPOUND 160

A siren goes of, signaling the end of a twenty-minute period. Sanchez pulls himself out of the trash dump.

Palmer carries a large part of a helicopter engine toward the compound.

161 INT. COMPOUND

161

The hallway near the supply storage cubicle. MacReady holds the door open as Palmer makes his way to him lugging the heavy helicopter part.

Childs passes by from the other direction.

PALMER

Childs, where's that magneto from Chopper One?

CHILDS

Ain't it there?

He passes by.

PALMER

No it ain't there. Would I be asking if it were there?

MAC READY

Move it, Palmer.

162 INT. SUPPLY STORAGE ROOM

162

Palmer sets down the heavy part. Norris follows him inside with a bundle of radio gear. They move back out into the hallway. MacReady locks the door behind them.

163 HALLWAY

163

The three move down the hall toward their appointed rendezvous at the rec room.

MAC READY

Start taking apart those snowmobiles next, huh?

164 INT. KITCHEN

164

Cramped. Several of the men are preparing their food. Opening cans. Heating them in pots.

What you doin'?

BLAIR

Nobody's getting in here. You can tell them all that!

NAULS

Well, who the hell you think wants to get in there with you?

Nauls slides the tray in the slot. It is immediately shoved back out and topples onto the ice. Some of the food has splashed on Nauls' heavy coat.

NAULS

(continuing)

Now why'd you go and....

BLAIR

And I don't want any more food with sedatives in it. I know what you're up to. Don't think I don't. And if anyone tries to get in here -- I've got rope. I'll hang myself before it gets to me.

NAULS

You promise?

168 INT. BALLOON TOWER

168

MacReady slashes into the huge uninflated weather balloons, rendering them useless. Tanks of helium and hydrogen are stacked nearby.

169 INT. KITCHEN

169

Nauls does the dishes. His cassette plays in the b.g.

170 INT. REC ROOM

170

Childs continues guarding the three men.

CLARK

Gotta go to the can, Childs.

Childs follows him to the other end of the room.

CHILDS

Be quick.

Clark walks to the head. Childs moves back to the middle of the room. As the guard he is much more vulnerable in this position. Being split between his prisoners.

The lights begin to flicker. The soft purr of the generator begins to fade.

CHILDS

(continuing)

Oh, no.

The lights go out. Nauls calls from the kitchen.

NAULS (o.s.)

Childs! That a fuse?

CHILDS

No. The generator. You got the auxiliary box just off the kitchen. Get to it.

(fumbling around)

Where's the damn flashlight?

(calling out)

You fellas okay over there?

Dr. Copper giggles in the dark.

It's shorted out or something!

CHILDS

(shouting)

Clark, you come on out here!!

Childs lights the tip of his torch, allowing him a strong candlelight. Garry is no longer in the room.

CHILDS

(continuing)

Where's...Where's Garry?

Dr. Copper looks numbly at the empty seat next to him. Childs finds the portable siren and blares it.

171 EXT. COMPOUND

MacReady, Palmer and Sanchez heed the call and head for the compound.

172 INT. REC ROOM

Childs jerks his head around in different directions.

CHILDS

Where are you, Garry? Don't you move an inch, Copper.

(shouts)

Nauls, bring me a goddamn flashlight!

173 INT. KITCHEN

173

Pitch black.

NAULS

Somebody's taken it. I can't find it!

CHILDS (o.s.)

Clark, you want me to come in after you?!

174 INT. HALLWAY

174

MacReady, Sanchez and Palmer come in from the outside. They bump into each other trying to get their bearings from the lack of light. Palmer, the only one who seems to have one, turns on his flashlight.

MAC READY
(shouting)
What's happened!?

NORRIS (o.s.)
MacReady, that you?

MAC READY
Yeah!

NORRIS (o.s.)
It's the generator I think! No power.

MAC READY
(to Palmer)
Well, let's get down there.

CHILDS (o.s.)
MacReady!

MAC READY What?

CHILDS (o.s.)
Garry's missing!

MAC READY

Oh, shit!

Well, hang on!

CHILDS (o.s.)
Gee, thanks!

PALMER

The fuel pump...it's gone...

You've got to get up to supply, Mac. If we don't get this thing started soon, it'll freeze on us and we'll never get it going.

MacReady dashes upstairs into the darkness.

176 INT. HALLWAY

176

The lab door is opened. Fuchs holding a small candle walks out. As he passes, the shoulder of a man springs into frame.

177 INT. GENERATOR ROOM

177

Palmer is feverishly working underneath the generator on his back.

178 INT. REC ROOM

178

The temperature continues to drop rapidly. Childs swats himself to keep warm, while still keeping an eye on Dr. Copper and the rest of the room.

179 INT. HALLWAY

179

MacReady rushes out of the supply room, with a fuel pump, bumps into somebody.

MAC READY

Who...Who is that?

The silhouette moves on down the hallway.

MAC READY

Sanchez...? Hey, who....

PALMER (o.s.)

Mac, where the hell is that pump!!

MacReady holds the flashlight for Palmer. Their breath, puffs of white smoke.

PALMER

Somebody definitely messed with it.

Hope so. Another ten, fifteen minutes. What I don't get is....

The sound of a screeching. From somewhere in the compound. The two men's faces, locked in fear.

CUT TO

181 INT. REC ROOM

181

The generator has been repaired; the lights within the compound are back on.

Grim and tense. Everyone is present but Fuchs. Eyes flit from man to man. Palmer, Nauls and Sanchez are spread out about the room, keeping as much distance as possible from the rest.

Norris and Childs are tying the Doctor, Clark and Garry to the couch. MacReady prepares several makeshift blowtorches as he kneels on the ground.

SANCHEZ

Where were the flashlights?

MAC READY

Screw the flashlights. Where the hell were you?

PALMER

Tons of stuff's been missing around here. Magnetos, cables, wire....

NAUL

Kitchen things, too....

I said where? Where'd you go?!

GARRY
Was dark...find a light....

CHILDS
You lying bastard....

Garry struggles to his feet, affronted.

GARRY

I rather don't like your tone....

He grabs Childs by the collar.

CHILDS
You sit back down....

Childs whales on him with a right hand. Both go tumbling over the couch. MacReady and Norris dive in breaking it up.

NORRIS Enough....

MacReady, furious, pulls Childs away.

Norris breathing heavily from the activity, massages his chest. The strong, stormy winds overhead batter the roofing. MacReady glances up. He and Childs release each other.

MAC READY
That storm's going to start ripping any minute -- so we don't have much time.

CONTINUED

He thrusts one of the blowtorches hard into Childs' stomach.

MAC READY

We've got to find Fuchs. When we find him -- we kill him.

SANCHEZ

Why?

MAC READY

If he's one of those Things, we've got to get to him before he changes ...Nauls, you and Childs and I'll check the outside shacks....

He tosses torches to Sanchez and Palmer.

MAC READY

(continuing)

Sanchez, you and Palmer search the inside....

PALMER

I ain't going with Sanchez.

Sanchez snaps his head toward Palmer. Palmer looks at the others.

PALMER

(continuing)

I ain't going with him. I'll go with Childs....

SANCHEZ

Well, screw you, man!

PALMER

MAC READY

Hey, Blair!!

Blair jumps in fear, spilling his can.

MAC READY

Has Fuchs been out here?

Blair approaches the boarded-up window. He looks haggard and afraid.

BLAIR

I've changed my mind...I'd...I'd like to come back inside...I don't want to stay out here any more... Funny things...I hear funny things out here.

MAC READY

Have you come across Fuchs?

DR. COPPER

I'm getting worried about you.
You ought to have a checkup.

NORRIS

Let's just not get worried about

A violent gust sends MacReady's body horizontal, but still hanging onto the rope. The wind slaps him back down. His flare and torch tumble back toward Nauls. Nauls saves the torch from rolling down the hill.

MacReady, lying vulnerable, watches Nauls pull his way toward him. He tenses. Nauls reaches him. A beat. He hands him back his torch. Relieved, MacReady pulls himself upright.

They enter. Haunched. Torches ready. The place a mess. The winds as strong as on the outside.

The single flare illuminating the ceiling. Almost all of the corrugated, steel roofing is gone. As if ripped off.

NAULS

Where's the roof?!

MacReady stares up incredulous, as they advance through the room.

NAULS

This storm do that?

MAC READY

Couldn't be possible. Must have weighed a ton and a half....

Nauls kicks over a chair. A naked, fleshy object bounds high into the air. Nauls thrusts out his torch, catching the breasts of the inflatable woman. She pops and is sucked out through the hole in the roof.

Nauls tries to catch his breath.

NAULS

Goddamn white women.

Saddened, angry, Childs goes to check the damage to his plants. Palmer, his face set in horror, yanks him back.

PALMER

Childs!!

Where's MacReady?

Nauls weighs each of them ominously, while digging down underneath his heavy jacket.

NAULS

Cut him loose of the line up by his shack.

CHILDS

Cut him loose?

NAULS

NAULS
It's cool, man. We ain't near you, man...Stay cool....

PALMER
Yeah, man, really. Just relax.

MAC READY
Anybody touches me...we go.

Norris, lying on the floor, coughs as if gasping for breath. He quivers for a moment and then is still. Nauls crawls over to him and shakes him. A beat.

NAULS
I don't think he's breathing.

Nauls listens to Norris' chest. MacReady stands.

MAC READY
Go untie the Doc. Get him in here.
Bring the others, too...

menacingly)
From now on no one gets out of my

210 INT. INFIRMARY

210

Norris' body is plopped on the examination table. Copper stumbles and is steadied by some of the men. MacReady continues to keep his distance.

Copper places an oxygen mask over Norris' face. He then rips open his shirt.

MAC READY

So you sweethearts had yourselves a little trial. I just may have to kill you on general principle, Nauls.

Copper begins swathing Norris' chest with a gelatin substance.

MAC READY

(continuing)

...Ever occur to the jury that anybody could have gotten to some of my clothes and stuck them up....

CHILDS

We ain't buying that.

DR. COPPER

Dammit, quit the bickering and give me a hand. Wheel that fibrillator over here.

Sanchez pushes over the portable fibrillator. Copper climbs up on the table and straddles Norris' chest. Unnoticed, Clark paws the contents of the instrument tray behind his back.

DR. COPPER

Palmer, turn on that oxygen and hold the mask over his face...
Childs, grab his shoulders.

They do so. Copper holds electrical prongs over Norris' chest.

CHILDS

(to MacReady, threatening)

You're going to have to sleep sometime.

DR. COPPER

Quiet down...
(to Sanchez)

Sanchez depresses the "on" button.

DR. COPPER
(continuing)
Now hold him.

MAC READY
I'm a real light sleeper, Childs....

DR. COPPER Enough, MacReady!

Dr. Copper presses the prongs onto Norris' chest and shoots a bolt of current. Norris' body heaves upward. A slight crackling sound and an odd chirp through the oxygen mask.

DR. COPPER
(continuing)
Again...More current this time,
Sanchez....

Buzzzz. Several more jolts from the prongs. Clark's hand has found a scalpel. He gently lifts it out, bringing it to his side.

MAC READY
And if anyone tries to wake me....

DR. COPPER
Damn you, MacReady!

Norris' body begins bounding up. More crackling and popping. His chest begins to break up and spread. The mask pops off -- a hideous mewling escaping from Norris' distorted mouth.

The men jump back, incredulous. Dr. Copper scrambles off his chest and flops to the floor.

SANCHEZ
God...what...?

They watch on in stunned horror as The Thing that was Norris begins to change, to spread awkwardly on the slab. Its clothes tearing. A shoe splits in half and falls to the floor, exposing the beginnings of a talon.

MacReady charges toward it, shooing the men off.

MAC READY

Get out of the way!!

He unloads with a stream of flame. The body writhes in pain, belching and hissing. The slab catches fire. It struggles, lunges for the floor, straightens up, and moves a few feet.

A black and yellow substance rips through its trousers and squirts to the floor. Norris' body collapses on the fibrillating machine in flame. Extinguishers are ripped from the walls and put to work.

MacReady watches the smoking particles of ooze in fascination, as they twitch and mew on the floor.

Within seconds the fire is out. The men stand around in awe as they look upon The Thing that was once Norris.

MacReady continues to observe the small particles. Their tiny squeals abating into silence.

211 INT. REC ROOM

211

MacReady, still carrying the industrial torch, has maneuvered all the men into the room. He holds Garry's .44. He has untaped the explosives from his chest and laid them on the nearby table next to two more boxes of dynamite.

CLARK

What you got in mind, MacReady?

MAC READY

A little test.

PALMER

What kind of test?

MAC READY

I'm sure a lot of you already know.

MAC READY

Palmer, you and Copper tie everyone down. Real tight.

CHILDS

MAC READY

For your health.

GARRY

(to others)

Let's rush him. He's not going to blow us all up.

MAC READY

Damn if I won't.

CHILDS

(a beat)

You ain't tying me up.

MAC READY

Then I'll have to kill you.

CHILDS

Then kill me.

MacReady points the .44 at Childs' head.

MAC READY

I mean it.

MacReady cocks his gun. Childs holds his ground.

CHILDS

I guess you do.

A beat. Clark springs for MacReady. Scalpel raised.

MacReady spins and fires three shots, point-blank, the force of the charges sending Clark flying backwards. The others, themselves about to pounce, stop -- as MacReady whirls the torch and gun back toward them.

PALMER

MAC READY

Norris looked pretty dead, himself.
Bullets don't kill these Things.

MacReady turns on a Bunsen burner while he cuts the rubber covering off an electrical cord, exposing the copper wire. All the while, he keeps his eye on the men.

CHILDS

(muttering)

We should have jumped his ass.

MAC READY

Now Copper, you tie Palmer up.

Copper starts to tie Palmer to the small couch next to Childs and Garry.

MAC READY

We're going to draw a little bit of everybody's blood.

NAULS

What are you going to do? Drink it?

MAC READY

Watching Norris in there...gave me the idea that maybe every part of you bastards is a whole. Every piece of you is self-sufficient, an animal unto itself. When a man bleeds it's just tissue. But blood from one of you Things won't obey. It's a newly formed individual with a built-in desire to protect its own life. When attacked your blood will try and survive -- and crawl away from a hot needle say.

All the men have been tied up. Palmer, Childs and Garry on the small couch. The others, including the lifeless corpse of Clark, in chairs.

Copper returns the plate to the table and sets it down in line with the other plates of blood that he has collected. The names of each man have been scribbled onto the plates. MacReady slides the Doctor a fresh plate.

MAC READY

Now you.

Copper cuts his thumb, his blood dribbles into the plate. He stands nervously for a beat.

MAC READY

(continuing)

Slide it back here.

Copper pushes it toward MacReady.

MAC READY

(continuing)

Now step way back.

Copper steps backward, moisture beginning to collect on his brow. MacReady begins to heat the copper wire over the Bunsen burner.

The men watch intently. The wire begins to glow. MacReady points the torch directly at the Doctor. Both of them perspiring. MacReady lifts the glowing wire from the flame. The Doctor is dead still. MacReady slowly torches the wire to the Doctor's plate. A soft hiss.

MacReady heats it again and tries once more. The same soft hiss. MacReady and the Doctor both let out a sigh.

He heats the wire and puts it to his plate. The same harmless same result. Childs mumbles.

CHILDS

Load of bullshit.

MAC READY

We'll see. Let's try Clark.

He heats the wire and lays it in Clark's dish. The hissing.

CHILDS

So Clark was human, huh?

MacReady nods.

CHILDS

(continuing)

So that makes you a murderer.

MacReady glances over the group.

MAC READY

Palmer now.

He sets Palmer's plate in front of him and heats the wire.

Screech!!! The blood howls, trying to crawl off the plate.

Palmer bolts forward with incredible force, racing for MacReady; his face splitting; his mouth roaring -- dragging the couch, Childs and Garry with him. He smashes into MacReady knocking him over the table.

MAC READY

(continuing)

Copper!!

It's all happened too fast. Copper tries to get off a burst of flame. The ever-changing Palmer breaks his bonds and leaps on the Doctor.

The others sit helpless, struggling at their bindings.

MacReady dives on Palmer's back and the three go rolling to the floor. Screeching. Crackling. MacReady pounds viciously at Palmer's head. A powerful, shirt-splitting arm sends him skidding across the floor.

Copper momentarily has control of the torch. Just as he positions it, Palmer's mouth splits from his chin to his forehead and engulfs the entirety of the Doctor's head.

The big torch slaps against the wall. Palmer bounds to his feet, wrapping his arms around the dangling, struggling body of Dr. Copper.

The men are screaming hysterically. MacReady tries to fire up the bruised torch. Busted. Won't work. Frustrated, he charges up behind Palmer and begins hammering the thick steel instrument over his head.

The shirt on Palmer's back erupts in MacReady's face. Splitting and ripping wildly, exposing the beginnings of yet another orifice. A blackened, iron-strong tongue lunges outward. Stunned, MacReady manages to elude it, diving for the top of the table by the boxes of dynamite.

MacReady lights the fuse of a thick roll and bounds from the table. Palmer awkwardly spins in circles, swinging the Doctor's body like a propeller blade, struggling to keep on balance, as he advances on MacReady. The second orifice, spitting and snarling as it continues to take form.

MacReady waits until Palmer's back spins around, facing him. Only two yards away, MacReady flings his lit roll into the ever-evolving second mouth and leaps onto the couch covering Childs and Garry with his body.

Sanchez breaks down and sobs.

CHILDS

Nauls and Sanchez take aim five yards away. Fierce, determined. The wire comes off the flame into the plate...the harmless hissing.

The muscles in Childs' face melt into a sigh.

219 GARRY

stares grimly ahead. Childs soaks his clothing with a can of gasoline. He is then surrounded. The room tenses, adrenalin pumps, breathing halts.

The burner. The torches. The wire. The plate. Garry's face.

Hissssss.

MacReady tries it again. Hiss. The men breathe. Their torches are lowered. Nauls throws his on the floor. Sanchez and Childs flop down in chairs. MacReady wipes his face.

A long silence. Sanchez weeps quietly with relief.

GARRY

I know you gentlemen have been through a lot. But when you find the time...I'd rather not spend the rest of the winter tied to this couch.

A beat. Childs starts to giggle. The strain on MacReady's jaw begins to lessen. Garry sits catatonic. Nauls scowls at Childs' uncontrollable laughter.

The infectious rasping causes MacReady a slight smile as he looks up, taking comfort in the sound of the raging Antarctic wind vibrating the roof. Nauls, untying Garry, grumbles, at Childs.

NAULS

Shut the damn hell up.

Childs wipes his eyes and grins over toward MacReady. His smile faded, MacReady is now stone-face. Childs' grin goes stale, in sudden realization.

MAC READY

(almost a whisper)

Blair....

220 EXT. COMPOUND - NIGHT

220

The wind rumbles. The storm is at its peak. MacReady, Childs and Nauls, guided by their flares, pull themselves along the steadying rope, headed for Blair's shack.

221 BLAIR'S SHACK

221

The door is wide open. They pause by the entrance, trying to balance against the wind. They enter.

222 INT. BLAIR'S SHACK

222

Empty. A few of the floorboards are loosened. They pull them up. They stare down into a large hole beneath the planking. Something is down there. They pull up more boards.

The hole is some fifteen feet deep. Its dimensions are the same as the shack. Its space is almost completely taken up by some strange metallic object.

Crudely fashioned, a patchwork job, but streamlined. Sheets of corrugated steel are visible; but cut apart and welded into the desired shapes. The object appears to be unfinished.

NAULS

What is it?

MAC READY

Everything that's been missing.

CHILDS

Spaceship of some kind.

MAC READY

Smart s.o.b. He put it together piece by piece.

NAULS

Far off, amidst the howling gale -- the screeching. The men jump. MacReady lights the fuse, as they make it to the exit. He tosses it in.

223 EXT. COMPOUND ALONG THE ROPE

223

The explosion echoes behind them. The men pull along. Their heads jerk in circles, searching into the blackness.

Some twenty yards to their rear something swooshes down, severing the line. The wind sends the men tumbling along the ice. Childs loosens the line and is blown away, rolling out of sight.

MacReady and Nauls have lost their torches. They pull feverishly along the ground trying to make it to the compound.

The screeching closes in behind them. MacReady loses his grip on the rope and is blown toward the main building. He crawls along looking for an opening.

Nauls slides near the outside entrance to the dog kennel. He climbs down through the open stairwell.

224 INT. PLANT ROOM

224

MacReady has found the broken window. He rolls through it, landing on the frozen plants below. Something smashes at the glass above his head, trying to get in. He sprints for the door. Fuchs' frozen body is still pinned to it with the ax. MacReady grapples with the stiff torso which blocks the knob.

He finally gets it open and lets himself out, slamming and locking the door from the hall. Fuchs' body swings eerily, back and forth.

Nauls begins cutting the wicks off the dynamite.

GARRY

Make 'em short. They'll go off quicker if we need to use them.

The wind belts into the roofing overhead. Garry sets the wiring to the main doorway. MacReady begins blocking off one of the other entrances with a large computer.

SANCHEZ

MAC READY

GARRY

One thousand volts. Should be

230 INT. KITCHEN

Nauls pushes a stove, reinforcing a locked door. Five yards Sanchez hears a quiet purring, bubbling sound. He turns to Nauls.

SANCHEZ

You hear that?

NAULS

Hear what?

A blaring. They whip their attention to stereo speakers on either side of the kitchen. Rock music screams out. Top

NAULS

It's in between us and them!! How we going to get back?!!

SANCHEZ

Can't hear you!

234 INT. REC ROOM

234

MacReady, cursing, rips the speakers off the wall.

MAC READY

What are they doing out there?!

The music is now subdued within the room, but continues booming throughout the camp. Nauls' scream can be barely heard.

In the opposite direction, behind Sanchez, another arm splits through the door and the refrigerator, extends itself five feet and yanks Sanchez back as if he were a puppet.

Sanchez struggles, looking imploringly at Nauls. He bites down on his capsule. Nauls takes off like a speed skater.

236 INT. REC ROOM

The sound of a door opening and closing. Far off. Another creaking door is opened. A rustling. Still far off. MacReady and Nauls spread further apart.

The soft bubbling, cooling sound. A slight scratch at the door. Garry's hand tightens around the generator switches. The scratching gets more pronounced. MacReady cautions Garry with a whisper.

MAC READY

Wait....

The door begins to pound from the outside. Nauls and MacReady light two cocktails each.

The door booms. The room's foundations shake. The ceiling quivers. The gas bombs are cocked.

From the roof The Thing roars down into their midst. Stunned, the men stumble back. MacReady throws his gas bomb. Nauls the same.

For a moment it stands silhouetted in flame. Enormous. Grotesque.

Garry bolts for the main door. The Thing's tongue spirals from his mouth and spears him. The good two-thirds of its body follows its tongue and engulfs Garry by the door.

The terror forces him to drag faster, oblivious to the pain.

He reaches the bathroom stall. Crawls in. Locks it. The gurgling nears. Leaning on the toilet seat, he looks about himself, frantically.

The Presence pauses at the door. A scratching. Nauls' paws, rips at a cracked and weathered slab of wood, cutting his fingers as he tries to break it off the siding.

A strong blow begins to breach the stall door. Nauls finally unhinges the piece of wood, brings the jagged end to one side of his throat and rips....

243 INT. LAB WALL

He pulls the tractor to a stop, yanks the stick from his mouth, grins and bellows.

MAC READY

Okay, creep! Just you and me now!
Be on your toes! We're going to do a little remodeling!

MacReady guns it through the next wall and into the infirmary. Medical equipment goes flying. The machine is powerful; the prefabricated walls buckling under its force.

244 INT. COMPOUND

The tractor blazes into the rec room. MacReady parks it directly in front of the hole in the roof, created by The Thing when it surprised them earlier.

MAC READY

Damn it, ran out of gas.

He pulls off the heavy hydrogen tanks and drapes them over the tractor. As he talks his eyes move like a hawk passing from roof, to doorways, to rubble.

Wind and ice bristle through the gaping holes, stinging MacReady with the cold. He winces at his mittenless, blackened fingers.

MAC READY

Sweetheart, it's going to get mighty cold in here soon...You better make your move...I mean, hell, I'm only one person....

He takes a swig from his bottle.

MAC READY

Come on, sucker.

The tractor inches up off the ground. MacReady falls forward and looks straight down through the chassis and into the vile and grinning face below. A claw flashes up, splitting the steering wheel but missing his face.

He depresses the ignition, bolting the tractor forward ten feet. He jumps, hanging onto the edge of the hole in the ceiling. The Thing's face and arms burst through the metal plating of the tractor. The reaching claws just miss him as he pulls himself through.

He lights his fuse, drops in the stick, turns and runs.

Half of The Thing's grotesque and angular torso bolts up through the hole, howling in fury. An appendage springs outward and winds around MacReady's jacket, hissing like acid into the fabric.

An immense explosion. The hydrogen tanks send a white fireball fifty feet into the sky. The Thing's body disintegrating almost immediately.

The force of the blast sweeps MacReady off the roof. He and the severed appendage crash to the hard ice in flames. He rolls over and over trying to smother the fire and tear off the insidious limb.

CUT TO

249 INT. CAMP

249

A ruin. One half of it burnt almost to the ground. MacReady wears a thick blanket which covers him like a shroud, from his shoulders to the floor.

He walks bent over and in much pain, trying to blunt patches of fire with an extinguisher. It is futile. He gives up.

CUT TO

250 INT. PUB AREA

250

Mostly untouched by the fire, but like most of the rest of the camp, exposed to the outside. The storm has settled considerably.

251 CLOSE ON MAC READY

251

lighting a cigar. His hands are heavily wrapped. He pours himself a drink.

A puffy white hand, missing two fingers, enters the frame and whirls a startled MacReady around. It is Childs.

White and black blotches cover his frostbitten face.

CHILDs

Did you kill it?

He looks as weak as MacReady. A beat.

MAC READY

I think so.

CHILDs

What do you mean 'you think so?'

Both men speak guardedly and stare at each other suspiciously.

MAC READY

Yeah. I got it.
(refers to Childs' condition)
Pretty mean frostbite.

Childs steps back, keeping his distance. He indicates his puffy white hand.

CHILDs

It'll turn black again soon enough.
Then I guess I'll be losing the whole thing...

(refers to feet)

...Think my toes are already gone.

MacReady, carrying the bottle and glass, limps over and sits down behind a gaming table. There is a chess set and several decks of cards. The two men continue to eye each other.

CHILDS

(continuing)

So you're the only one who made it.

MacReady begins setting up a nonelectronic chessboard.

MAC READY

Not the only one.

CHILDS

The fire's got the temperature way up all over camp...won't last long though.

MAC READY

Neither will we.

CHILDS

Maybe we should try and fix the radio...try and get some help.

MAC READY

Maybe we shouldn't.

CHILDS

Then we'll never make it.

MacReady puffs on his cigar. He relieves a small blowtorch from under the table and places it beside him on top.

MAC READY

Maybe we shouldn't make it.

CHILDS

(beat)

If you're worried about anything, let's take that blood test of yours.

MAC READY

If we've got any surprises for each other -- we shouldn't be in any condition to do anything about it.

(beat)

You play chess?

They regard each other for a moment. Childs painfully sits down across from MacReady.

CHILDs

I guess I'll be learning.

MacReady grins and hands the bottle to Childs. Childs smiles back and takes a healthy swig.

252 EXT. COMPOUND - NIGHT

252

The fires smolder on. Bright embers dance in the blackness -- pushed by the sougning wind.
